Information Services for a

Sustainable Society Madeleine C. Fombad, Collence Takaingenhamo Chisita, Omwoyo Bosire Onyancha, Mabel K. Minishi-Majanja, 2023-07-24 The publication seeks to establish how information professionals are providing information services in a sustainable society in an era of information disorder. It also provides the strategic direction to strengthen the global voice of libraries inspiring and enhancing professional practice as well as enhancing international cooperation and collaboration among LIS educators and practitioners. The contents are divided according to the following key sub-themes that resonate with the title as outlined below: Library and information services in the information age; Data and records in an era of information disorder; Archives data curation and preservation in the digital era; Data science analytics and visualization; Information ethics in the digital era; Information deluge in the digital era; Information and knowledge management; Fourth Industrial revolution. The highlighted themes explore critical issues relating to how libraries, archives and related institutions are responding to the seismic shifts in the information landscape amidst a myriad of challenges and opportunities. The sub-themes bring together a tapestry of articles that explore the status, experiences and future prospects of the dynamic library and information science practice.

Resources in Education, 2001-04 Parliamentary Libraries and Information Services of Asia and the Pacific Rob Brian, 2013-02-06 The International Federation of Library Associations and Institutions (IFLA) is the leading international body representing the interests of library and information services and their users. It is the global voice of the information profession. The series IFLA Publications deals with many of the means through which libraries, information centres and information professionals worldwide can formulate their goals, exert their influence as a group, protect their interests and find solutions to global problems.
