Just Because Melannie Svoboda, 2010 Poetry is a lot like prayer Prayer is a lot like poetry Why Because they both arise from deep attentiveness to life Reading this book is a uniquely beautiful experience that affirms Melannie s deep attention not only to life but to God s place within it She invites readers to see everything as if for the first time a rose a grain of sand a baby s laugh a particular hurt an interior joy or dread Her prayer poems have the uncanny ability to put readers in the presence of the universal and eternal thus connecting them with God others with nature and the entire world All the poems in these pages are invitations to prayer They are simple varied in form and diverse in content and theme and prayerful Each is followed by a brief commentary about how the poem came to be reflection questions for personal pondering and group sharing suggested Scripture passages that relate to the poem and an activity or two for prayer and play

The New Day of Atonement Hans M. Moscicke, 2020-04-27 In this work Hans M Moscicke investigates the influence of the Day of Atonement on Matthew s passion narrative He argues that Matthew portrays Jesus as both goats of the Leviticus 16 ritual in his Barabbas episode Matt 27 15 26 Roman abuse scene Matt 27 27 31 and death resurrection narrative Matt 27 50 54 back cover bigger than you've smiled all week Or a child with Down syndrome who is in a perpetual good mood and you wonder What's the magic Those moments are what make this daily devotional quite different It is inspired by the words and actions of beautiful individuals with exceptionalities The voices heard from the pages of this book include children with autism Down syndrome and cognition delay to name a few The language is simple pure refreshingly honest and reflects the author's experience with this remarkable community which some

Damn the Torpedoes! Powell A Fraser, 2016-05-15 Awareness of the leadership traits exhibited by Admiral Farragut in his famous order Damn the torpedoes Full speed ahead can make any manager afloat or ashore more successful Alec Fraser's experience as a Navy captain and the president of a division of Turner Broadcasting has taught him that leadership ashore can be modeled after centuries of leadership at sea In Damn the Torpedoes Fraser utilizes his own experiences in the U S Navy and the corporate world to illustrate this concept Within the first sixty seconds of his induction to the U S Naval Academy Midshipman Fraser was posed with a question to which he answered I don't know This quickly proved to be an unacceptable answer in the Navy regardless of the question While doing the requisite push ups that followed he learned that there were only four ways to respond to a question or an order No excuse sir I'll find out sir Yes no sir and Aye aye sir From these four responses Fraser learned the four key concepts to being an effective leader afloat or ashore accountability thinking ahead ethics and motivation Damn the Torpedoes offers concrete advice for leading in the work place giving step by step recommendations to encourage readers into adopting this different way of approaching leadership Providing a fresh and unconventional perspective Captain Fraser gives personal and historic examples about the leadership traits of ship captains and suggests how leaders in any organization may adapt them to make their careers and businesses successful According to Fraser these four key leadership concepts are the basic principles necessary to prevent organizational chaos best summed up by a Wall Street Journal editorial on leadership at sea and ashore When men lose confidence and trust in those who lead order disintegrates into chaos and purposeful ships into uncontrollable derelicts cultural background interests strengths and capabilities as well as their individual learning and language needs

Case Studies in Building Equity Through Family Advocacy in Special Education Lydia Ocasio-Stoutenburg, Beth Harry, 2021
 You've read the history and the background now meet the families This companion book to Meeting Families Where They Are traces the advocacy journeys of 12 caregivers across a range of racial ethnic social disability economic and family identities The stories reflect the unique lives histories and needs of each family as well as the different approaches they employ to meet the needs of their children Caregivers indicate when they began to advocate describe how they continue their efforts across schools medical offices therapies communities and virtual spaces and discuss how they adapt to changing social and health climates and educational delivery modes They also share their collective wisdom to assist other parents who are new to the advocacy platform or are feeling discouraged with the process This is must reading for family members teachers administrators health care personnel and everyone invested in creating a culture of respect love and understanding Book Features Emphasizes how families have resisted the deficit based view of their children while still utilizing systems of support Identifies gaps and challenges across multiple systems as well as what's working Incorporates the fields of special education and disability studies in education Uses the framework of DisCrit to explore how disability and other social identities operate in tandem examining concepts such as power access privilege and barriers Positions caregivers as experts in their children's lives illustrating how they advocate for their children teens and young adults Takes a deep dive into the nuances of generational cultural organizational and geographical factors that impact how caregivers advocate Resists approaches that typically involve professionals dictating what families need centering instead on a collaborative model that includes families and professionals

95 Prostheses Frank G. Honeycutt, 2018-01-18 Five hundred years after Luther's famous posting of his 95 Theses in 1517 the church again faces an important crossroads Sunday worship attendance is shrinking at alarming rates There are now more Elvis believers in the US than Episcopalians and almost limitless spiritual options exist for those who seek faith and trust in something but are hesitant to commit to a particular path leading to truth The word prosthesis normally associated with surgery is also an apt word to describe the church's need to forge a theological identity that fits our current context The church faces change and a transformed body but not at the expense of the biblical richness and tradition that fueled the restlessness of the reformers The essays gathered here arranged around the seasons of the church year address familiar challenges faced by all pastors and leaders in an era of transition specifically in Christian formation and discipleship Appropriate for group and personal reflection 95 Prostheses employs humor and biblical accessibility with the skeptical outsider who may be considering Jesus and his church for the first time in mind

Reflection on America's Great Loop George Hospodar, Patricia Hospodar, 2012 Adventure is not just for the young Though I own a boat was the opening phrase to their courtship and eventual married life little did Baby Boomer couple George and Pat Hospodar know then that those words would lead to their making a year long journey of a lifetime aboard their boat Reflection almost forty years later This book welcomes and encourages not only fellow boaters but also armchair adventurers and dreamers of all ages to join them aboard as they share a light hearted real life account of their travels on the circumnavigation of the waterways of the eastern United States and Canada In addition for those who may consider making this journey themselves the authors offer insights and tips on Routes Anchorages Navigation Locking Marinas Free dockage Low bridges Fuel stops Restaurants Shopping Points of interest and local history Border crossings in Canada and the United States Local marine weather websites and phone numbers

Step into Your Place C. C. Okonkwo,2015 This book is an inspirational and motivational masterpiece produced out of enthusiastic belief in the human capacity and strong desire to motivate people to take advantage of their superiority identity over adversity to take charge and control of their lives C C shows you the following in this book Hero in you Seven colors of your rainbow Power of your mind Believe model that works This book stirs your passion for preparation persistence and insistence You have an even greatness possibility within you

Lift Up Your Hearts James A. Wallace,Robert P. Waznak,Guerric DeBona,2004 This collection of homilies represents the efforts of three preachers to interpret the lives of a community of faith and lead them deeper into the liturgy and life It grows out of a vision of the homily as a scriptural interpretation of human existence which enables a community to recognize God s active presence to respond to that presence in faith through liturgical word and gesture and beyond the liturgical assembly through a life lived in conformity with the Gospel The first intent of Lift Up Your Hearts is to focus on homilies as acts of interpretation in which the preacher does not so much attempt to explain the Scriptures as to interpret the human situation through the Scriptures This book casts the homilist not so much as a teacher but as a mediator of meaning speaking words that help the community to know itself and to act as the People of God the Body of Christ and the dwelling place of the Holy Spirit In addition these homilies are intended to move the parishioners toward the act of Eucharist to giving praise and thanks here and now and then beyond the Church doors out into the world to take part in the mission of the Church Pastors priests deacons and anyone who preaches will find this collection of source material to be particularly useful in crafting homilies that are grounded in Holy Scripture and yet relevant and meaningful in today s world Also it is written for the churchgoer in search of a helpful reflection on the Sunday readings with the intent of connecting the biblical texts with life
