Reflections On Black Psychology:

Reflections on Black Psych CB William David Smith, 1979-03      Research Directions of Black Psychologists Wade Boykin, Anderson Franklin, Frank J. Yates, 1980-01-15 Focusing on issues of particular importance to black people and confronting the rich variety and the complexity of the black experience the many contributors demonstrate the broad diversity of research interests and strategies among black psychologists from the traditional to the innovative Topics covered include studies of motivation cognitive development life span development and cultural difference versus deficit theories Many of the studies directly refute previous conceptions of the psychological functioning of blacks and offer alternative models and formulations This book is the first to present soundly designed and executed research that is emphatically linked to the perspectives and the psychological concerns of black Americans In designing these studies the authors aimed to ameliorate the pressing educational and social problems of blacks through a better understanding of their life conditions

Afrocentric Visions Janice D. Hamlet, 1998-09-14 In this timely volume editor Janice D Hamlet has chosen essays which illuminate various aspects of African American culture refracted through the lens of Afrocentric thought The book examines Afrocentric ideology and methodology Afrocentric approaches to the dynamics of communication the Afrocentric influence on the black aesthetic with an examination of language literature oral tradition movies and television and the future of Afrocentric visions      Philosophical Reflections on Black Mirror Dan Shaw, Kingsley Marshall, James Rocha, 2021-12-16

Black Mirror is a cultural phenomenon It is a creative and sometimes shocking examination of modern society and the improbable consequences of technological progress The episodes typically set in an alternative present or the near future usually have a dark and satirical twist that provokes intense question both of the self and society at large These kind of philosophical provocations are at the very heart of the show Philosophical reflections on Black Mirror draws upon thinkers such as Friedrich Nietzsche Pierre Hadot and Michel Foucault to uncover how Black Mirror acts as philosophical television questioning human morality and humanity's vulnerability when faced with the inexorable advance of technology      Human Behavior in the Social Environment from an African American Perspective Letha A See, 2013-04-03 In Human Behavior in the Social Environment from an African American Perspective leading black scholars come together to discuss complex human behavior problems faced by African Americans and to force the abandonment of conceptualization theories made without consideration of the Black experience Challenging you to engage in different thinking and develop new theories for addressing the needs of African Americans this book highlights the assets of black individuals families and communities and guides you through program interventions and public policies that strengthen and empower African Americans You will learn to enhance your clients coping strategies and resilience by factoring in their strengths rather than focusing on their weaknesses Human Behavior in the Social Environment from an African American Perspective contextualizes community behavior patterns gender roles and changing contemporary identities to challenge your assumptions about African American culture and communities and convince you to rethink your intervention strategies and methods To further help you fine tune your service delivery this book leads you through discussions on help seeking behaviors of young street males the association of sociocultural risk factors with suicides the use of emotive behavior therapy to help African Americans cope with the prospect of imminent death advocating for changes in institutions and systems which negatively impact the lives of the poor and the oppressed how social work has ignored one segment of the African American community young girls in urban settings psychological consequences of coming of age in a hostile environment Social workers community based groups policymakers and other helping professionals owe it to their clients to shrug off culturally incompetent services and care Using Human Behavior in the Social Environment from an African American Perspective as a guide you will learn to redress your programs and policies with a sensitivity to the factors and mechanisms that maximize the buoyancy of disadvantaged groups over various stages of their life development

Black Family Violence Robert L. Hampton, 2002-12-28 Gathering together scholars from across the social sciences Black Family Violence is one of the first books to chart new courses for research while simultaneously serving as a fundamental introduction to family relationship issues in the study of black family life

White Counsellors - Black Clients Nick Banks, 2019-05-23 Published in 1999 British cross cultural counselling practice issues are examined through a survey of the attitudes of white British Counsellors and their self reported practices with African Caribbean and South Asian clients The book has sections which review the literature on cross cultural counselling and the relative significance of race ethnicity and culture the white counsellor black client relationship the concept of racialized transference and the importance of training and supervision when working cross culturally The book also presents a profile of a sample of British Counsellors levels of training qualification and experience as well as interviews with practitioners and Counsellors in training responses to video vignette material Recommendations for the supervision and training of Counsellors are made

Afro-American Life, History and Culture, 1985 Africana Studies Molefi Kete Asante, Joseph A. Baldwin, Johnella E. Butler, Rudolph A. Cain, Amuzie Chimezie, John Henrik Clarke, Betty J. Collier, Richard A. Davis, 2021-09-24 The systematic study of the Africana Black experience emerged in universities in the USA in the late 1960s As an outgrowth of the Civil Rights and Black Conscious movements demonstrations occurred on campuses nationwide giving birth to the new academic discipline Written by emerging and established scholars and published in the Western Journal of Black Studies over a span of three decades beginning in 1977 the 27 essays included in Africana Studies provide an evolutionary trajectory of the discipline including theoretical ideological and methodological perspectives and paradigms The primary focus is the African American experience with emphasis on how theoretical and methodological approaches have changed over time as the discipline matured Topics include pre colonial literacy and scholarship in West Africa Black Nationalism intellectual foundations of racism and the ideology of European dominance Articles also address African American personality development gender relationships self identity masculinity crime blueprints for economic development and digitalization of the discipline This fundamental collection challenges assumptions misconceptions and negative stereotypes within the behavioral sciences social sciences and liberal arts fields and portrays the strength resilience and diversity of African and African American peoples      Social Work Practice With African American Men Janice M. Rasheed,Mikal N. Rasheed,1999-02-09 This is a ground breaking and long overdue book that proposes a variety of innovative and practical strategies to address relevant issues for African American men in micro practice approaches such as individual couple family and group treatment issues as well as macropractice approaches such as policy formulation program development and community practice This well documented book is informed by the authors years of qualitative research and their considerable years of clinical experience with African American men      African American Psychology A. Kathleen Hoard Burlew,1992-09-04 In an effort to help develop an approach to psychology that is consistent with the African American experience African American Psychology provides a comprehensive overview of African American behavior and personality This collection of classical papers drawn from The Journal of Black Psychology points out that a Eurocentric perspective or orientation is inherent not only in most psychological theory but also in the research methods developed to test psychological theories As such those who try to understand the African American experience must not limit themselves to traditional concepts or research methods The five sections of this volume cover both alternative and theoretical perspectives and new approaches to conducting research the diversity of structure in African American families and the forces affecting them African American children and two controversial but critical areas of study intelligence and cognition      From the Enlightenment to Black Lives Matter Ingrid R.G. Waldron,2024-11-25 A timely challenge to the colonial and imperial legacy of psychiatry From the Enlightenment to Black Lives Matter demonstrates how the politics of race and psychiatric diagnosis collide when diagnosing Black people and what this means for our current public health crisis      Human Services and the Afrocentric Paradigm Jerome Schiele,Jerome H Schiele,2013-09-13 Discover how human services professionals can help to eliminate cultural oppression Human Services and the Afrocentric Paradigm presents a new way of understanding human behavior attacking social problems and exploring social issues This excellent guide shows that understanding the simultaneous forces of oppression and spiritual alienation in American society serves as a foundation for understanding the societal problems here The first book to offer a comprehensive exposition of how the Afrocentric paradigm can be used by human service professionals and community advocates Human Services and the Afrocentric Paradigm discusses why and how human service work is hampered by Eurocentric cultural values and will help you to offer fair and effective services to your clients Human Services and the Afrocentric Paradigm provides you with a concrete discription of how the Afrocentric model can be applied in human services to help people of all races and ethnicities You will expand and diversify your knowledge base in human services by understanding the cultural values traditions and experiences of people of African ancestry Some of the issues and concepts in the Afrocentric paradigm that you will explore are defining the Afrocentric worldview complete with a discussion of its philosophical assumptions and its shortcomings understanding traditional helping assumptions and methods of West African societies and how these have influenced the helping strategies of African Americans exploring the strengths and weaknesses of some early African American human service scholars with special concern placed on their rejection of traditional African methods in favor of Eurocentric ideas resolving youth violence and helping people with substance abuse problems examining Afrocentric assumptions about resource distribution morality and societal relationships identifying organizational and conceptual differences in Eurocentric and Afrocentric paradigms creating organizational empowerment and an enhanced work environment via the Afrocentric paradigm Human Services and the Afrocentric Paradigm will help you understand solve and prevent problems that are confronted by several races especially individuals of African descent This timely and relevant worldview is thoroughly explained to assist you in better serving people of color The Afrocentric paradigm will help human services practitioners administrators policy advocates analysts educators and black studies professors and students achieve educational and treatment objectives by showing you the importance of various cultural values and how to integrate them to make a difference
