Landscape as Sacred Space Steven Lewis, 2005-07-15 Steven Lewis's Landscape as Sacred Space Metaphors for the Spiritual Journey invites new discussions about our spiritual journeys and allows seekers to rethink approaches to Christian spirituality and theology in light of postmodernity Landscape metaphors provide a common and accessible language to articulate one's spiritual journey Spiritual mountains deserts and valleys are dominant landscapes on our journey through life Most people have experienced the joy of a mountaintop spiritual experience the pain of spiritual deserts or perhaps the dreariness too often associated with spiritual valleys There is a tendency however to highlight spiritual mountaintops while avoiding spiritual deserts and ignoring spiritual valleys This leaves many Christians ill equipped either to deal with crises or to integrate God into ordinary life Each landscape offers rich lessons that when combined together lead us toward a maturing faith and into a deeper relationship with God Landscape as Sacred Space is intended to aid those who search for more meaningful ways to articulate their faith journey The book grants permission to struggle with life's landscapes provides safe spaces to reflect on the journey and introduces language that enables exploration and discovery

Poignant Landscapes Van Thi Diep, 2024-01-15 What is behind the modern soul's quest for meaning in life In the search to find belonging in our cultures lovability in our relationships worthiness in our economic and political systems and sacredness through the worshipping of all things between technology and nature what is it that we are truly looking for Even the uninspired among us cannot help but be mesmerized by beautiful landscapes find reassurance in calming landscapes and be in awe of the force of nature in powerful landscapes But how often do we stop to contemplate the existential relationship we have with these landscapes In the liminality of poignant landscapes that is the space between the external landscapes that move us and the psychological landscapes that guide us is a portal to life's most profound questions Who am I Why am I here Who do I want to be And what world do I want to live in Using the negative space found in language ecophilosopher Van Thi Diep delicately weaves together insights from her academic research study on place making and what it means to flourish as a landscape architect with personal ruminations on self acceptance belonging and healing social trauma Through these reflections she invites you on a vulnerable yet courageous journey to look inside the poignant landscapes that shape our individual soul paths as well as the ones we all share as humans here on Earth together In the wisdom of these poignant landscapes is the permission to feel the pain of being human to be loved exactly as we are without conditions and to be inspired by the sacredness of life This collection of short essays poetry and photographs wistfully mirrors the fluidity of landscapes by transcending the binaries of intellectualism and emotionality inner and outer world experiences individual and collective existence to return to what the modern soul wants most the knowing that true belonging does not exist outside of us but instead is found intuitively within
