expressing my thoughts on many of my personal experiences and most of them are inspired by either an individual or a life event that I felt a need to capture and share Many people may have had similar experiences and can relate with my words I hope that my penned words can be an inspiration or can offer solace or gratification to others Writing is a gift from God and

A Reflection of Life's Image Edward Parrish Jr.,2010-06-10 We often hold a different view of ourselves than what we project to others But it is during times of inner reflection that we see the truth of our being for better or worse Instead of fearing the exposure of our true self we should embrace it and fully appreciate the depth and breadth of our character A Reflection of Life's Image explores the unique relationships we have not only with our inner spirit but also with the spirits of those around us Through vivid imagery and stunning verse Edward Parrish Jr brilliantly captures how we as humans hide our true selves yet secretly long to reveal our real personalities Parrish's poetry uses images of nature to convey human emotions thoughts and actions In his title poem Reflections Parrish compares a flower to a soft spoken word while Learning uses autumn to create a colorful composition that exposes the moments of nature as it surrounds us In addition Parrish examines the seasons of life with those of nature crafting a lasting tribute to this intricate connection With a gift for translating emotion onto the page Parrish has created a deeply moving poetry collection filled with depth A Reflection of Life's Image will fill your mind with peace and open your heart to the human condition Reflections on Life Kenneth D.

Critical Reflections on Poetry and Painting (2 vols.) Jean-Baptiste Du Bos, 2021-07-15 Jean Baptiste Du Bos Critical Reflections on Poetry and Painting first published in French in 1719 is one of the seminal works of modern aesthetics Du Bos rejected the seventeenth century view that works of art are assessed by reason Instead he believed audience members have sentiments in response to artworks Their sentiments are fainter versions of those they would feel in response to actually seeing what the work of art imitates Du Bos was influenced by John Locke's empiricism and in turn had a major impact on virtually every major eighteenth century contributor to philosophy of art including Voltaire Montesquieu Diderot Rousseau Herder Lessing Mendelssohn Kames Gerard and Hume This is the first modern annotated and scholarly edition of the Critical Reflections in any language Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1975

Reflections Sg Williams, 2021-07-05 This is a collection of poems spanning five decades based on the everyday life experiences of the author From child rearing and poems for her young children to observations of human nature and beyond Both the silly and the serious topics are covered from the depth of pain to the heights of joy There is something here for everyone Odysseys Home George Elliott Clarke, 2002-12-15 Odysseys Home Mapping African Canadian Literature is a pioneering study of African Canadian literary creativity laying the groundwork for future scholarly work in the field Based on extensive excavations of archives and texts this challenging passage through twelve essays presents a history of the literature and examines its debt to and synthesis with oral cultures George Elliott Clarke identifies African Canadian literature's distinguishing characteristics argues for its relevance to both African Diasporic Black and Canadian Studies and critiques several of its key creators and texts Scholarly and sophisticated the survey cites and interprets the works of several major African Canadian writers including Andr  Alexis Dionne Brand Austin Clarke Claire Harris and M Nourbese Philip In so doing Clarke demonstrates that African Canadian writers and critics explore the tensions that exist between notions of universalism and black nationalism liberalism and conservatism These tensions are revealed in the literature in what Clarke argues to be paradoxically uniquely Canadian and proudly apart from a mainstream national identity Clarke has unearthed vital but previously unconsidered authors and charted the relationship between African Canadian literature and that of Africa African America and the Caribbean In addition to the essays Clarke has assembled a seminal and expansive bibliography of texts literature and criticism from both English and French Canada This important resource will inevitably challenge and change future academic consideration of African Canadian literature and its place in the international literary map of the African Diaspora

Payback and Other Stories Tomi Adeaga, Sarah Udo-Grossfurthner, 2018 The short stories explore the complications faced by Africans in living the postcolonial experience especially as it directly impacts the African world its peoples and their sometimes complicated lifestyles The narratives capture not only the angst of seeking meaning in a world that challenges wholeness for African communities and individuals but above all look at ways of retrieval of cultural ancestral knowledge in authenticating themselves
