A Global Political Economy of Democratisation Alison J. Ayers,2018-02-13 The late twentieth century is often portrayed as an Age of Democratisation with democracy heralded as the best of all political systems Yet democracy has multiple meanings values and significances The start of the twenty first century has witnessed a massive revival of interest in the meaning and role of democracy not least as democracy understood in one highly particular sense has been increasingly recognised to be in crisis This book presents these deliberations in a new light by moving beyond the concept of the sovereign state as the dominant framework of enquiry and by rejecting the primacy of the state and the categorical separation of the domestic and the international Instead Ayers elaborates an account of democratisation through the global political economy encompassing a trenchant critique of mainstream democracy promotion in theory and practice and opening up possibilities for different histories of democratisation autonomous of the Western liberal and neoliberal project This innovative work will prove useful to scholars and students in the fields of Politics Political Economy International Relations Development African Studies History Geography and Sociology

The Political Economy of Economic Reform in the Pacific Ron Duncan,2011-07-01 Over the last several years Vanuatu has become one of the fastest growing economies in the Pacific region driven primarily by tourism construction and aid inflows The achievement of strong economic growth has also occurred on the back of improved economic policy effective fiscal management and improved environment for private sector development While recent gains have been impressive more remains to be done to sustain growth and ensure the benefits are distributed throughout the nation The Government is now on a sound financial footing and is well placed to address key development issues The report discusses options for responding to these needs with a view to helping guide public policy formulation in Vanuatu Reforming Public Institutions and Strengthening Governance Banco Mundial,2002
