Edwards,Elizabeth A. De Wolfe,2001 A collection of new essays establishes women s voices as a powerful presence in US nature writing Table Scraps and Other Essays Juyanne James,2019-12-18 Table Scraps and Other Essays is for all intents and purposes memoir writing At the heart of the twenty two true stories is an African American female who as a child along with her siblings must learn the value of hard work as hired hands James s young spirit is often at odds with her growing family especially with a father figure who ignores his duties as husband and provider She has a strong loving mother who insists on keeping the family together James learns to trust and depend on the guardians of her small Louisiana community teachers who are eventually forced to move away from the area when the local schools are integrated Many years later James returns home figuratively and literally on occasion from the apartment where she lives in New Orleans and reconnects with a father who seeks forgiveness for his earlier betrayal He spends each day attempting to make up for the ill treatment of his wife and children In these essays James shares her love of nature both as a means of escape from her troubled family and as inspiration for her writing Sustaining the West Liza Piper,Lisa Szabo-Jones,2015-03-31 Western

Canada s natural environment faces intensifying threats from industrialization in agriculture and resource development social and cultural complicity in these destructive practices and most recently the negative effects of global climate change The complex nature of the problems being addressed calls for productive interdisciplinary solutions In this book arts and humanities scholars and literary and visual artists tackle these pressing environmental issues in provocative and transformative ways Their commitment to environmental causes emerges through the fields of environmental history environmental and ecocriticism ecofeminism ecoart ecopoetry and environmental journalism This indispensable and timely resource constitutes a sustained cross pollinating conversation across the environmental humanities about forms of representation and activism that enable ecological knowledge and ethical action on behalf of Western Canadian environments yet have global reach Among the developments in the contributors construction of environmental knowledge are a focus on the power of sentiment in linking people to the fate of nature and the need to decolonize social and environmental relations and assumptions in the West Living in Death's Shadow Emily K. Abel, 2017-02-28 Challenging assumptions about caregiving for those dying of chronic illness What is it like to live with and love someone whose death while delayed is nevertheless foretold In Living in Death's Shadow Emily K Abel an expert on the history of death and dying examines memoirs written between 1965 and 2014 by family members of people who died from chronic disease In earlier eras death generally occurred quickly from acute illnesses but as chronic disease became the major cause of mortality many people continued to live with terminal diagnoses for months and even years Illuminating the excruciatingly painful experience of coping with a family member's extended fatal illness Abel analyzes the political personal cultural and medical dimensions of these struggles The book focuses on three significant developments that transformed the experiences of those dying and their intimates the passage of Medicare and Medicaid the growing use of high tech treatments at the end of life and the rise of a movement to humanize the care of dying people It questions the exalted value placed on acceptance of mortality as well as the notion that it is always better to die at home than in an institution Ultimately Living in Death's Shadow emphasizes the need to shift attention from the drama of death to the entire course of a serious chronic disease The chapters follow a common narrative of life threatening disease learning the diagnosis deciding whether to enroll in a clinical trial acknowledging or struggling against the limits of medicine receiving care at home and in a hospital or nursing home and obtaining palliative and hospice care Living in Death's Shadow is essential reading for everyone seeking to understand what it means to live with someone suffering from a chronic fatal condition including cancer AIDS Alzheimer's and heart disease

Cultures of Silence Luísa Santos, 2022-12-30 This book investigates the notion of silence as both an oppressing instrument and a powerful tool of resistance under the lenses and practices of cultural production Taking a transdisciplinary and transcultural approach to the study of creative and cultural practices the chapters ask how cultural production is dealing with surges of oppressive regimes censorship and fake news and which cultural processes are implied in silencing as well in giving voice to in erasing and in producing small and grand narratives The book reaches beyond dominant instrumental views of contemporary cultural practice to understand culture not only as an expedient to conduct social policy but also as a diagnostic tool and a vernacular space of giving voice to the many small narratives that make the world we live in Offering an introduction to an underrepresented area of cultural studies this truly interdisciplinary volume will be of interest to scholars
