Memorial Art Gallery, 2006 A stunning full color volume that examines 82 pieces in the University of Rochester Memorial Art Gallery's American collection and their connections to American history culture literature and politics Seeing America is the first ever catalog of the University of Rochester Memorial Art Gallery's American collection Founded in 1913 the Memorial Art Gallery was created in conjunction with the University of Rochester so that it would function within a scholarly milieu yet at the same time perform service as a community museum From its conception it has been an ardent advocate for American art which so many counterpart institutions snubbed until at least the 1930s and more often until well after World War II in favor of European and Asian art The 336 page full color volume examines 82 objects and their connections to American history culture literature and politics The 73 articles present a running commentary on each piece by knowledgeable and thoughtful contemporary scholars and artists writing with expertise and insight ultimately presenting a new and deeper understanding that enhances the reader viewer's appreciation of the work The tour ranges from Colonial times to the twenty first century from Maine to Florida to the far West from mighty historical subjects to intimate byways from august figures and events to the humblest and most anonymous The diversity of American experience on display here reminds us that the best American art is inextricably bound up with the essential truths of American experience Art in America in Modern Times Holger Cahill, Alfred H. Barr (Jr.), 1962 Smashing Statues Erin L. Thompson, 2022-02-08 A leading expert on the past present and future of public monuments in America An urgent and fractious national debate over public monuments has erupted in America Some people risk imprisonment to tear down long ignored hunks of marble others form armed patrols to defend them Why do we care so much about statues Which ones should stay up and which should come down Who should make these decisions and how Erin L. Thompson the country's leading expert in the tangled aesthetic legal political and social issues involved in such battles brings much needed clarity in Smashing Statues She lays bare the turbulent history of American monuments and its abundant ironies from the enslaved man who helped make the statue of Freedom that tops the United States Capitol to the fervent Klansman fired from sculpting the world's largest Confederate monument who went on to carve Mount Rushmore And she explores the surprising motivations behind contemporary flashpoints including the toppling of a statue of Columbus at the Minnesota State Capitol the question of who should be represented on the Women's Rights Pioneers Monument in Central Park and the decision by a museum of African American culture to display a Confederate monument removed from a public park Written with great verve and informed by a keen sense of American history Smashing Statues gives readers the context they need to consider the fundamental questions for rebuilding not only our public landscape but our nation as a whole Whose voices must be heard and whose pain must remain private The Spirit of American Sculpture Adeline Adams, National Sculpture Society (U.S.), 1923 Sculpture in Modern America Jacques Schnier, 1972 Art in America Susan Davidson, Solomon R.
