

The background of the entire cover is a photograph of a sunset over the ocean. The sun is a bright, glowing orb just above the horizon, casting a long, shimmering reflection across the dark, rippling water. The sky is a deep blue with wispy, light-colored clouds. In the upper foreground, the dark silhouettes of a boat's rigging, including ropes and a pulley, are visible against the sky.

Sea Change Alone Across The Atlantic In A Wooden Boat:

Sea Change Peter Nichols, 2018-08-02 Sea Change is Peter Nichols first book a biographical account of his own dramatic adventure When his marriage ended Nichols had to sell the only thing he and his wife owned their boat With only his sextant his instincts as a seasoned sailor and his memories of a floundering marriage he sets out from England to sail to America to sell his beloved boat Toad Halfway across the Atlantic Toad springs a leak As the sea floods in faster Nichols tries everything to stay afloat desperately pumping the water out by hand He loses the battle after three days and is forced to abandon Toad This is more than a sea tale It is the painful story of his marriage his boat and himself Sea Change Peter

Nichols, 1997-06-01 Going Places Robert Burgin, 2013-01-08 Successfully navigate the rich world of travel narratives and identify fiction and nonfiction read alike with this detailed and expertly constructed guide Just as savvy travelers make use of guidebooks to help navigate the hundreds of countries around the globe smart librarians need a guidebook that makes sense of the world of travel narratives Going Places A Reader's Guide to Travel Narratives meets that demand helping librarians assist patrons in finding the nonfiction books that most interest them It will also serve to help users better understand the genre and their own reading interests The book examines the subgenres of the travel narrative genre in its seven chapters categorizing and describing approximately 600 titles according to genres and broad reading interests and identifying hundreds of other fiction and nonfiction titles as read alike and related reads by shared key topics The author has also identified award winning titles and spotlighted further resources on travel lit making this work an ideal guide for readers advisors as well a book general readers will enjoy browsing Sailing Alone Richard J. King, 2024-05-21 2024 National Outdoor Book Award Silver Medal Winner A masterfully curated collection You don't have to be a sailor to be blown away by this fascinating bighearted book Nathaniel Philbrick author of In the Heart of the Sea Travels with George and Second Wind A story as vast and exhilarating as the open ocean itself SAILING ALONE chronicles the daring disastrous and often absurd history of those who chose to sail across the ocean in very small boats alone Sailing by yourself out of sight of land can be invigorating and terrifying compelling and tedious and sometimes all of the above in one morning But it is also a wide expanse of time in which to think Sailing Alone tells the story of some of the remarkable people who over the last four centuries have spent weeks and months moving slowly over the world's largest laboratory a capricious and startling place in which to observe oneself the weather the stars and countless sea creatures from the tiniest to the most massive and threatening Richard J King profiles characters famous diverse international and obscure from Joshua Slocum of 1898 to modern teenagers daring to take the challenge They see strange hallucinations lie to us and themselves on their travel logs encounter sharks befriend birds and experience ESP all part of the unnerving reality of extended isolation And some disappear altogether Sailing Alone also recounts the author's own nearly catastrophic solo crossing of the Atlantic and the mystery of his inexplicable survival one sunny afternoon An enormously engaging new book for skippers and armchair voyagers alike The Sea in the Literary Imagination Ekaterina V. Kobeleva, Ben P. Robertson, Shannon W. Thompson, 2019-01-03 This collection explores nautical themes in a variety of literary contexts from multiple cultures Including contributors from five continents it emphasizes the universality of human experience with the sea while focusing on literature that spans a millennium stretching from medieval romance to the twenty first century reimagining of classic literary texts in film These fresh essays engage in discussions of literature from the UK the USA India Chile Turkey Spain Japan Colombia and the Caribbean Scholars of maritime literature will find the collection interesting for the unique insights it offers on individual literary texts while general readers will be intrigued by the interconnectedness that it reveals in human experience with the sea Encyclopedia of American Literature of the Sea and Great Lakes Jill B. Gidmark, 2000-11-30 The sea and Great Lakes have inspired American authors from colonial times to the present to produce enduring literary works This reference is a comprehensive survey of American sea literature The scope of the encyclopedia ranges from the earliest printed matter produced in the colonies to contemporary experiments in published prose poetry and drama The book also acknowledges how literature gives rise to adaptations and resonances in music and film and includes coverage of nonliterary topics that have nonetheless shaped American literature of the sea and Great Lakes The alphabetical arrangement of the reference facilitates access to facts about major literary works characters authors themes vessels places and ideas that are central to American sea literature Each of the several hundred entries is written by an expert contributor and many provide bibliographical information While the encyclopedia includes entries for white male canonical writers such as Herman Melville and Jack London it also gives considerable attention to women at sea and to ethnically diverse authors works and themes The volume concludes with a chronology and a list of works for further reading Cruising World, 1997-01 The Little Blue Book of Sailing Wisdom Stephen Brennan, 2014-06-03 Twenty years from now you will be more disappointed by the things that you didn't do than by the ones you did do So throw off the bowlines Sail away from the safe harbor Catch the trade winds in your sails Explore Dream Discover Mark Twain It's telling that Mark Twain chose sailing as a metaphor for living life to the fullest Throughout history humankind has been going to sea in boats and ships for the purposes of trade exploration transport fishing and pure enjoyment The Little Red Book of Sailing Wisdom contains some of the most moving perceptive witty and inspirational words ever spoken or written about the sea faring life Novelists politicians explorers playwrights poets musicians and celebrities weigh in on life upon the water under sail These are just some of the folks whose words appear in these pages Daniel Defoe Ted Kennedy Charles Dickens Franklin Roosevelt Herman Melville Dennis Connor Patrick O'Brian Larry Ellison Eugene O'Neill Thor Heyerdahl Jack London Isak Dinesen William F.
