Region, Race, and Class in the Making of Colombia Alfonso Múnera, 2023-08-18 This pioneering translation of Alfonso Múnera's seminal work El fracaso de la nación presents a new interpretation and innovative perspective on canonical Colombian history and the failure of the Colombian nation to English speaking readers Mainstream historiography depicts Colombian independence as the achievement of European descendent elites only downplaying the role and importance of regional subaltern classes M nera s well researched account challenges theoretical political and cultural interventions and shows that these subaltern groups were pivotal to achieving independence from Spain It was their organizing and pressing for freedom from colonial domination that ultimately brought about independence in Cartagena and later to the whole country Yet M nera demonstrates that these differing regional elites meant that a single coherent unity across New Granada was not possible a point that would ultimately doom subsequent nation building efforts Offering a truly decolonizing perspective one that has remained hidden from official accounts of Colombian independence scholars and researchers in political science history sociology and anthropology will welcome the opportunity to read this work for the first time in translation Czechoslovakia and the Czech Republic in World Politics Ladislav Cabada, Šárka Waisová, 2011-01-01 The book focuses on the description and analysis of the historical formation of the Czechoslovak and Czech positions in the international system during the course of the 20th century The first part of the book presents a brief outline of the history of Czechoslovak foreign policy between the First World War and the end of the Cold War The authors focus on the key periods and turning points in the role of the small Central European state in the international system as well as on the significant actors formulating Czechoslovak foreign policy from the inside and influencing it from the outside The second analytical part of the book focuses on the key issues connected to the change of the position of Czechoslovakia and the Czech Republic after 1993 in world politics and on the formulation of Czech foreign policy priorities and strategies in the globalized world after the end of bipolar confrontation The authors analytically investigate the activities of the Czech Republic in Central European regional integration processes and the integration of the state in the global system of development cooperation A great deal of attention is paid to the key political actors of the Czech foreign policy discussion and their impact on the formulation of foreign policy goals Special attention is paid to the dilemmas of Czech foreign policy the hesitation between the role of a small state and a medium power and also the span of Czech foreign policy between Atlanticism anti Americanism and Europeanization
