Iranian Cinema and Philosophy Farhang Erfani, 2012-01-02 In film studies Iranian films are kept at a distance as other different and exotic In response this book takes these films as philosophically relevant and innovative Each chapter of this book is devoted to analyzing a single film and each chapter focuses on one philosopher and one particular aesthetic question Mother Persia Zhinia Noorian, Brian Griffith, 2024-08-13 This book tells the story of Iranian women's accomplishments and struggles over the course of history spanning from ancient Elam to the present day It explores the evolving conditions of women's lives in each era and how women's choices and initiatives have shaped Persian civilization In the process it presents a cast of unique often brilliant individuals and refutes the traditional assumption that men were always the authors of Iranian culture business law religion art education literature agriculture science architecture philosophy social mores and the writing of history It shows how Iranian women have always been creative influential players in these fields and how their contributions have enriched the world

Land of the Turquoise Mountains Cyrus Massoudi, 2014-09-12 For Cyrus Massoudi a young British born Iranian the country his parents were forced to flee thirty years ago was a place wholly unknown to him Wanting to make sense of his roots and piece together the divided divisive and deeply contradictory puzzle that is contemporary Iran he embarked on a series of journeys that spanned hundreds of miles and thousands of years Rich portrayals of Sufis and ageing aristocrats smugglers and underground rock bands are all woven together with history religion and mythology to form a unique portrait of contemporary Iranian society And running through the heart of the narrative lies Massoudi's poignant personal quest his struggle echoing that of Iran itself as it fights to forge a cohesive modern identity Land of the Turquoise Mountains reveals a world beyond the propaganda driven media fuelled image of fractious flag burning fundamentalism and provides a compelling glimpse both into the heart of a deeply misunderstood nation and into what it is to seek out and discover one's heritage

Mission Manifest Matthew K. Shannon, 2024-06-15 In Mission Manifest Matthew Shannon argues that American evangelicals were central to American Iranian relations during the decades leading up to the 1979 revolution These Presbyterian missionaries and other Americans with ideals worked with US government officials nongovernmental organizations and their Iranian counterparts as cultural and political brokers the living sinews of a binational relationship during the Second World War and early Cold War As US global hegemony peaked between the 1940s and the 1960s the religious authority of the Presbyterian Mission merged with the material power of the American state to infuse US foreign relations with the messianic ideals of Christian evangelicalism In Tehran the missions of American evangelicals became manifest in the realms of religion development programs international education and cultural associations Americans who lived in Iran also returned to the United States to inform the growth of the national security state higher education and evangelical culture The literal and figurative missions of American evangelicals in late Pahlavi Iran had consequences for the binational relationship the global evangelical movement and individual Americans and Iranians Mission Manifest offers a history of living breathing people who shared personal professional and political aims in Iran at the height of American global power

Journey from Tehran to Chicago H. Dizadji,2010 After a brief overview of the glorious history of Iran interrupted by the invasion of external forces and periods of darkness Journey from Tehran to Chicago addresses the mutual beneficial interaction between Islamic and Iranian civilizations and cultures It dissects and analyses maladaptive and adaptive behavioral patterns of certain Iranian leaders throughout history Dr Dizadji an American Iranian describes his childhood schooling medical school training and his army experience in Iran He elaborates on the social political and economic states of Iran during that period which he thinks have contributed to the Iranian revolution and the establishment of the Islamic Republic of Iran After the completion of his cardiology training in the United States the author returns to Iran to achieve his intended goal to practice medicine in Iran However disappointed he returns to the United States as a postdoctoral fellow in cardiology sponsored by the National Heart Institute of the United States He eventually engages in a successful medical practice and takes additional educational courses in Chicago Holding several prestigious positions in the medical community he then focuses on the health care system of the United States discussing its rapid changes with advantages and weaknesses

Under a Starless Sky Banafsheh Serov,2010-07-01 One family s journey through the turmoil of the 1978 revolution when the Ayatollah Khomeini came to power in Iran and their escape over the mountains to Turkey and ultimately to Australia Banafsheh is eight when the revolution begins in Iran At first her family are jubilant about the collapse of the Shah s rule and the return of Ayatollah Khomeini but they quickly realise that Iran has traded one dictator for another more ruthless ruler Banafsheh s parents Kamal and Nina struggle with the harsh laws of the new revolutionary Iran Khomeini s revolutionary guard the Komiteh patrol the streets enforcing Islamic codes of dress and behaviour and dispatching harsh justice to perceived enemies of the revolution They drag Nina s father in for questioning interrogate Nina and put Kamal on a stop list so he is unable to leave the country Fearing for the safety of their two children Kamal and Nina decide the family must flee their beloved country leaving behind their extended family and friends But the only way of escape is to take the dangerous route across the Turkish mountains

Exiled for Love Arsham Parsi,Marc Colbourne,2015-05-01T00:00:00Z To be gay in Iran means to live in the shadow of death The country s harsh Islamic code of Lavat is used to execute gay men and LGBT individuals who avoid execution are often subjected to severe lashings torture and imprisonment It was in this unforgiving environment that Arsham Parsi came to terms with his identity as a gay man When a close friend committed suicide after his family learned he was gay Arsham felt compelled to act Risking his life as well as the safety of his family he used the anonymity of the Internet to speak out about the human rights abuses against LGBT people in his country In 2005 Parsi learned that an order had been issued for his arrest and execution He was forced to seek refuge in neighbouring Turkey until thirteen months later he was granted asylum in Canada Exiled for Love follows Parsi s incredible journey from his first understanding of his sexual orientation to his eventual exile It explores the reality for LGBT people in Iran through the deeply personal and inspiring story of his life escape and continuing work Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2003-04 An Afghan Path of Memories Ghulam Hassan Naseri,2012-04 It is obvious that any baby starts the very first stages of learning from a specific family s circumstances and environment This concept is better expressed by the philosophy as you go so go your children A lucky child is cherished on the knees of a loving educated mother Unfortunately I was a child deprived of love and affection by my parents in early childhood An attempt was made to write my autobiography in memoir style It was an interesting search to find and verify the motivation that made me tolerate the hard process of education while facing numerous problems and obstacles during the early period of my childhood This work is in chronological order and consists of twenty one chapters i e memories of childhood and the later stages of education as well as the impacts of the working environment in the course of time In this regard the translation of this poem is expressive Say first thou who are your friends Then I would say thee would be concerned It often happens that children stray even if they have educated and wealthy parents On the other hand sometimes it has been observed that a fulcrum caused to become a benevolent and useful person to the human society What a strange secret is hidden there This is my tenet to pass away conscientiously rather than be a perennial recalcitrant ignorant Whatever has happened to me I hope other children do not suffer the same thing Even though my dispersed writing may be a form of writing style all that I have said in these three distinguished periods of my life are not fabricated not a single idea or action I am proud of that to say what I have mentioned Some are episodes that happened to me and a few ones to others I consider them to have significant and effective points for my children and to others who are in need Journey Back from Ixtlan Bijan Ilyaie,2012 Bijan was born in 1961 in Tehran Iran Although he was a brilliant student in his early and middle school years he lost his interest in academic studies to the degree that he quit college twice and returned to the spiritualism and mysticism instead By the rise of the Islamic regime in 1979 in Iran his life began to drastically change where it took him to some of the darkest and most unimaginable places and situations he could have ever thought of Was he eventually able to overcome his challenges He paid a heavy price to find the answer to this question Bijan currently lives in Toronto Canada He is the founder and leader of the Generation 8 an organization reaching out to Iranians all over the world through modern art music and media The Making of Shia Ayatollahs Sayed Hassan Akhlaq,2023-04-17 The Making of

Shia Ayatollahs offers both insider and outsider views of how a scholar becomes an Ayatollah in Shia Islam how ayatollahs suggest diverse perspectives on faith and how the grand ayatollahs are recognized by a balance of many factors including piety scholarship popularity and networking This book consists of two parts The first begins with the core value of knowledge in Islam and the Ulama s interpretation of jurisprudence and the subjects values and methodology they have developed and are applying to challenges found in the faithful practices in modern life The author reveals the mechanisms of madrasa hawza their curricula and the recognition of a scholar as an ayatollah The second part elaborates the rich and sometimes bitter pluralism and debate within the community of ayatollahs regarding topics including denominational identity and intra faith work Sufism and mysticism Philosophy falsafa and wisdom modernization and the West political power and government and women in public life After providing a historical background on each subject the author takes the reader into the heart of current debates among ayatollahs in Qum Mashhad Najaf and Beirut without sacrificing accuracy and originality to educate a wide range of readers
