Field & Stream ,1993-01 FIELD STREAM America s largest outdoor sports magazine celebrates the outdoor experience with great stories compelling photography and sound advice while honoring the traditions hunters and fishermen have passed down for generations Marine Fisheries Review ,2009 Gray's Island Shirley Brock Turney.,2013-10-30 This book is a collection of poems and childhood memories The poems are simple words from a simple mind Some were written to be just plain silly in hopes of making you smile The childhood memories are about growing up in the fifties when I spent most of my young years playing in the dirt swimming in the creek and walking on railroad tracks My family and I lived in a small house next door to a big three room school house There was a railroad in front of our house and a creek in the back The rest of the community was on the other side of the railroad tracks I always say that I grew up on the wrong side of the tracks Most memories are about Gray s Island where we spent the summers swimming in the creek and having many adventures It was always boys chasing girls dunking us in the creek and having battles throwing pine cones and crabapples at each other It was a time of innocence that could only be experienced during childhood

Review ,1989 Seeing Through Gray Colored Lens Joe Millard,2006-08-05 Seeing Through Gray Colored Lens is a collection of poems written by Joe Millard that describes how he sees the world from three views the world within us the world around us and the world we create The world is a beautiful blend of colors that we share but within us are shadows that tint our views In our youth we often see the world as black and white with right and wrong answers However as questions go unanswered the world becomes confusing and more interesting New experiences expand our choices and the shades of black and white blend Our lives change creating shades of gray in an ever changing world Bulletin ,1915
