Lucien Leuwen 2 The Telegraph:

Lucien Leuwen Stendhal, 1951 The Return of Thematic Criticism Werner Sollors, 1993 In the glory days of high modernist formalism it was anathema to speak about the content of a work of art Those days are gone and critical practice now is largely thematic practice A focus on the themes of literature informs feminist new historicist ethnic and even second generation deconstructionist approaches However such practice is not always recognized The specter of theoretically impoverished positivism still haunts thematic analysis making it the approach to literature that dare not speak its name This volume brings together for the first time an international group of writers critics and theoreticians who have thought deeply about this issue How can we determine the theme of a given text May the focus on form be the theme of a certain moment Can the motif be understood as a formal category What operations permit us to say that three or four texts constitute variants of the same theme The contributors challenge the conventional dismissal of merely thematic approaches and offer the reader different ways of tackling the issue of what a piece of writing is about The work here comes out of such diverse intellectual traditions as Russian film theory French phenomenology Foucault narratology the Frankfurt School intellectual history Geistesgeschichte psychoanalytic criticism linguistics ideological criticism Proppian folklore studies and computerized plot summary models In addition to a collection of aphorisms from Plato to Robert Coover and a group of general and theoretical essays this volume contains examples of practical engagement with such topics as literary history Shakespeare autumn poetry anti-Semitism fading colors bachelors Richard Wagner and the Mexican Revolution No comparable volume exists The Strange Liberalism of Alexis de Tocqueville Roger Boesche, 2019-05-15 The Strange Liberalism of Alexis de Tocqueville places Tocqueville's political thought in the context of his time and place and shows why his ideas defy easy classification Responding to the twentieth century tendency to impose anachronistic political categories on Tocqueville Roger Boesche reminds us that like Stendhal Balzac Hugo Lamartine Flaubert and other writers of his generation he was a nineteenth century Frenchman reacting to contemporary French concerns aspirations and anxieties Exotics at Home Micaela di Leonardo, 2000-03-16 What is the exotic after all In this study Micaela di Leonardo reveals the face of power within the mask of cultural difference Focusing on the intimate and shifting relations between popular portrayals of exotic Others and the practice of anthropology that profession assumed to be America's Guardian of the Offbeat she casts new light on gender race and the public sphere in America's past and present Chicago's 1893 Columbian World Exposition and today's college town ethnic boutiques frame di Leonardo's century long analysis Telegraphic Imperialism Deep Kanta Lahiri Choudhury, 2010-10-27 The first electronic communication network transformed language distance and time This book researches the telegraph system of the British Indian Empire c 1850 to 1920 exploring one of the most significant transnational phenomena of the imperial world and the link between communication Empire and social change Paperbound Book Guide for Colleges, 1971 Everyman's Dictionary of European Writers W. Bell,2010-10-01 In Real Time David F Bell explores the decisive impact the accelerated movement of people and information had on the fictions of four giants of French realism Balzac Stendhal Dumas and Zola Nineteenth century technological advances radically altered the infrastructure of France changing the ways ordinary citizens and literary characters viewed time space distance and speed The most influential of these advances included the improvement of the stagecoach the growth of road and canal networks leading to the advent of the railway and the increasing use of mail and of the optical telegraph Citing examples from a wide range of novels and stories Bell demonstrates the numerous ways in which these trends of acceleration became not just literary devices and themes but also structuring principles of the novels themselves Beginning with both the provincial and the Parisian communications networks of Balzac Bell proceeds to discuss the roles of horses and optical telegraphs in Stendhal and the importance of domination of communication channels to the characters of Dumas whose Count of Monte Cristo might be seen as the ultimate fictional master of this accelerated culture Finally Bell analyzes the cinematic vision created by the arrival of the railroad as depicted by Zola in La B te Humaine
