Western Strategic Interests in Saudi Arabia Pbdirect Anthony Cordesman,2020-07-26 Saudi Arabia s strategic relations with the West involve clear and direct common strategic interests in the Gulf and in the Near East While they compete in terms of trade and oil prices they share a common commitment to private enterprise and to maintaining a stable balance of world trade Saudi Arabia often differs with given Western states in terms of specific strategic interests and tactics but these differences are rarely significant enough to prevent close cooperation Even the differences over the Arab Israeli peace issue are largely ones of timing and tactics Saudi Arabia must preserve friendly relations with Syria and is vulnerable to attacks by Arab radicals and Iran It has also differed with the US over the specific approach that should be taken to achieving an Arab Israeli peace settlement but it has consistently pushed for a peace settlement within the Arab world This book first published in 1987 analyses the interrelations between Western and Saudi strategic concerns and argues forcibly that pressure from the

Israeli lobby within US domestic politics must not be allowed to interfere within the proper provisioning of the Saudi armed forces especially the air force

The Military Balance in the Middle East Anthony H. Cordesman, 2004-09-30 Noted Middle East military expert Anthony H Cordesman details the complex trends that come into play in determining the military balance in a region that has become so critical to world peace This ready resource provides a wealth of information on military expenditures and major arms systems as well as qualitative trends by country and by zone However as Cordesman stresses because the greater Middle East is more a matter of rhetoric than military reality mere data summarizing trends in 23 different countries is no substitute for a substantive explanation Using tables graphs and charts this study explores every aspect of the regional military balance with attention to sub regional balances internal civil conflicts and low level border tensions The Middle East is certainly one of the most militarized areas in the world and changes in technology access to weapons of mass destruction and political instability contribute to a situation that has long been in constant flux Some of the regional flashpoints covered in this study include the Maghreb North Africa the Arab Israeli conflict dominated by Israel versus Syria and the Gulf divided into those states that view Iran as the primary threat and those who lived in fear of Iraq Internal conflicts such as those in Mauritania Algeria Libya Egypt Sudan Bahrain Saudi Arabia Iraq and Yemen increasingly dominate regional tensions In addition border conflicts within the region and with neighboring countries could further aggravate the delicate balance

The Political Economy of Israel Yakir Plessner, 2012-02-01 This book constitutes the first attempt at a comprehensive description history and analysis of Israel's economy Plessner examines events of the past two decades and advances the hypothesis that problems within the Israeli economy can be explained by the extent of its departure from the institutions and rules that govern predominantly market economies He argues that Israel is unusual in that it affords an opportunity to analyze a socialized economy embedded in a democratic society Individual chapters describe Israel's economic growth and stagnation the government's domination of capital and credit markets and the absence of a truly independent private sector The concluding chapter evaluates the stabilization program of the 1980s and its aftermath and provides a prognosis for the future Told within the framework of the story of Zionism and the creation of the Jewish state this book answers the question of why the Israeli economy finds itself today in the same state in which it has languished since 1973

Isolated States Deon Geldenhuys, 1990 This book examines a largely neglected phenomenon in the field of international relations the concept of the isolated state Deon Geldenhuys begins by discussing how he measures both voluntary and enforced international isolation by among other things membership of international organizations official visits and international censure He then presents a number of case studies of self-isolation The remainder of the study is devoted to an analysis of the enforced isolation of Taiwan Israel Chile and South Africa Using a wealth of statistical material he demonstrates their varying degrees of isolation in the diplomatic military economic and socio-cultural arenas of the international community

Inadvertent Escalation Barry R. Posen, 2014-01-13 In this sobering book Barry R Posen demonstrates how the interplay between conventional military operations and nuclear forces could in conflicts among states armed with both conventional and nuclear weaponry inadvertently produce pressures for nuclear escalation Knowledge of these hidden pressures he believes may help some future decision maker avoid catastrophe Building a formidable argument that moves with cumulative force he details the way in which escalation could occur not by mindless accident or by deliberate preference for nuclear escalation but rather as a natural accompaniment of land naval or air warfare at the conventional level Posen bases his analysis on an empirical study of the east-west military competition in Europe during the 1980s using a conceptual framework drawn from international relations theory organization theory and strategic theory The lessons of his book however go well beyond the east west competition Since his observations are relevant to all military competitions between states armed with both conventional and nuclear weaponry his book speaks to some of the problems that attend the proliferation of nuclear weapons in longstanding regional conflicts Optimism that small and medium nuclear powers can easily achieve stable nuclear balances is he believes unwarranted The Gulf And The West Anthony H

Cordesman,2019-06-26 This book examines the military capabilities of various potential threats the capabilities of Saudi Arabia and other friendly Gulf states and the capabilities of Western power projection forces Beyond Coercion Adeed Dawisha,I. William Zartman,2015-07-24 This volume first published in 1988 analyses the process of stabilisation amongst the Arab states a process that has contradicted all predictions of impending disintegration and impending collapse Although there were some cases of disintegration there are evidently mechanisms at work that helped consolidate the majority of Arab states and the Arab state system Revolutions as in Iran or the Sudan or political collapse and disintegration as in Lebanon have been highly visible but nevertheless exceptions This collection Volume Three in the Nation State and Integration in the Arab World research project carried out by the Istituto Affari Internazionali focuses on the problem of explaining the stability and persistence of the state in the Arab world
