Play Index, 1927 Discriminating Sex Amy Sueyoshi, 2018-02-21 Freewheeling sexuality and gender experimentation defined the social and moral landscape of 1890s San Francisco Middle class whites crafting titillating narratives on topics such as high divorce rates mannish women and extramarital sex centered Chinese and Japanese immigrants in particular Amy Sueyoshi draws on everything from newspapers to felony case files to oral histories in order to examine how whites pursuit of gender and sexual fulfillment gave rise to racial caricatures As she reveals white reporters writers artists and others conflated Chinese and Japanese previously seen as two races into one There emerged the Oriental a single pan Asian American stereotype weighted with sexual and gender meaning Sueyoshi bridges feminist queer and ethnic studies to show how the white quest to forge new frontiers in gender and sexual freedom reinforced and spawned racial inequality through the ever evolving Oriental Informed and fascinating Discriminating Sex reconsiders the origins and expression of racial stereotyping in an American city The Mikado's Empire William Elliot Griffis, 1887 The Bellman, 1918 The A to Z of African American Theater Anthony D. Hill, Douglas Q. Barnett, 2009-09-02 African American Theater is a vibrant and unique entity enriched by ancient Egyptian rituals West African folklore and European theatrical practices A continuum of African folk traditions it combines storytelling mythology rituals music song and dance with ancestor worship from ancient times to the present It afforded black artists a cultural gold mine to celebrate what it was like to be an African American in The New World The A to Z of African American Theater celebrates nearly 200 years of black theater in the United States identifying representative African American theater producing organizations and chronicling their contributions to the field from its birth in 1816 to the present This is done through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and over 500 cross referenced dictionary entries on actors directors playwrights plays theater producing organizations themes locations and theater movements and awards Drama, 1922 Los Angeles Saturday Night, 1928 The Mikado, and Other Plays William Schwenck Gilbert, 1917 Black Culture and the New Deal Lauren Rebecca Sklaroff, 2009-12-01 In the 1930s the Roosevelt administration unwilling to antagonize a powerful southern congressional bloc refused to endorse legislation that openly sought to improve political economic and social conditions for African Americans Instead as historian Lauren Rebecca Sklaroff shows the administration recognized and celebrated African Americans by offering federal support to notable black intellectuals celebrities and artists Sklaroff illustrates how programs within the Federal Arts Projects and several war agencies gave voice to such notable African Americans as Lena Horne Joe Louis Duke Ellington and Richard Wright as well as lesser known figures She argues that these New Deal programs represent a key moment in the history of American race relations as the cultural arena provided black men and women with unique employment opportunities and new outlets for political expression Equally important she contends that these cultural programs were not merely an attempt to appease a black constituency but were also part of the New Deal's larger goal of promoting a multiracial nation Yet while federal projects ushered in creativity and unprecedented possibilities they were also subject to censorship bigotry and political machinations With numerous illustrations Black Culture and the New Deal offers a fresh perspective on the New Deal's racial progressivism and provides a new framework for understanding black culture and politics in the Roosevelt era

Shadows of Nagasaki Chad R. Diehl, 2024-01-02 A critical introduction to how the Nagasaki atomic bombing has been remembered especially in contrast to that of Hiroshima In the decades following the atomic bombing of Nagasaki on August 9 1945 the city's residents processed their trauma and formed narratives of the destruction and reconstruction in ways that reflected their regional history and social makeup In doing so they created a multi layered urban identity as an atomic bombed city that differed markedly from Hiroshima's image Shadows of Nagasaki traces how Nagasaki's trauma history and memory of the bombing manifested through some of the city's many post atomic memoryscapes such as literature religious discourse art historical landmarks commemorative spaces and architecture In addition the book pays particular attention to how the city's history of international culture exemplified best perhaps by the region's Christian especially Catholic past informed its response to the atomic trauma and shaped its postwar urban identity Key historical actors in the volume s chapters include writers Japanese Catholic leaders atomic bombing survivors known as hibakusha municipal officials American occupation personnel peace activists artists and architects The story of how these diverse groups of people processed and participated in the discourse surrounding the legacies of Nagasaki s bombing shows how regional history culture and politics rather than national ones become the most influential factors shaping narratives of destruction and reconstruction after mass trauma In turn and especially in the case of urban destruction new identities emerge and old ones are rekindled not to serve national politics or social interests but to bolster narratives that reflect local circumstances
