Critical Perspectives on Christian Education Jeff Astley, Leslie J. Francis, 1994 Transforming Theological Education Perry Shaw, 2014-05-14 For several decades concern has been expressed about the need for greater integration and contextual significance in the curricular design of theological education In addition there has been a growing awareness of the role theological schools should play in strengthening the missional vision and practice of local churches Since 2008 the Arab Baptist Theological Seminary in Lebanon has been engaged in an ongoing experiment in the design and implementation of an integrated and contextually driven curriculum Drawing on lessons learned from this experience and from the wider discourse currently taking place in higher education Transforming Theological Education provides theoretical foundations and practical principles for purposeful curriculum design as well as tools for integrated and contextually significant learning in the classroom The Development of Vocational Stewardship among Indonesian Christian Professionals Sutrisna Harjanto, 2018-07-31 Christian professionals through their daily work have important roles in God s mission However little empirical research has been done to understand their journey to connect their daily work with God s If the church of Jesus Christ is to have the transformational impact that the world needs then we must better understand our vocations from a biblical and missional perspective In this thorough study Dr Sutrisna Harjanto explores the formational elements of the integration of faith work and mission among Indonesian Christian professionals From detailed semi structured interviews with twenty eight participants this study provides deeper insight into the development of vocational stewardship and the role of empowering relationships and communities Through careful analysis and evaluation the resulting book is an educational perspective on the theology of work and mission beneficial for those in positions to equip and support Christian professionals as they work to fulfil God s mission through daily work Toward a Prophetic Youth Ministry Fernando Arzola Jr., 2008-02-18 Fernando Arzola Jr addresses the gap in the literature of youth ministry resources conceived and realized in an urban setting He brings together three dominant paradigms traditional liberal and activist to create an approach that is informed by Scripture and the contemporary realities of adolescent development in an urban setting An Introduction to Ministry Ian S. Markham, Oran E. Warder, 2015-10-28 An Introduction to Ministry is a comprehensive and ecumenical introduction to the craft of ministry for ministers pastors and priests that make up the mainline denominations in the United States Ecumenically focused It offers a grounded account of ministry covering areas such as vocation congregational leadership and cultivation of skills for an effective ministry Covers the key components of the M Div curriculum offering a map and guide to the central skills and issues in training Explores the areas of vocation skills for ministry and issues around congregational leadership Each topic ends with an annotated bibliography providing an indispensable gateway to further study Helps students understand both the distinctive approach of their denomination and the relationship of that approach to other mainline denominations Advocates and defends a generous understanding of the Christian tradition in its openness and commitment to broad conversation

Pursuing Excellence for the Glory of God Keith A. Currivean, 2022-01-13 What is education How and why do educators do what we do And in what way can and ought education be distinctively Christian These are a few of the probing questions for which this book seeks answers Among other contributions Currivean's book explores a biblical philosophy of Christian education with unprecedented breadth and depth To accomplish this objective it considers what education is chapter 1 what philosophy of education is chapter 2 and what the ultimate goal of education is chapter 3 Additionally this book provides a never before Christian overview of twelve philosophies of education chapters 4-15 Each of those chapters provides an introduction of a particular philosophy of education and some of that philosophy's exemplars Each of those chapters also contributes a constructive Christian critique Chapter 16 highlights a biblical philosophy of Christian education featuring some people some principles and some priorities for a biblical philosophy of Christian education viz pursuing excellence for the glory of God

Intergenerational Christian Formation Holly Catterton Allen, Christine Lawton, Cory L. Seibel, 2023-06-13 In a revised and updated edition this comprehensive up to date text offers a framework for intentional intergenerational Christian formation It provides the theoretical foundation of intergenerationality then gives concrete practical guidance on how worship learning community and service can all be achieved intergenerationally

Wouldn't You Love to Know? Ian W. Payne, 2014-08-08 With all the jumble of human disagreements how can we know Can the Christian church think coherently about knowledge Can it regain confidence in teaching what it knows In an increasingly divided and pessimistic postmodern world this book offers a theology for epistemology and for pedagogy that aims to be faithful and fruitful Building on Karl Barth it argues that God's knowing guides how humans know We should imitate God's epistemic stance his love for that is the best model for knowing anything The Trinitarian theme in Barth identifies three key concepts committedness openness and relationality These mean being committed and open towards what we wish to know Relational open committedness also profoundly clarifies and shapes what love means in knowing and in teaching This book unpacks an epistemology and pedagogy of love Wouldn't you love to know

Creative Bible Teaching Lawrence O. Richards, Gary J. Bredfeldt, 2020-08-04 Bring the Bible to Your Students like Never Before Communicating the Scriptures is much like building a bridge However instead of ravines or rivers the teacher must span both cultural boundaries and great gulfs of time between the present and the pasts of Moses David Jesus and Paul Though God's Word is always relevant the teacher must help students see Scripture's vast treasures The effective engaging Bible teacher must therefore become creative Together Lawrence Richards and Gary Bredfeldt have created the ultimate guide to building bridges for those seeking to learn about God's Word Creative Bible Teaching offers a five step process by which

Christian educators can construct a bridge across time geography and culture to help students of all ages connect with God s Word This newly revised edition makes learning about God s Word more accessible for both teachers and students today Simple clear and memorable the method laid out in Creative Bible Teaching provides a sure fire way of communicating God s Word in a way that sticks Teaching the Faith Donna Habenicht,Larry Dale Burton,2004
