Palestinian Novel A Communication Study:

The Palestinian Novel Bashir Abu-Manneh, 2016-04-26 What happens to the Palestinian novel after the national dispossession of the nakba and how do Palestinian novelists respond to this massive crisis This is the first study in English to chart the development of the Palestinian novel in exile and under occupation from 1948 onwards By reading the novel in the context of the ebb and flow of Arab and Palestinian revolution Bashir Abu Manneh defines the links between aesthetics and politics Combining historical analysis with textual readings of key novels by Jabra Kanafani Habiby and Khalifeh the chronicle of the Palestinian novel unfolds as one that articulates humanism self sacrifice as collective redemption mutuality and self realization Political challenge hope and possibility are followed by the decay of collective and individual agency Genet s and Khoury s unrivalled literary homages to Palestinian revolt are also examined By critically engaging with Luk cs Adorno and postcolonial theory questions of struggle and self determination take centre stage The Palestinian Novel Ibrahim Taha, 2013-09-13 Examines the complex relationship between the reality of the Palestinian minority in Israel and their literature through six novels according to a literary communication model which enables Dr Taha to examine how authors who belong to this minority relate to their readers Politics and Palestinian Literature in Exile Joseph Farag, Joseph R. Farag, 2016-11-14 Despite or even because of their tumultuous history Palestinians are renowned for being prolific cultural producers creating many of the Arab world s most iconic works of literature In particular the Palestinian short story stands out for its unique interplay between literary texts and the political and historical contexts from which they emerge Palestinian Literature in Exile is the first English language study to explore this unique genre Joseph Farag employs an interdisciplinary approach to examine the political function of literary texts and the manner in which cultural production responds to crucial moments in Palestinian history Drawing from the works of Samira Azzam Ghassan Kanafani and Ibrahim Nasrallah Farag traces developments in the short story as they relate to the pivotal events of what the Palestinians call the Nakba catastrophe Naksa defeat and First Intifada uprising In analysing several as yet un translated works Farag makes an original contribution to the subject of exilic identity and subjectivity in Palestinian literature This book offers the opportunity to engage with literary works as well to learn from a literary account of history It is a subject of interest for students and scholars of both Arabic literature and Middle East studies Novel Palestine Nora E.H. Parr, 2023-10-31 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press s Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more Palestinian writing imagines the nation not as a nation in waiting but as a living changing structure that joins people place and time into a distinct set of formations Novel Palestine examines these imaginative structures so that we might move beyond the idea of an incomplete or fragmented reality and speak frankly about the nation that exists and the freedom it seeks Engaging the writings of Ibrahim Nasrallah Nora E H Parr traces a vocabulary through which Palestine can be discussed as a changing and flexible national network linking people across and within space time and community Through an exploration of the Palestinian literary scene subsequent to its canonical writers Parr makes the life and work of Nasrallah available to an English language audience for the first time offering an intervention in geography while bringing literary theory into conversation with politics and history

Masculine Identity in the Fiction of the Arab East since 1967 Samira Aghacy, 2009-12-08 This book offers an exploration of masculinity in the literature of the Arab East Lebanon Jordan Palestine Syria and Iraq in the context of a specific set of anxieties about gender roles and sexuality in Arab societies While gender studies in the area have focused primarily on the situation of women the treatment of Arab men as gendered subjects has fallen behind Samira Aghacy s rich analysis presents gender relations not within a fixed biological mold but rather as a complex phenomenon fraught with ambivalence and operating within particular historical and geopolitical settings Through a series of close readings of twenty contemporary Arabic novels Aghacy presents a mosaic of masculinities that challenges the generally held view of an essentialized archetypal Arab man and that mirrors a contested vision of manliness where men figure in diverse sociocultural environments This groundbreaking work reveals the volatile nature of masculinity and its inextricability from femininity

The Quest for a Lost Identity Maḥmūd Ghanāyīm, 2008 Arabic fiction by Palestinian writers in Israel underwent a rebirth with the establishment of the State in 1948 an event affecting not only the land that had been Palestine but the entire region In The Quest for a Lost Identity Mahmud Ghanayim probes in considerable detail this creative process over the last half century Adopting a strictly literary treatment of the new situation he reconstructs the various stages in the evolution of Palestinian literature and its difficult existence under martial law Perusing works by such writers as Hanna Ibrahim Atallah Mansur Muhammad Ali Taha Tawfiq Fayyad Muhammad Naffa Naji Zahir Riyad Baydas and others he highlights the efficacy of ideologically driven literary criticism monitoring the direction and literary strategies underlying the cultural revival generated by this national minority The author of this penetrating monograph deftly etches the new Palestinian self image emerging from this literary rebirth with its ardent ambition to create an esthetically inspired rather politically monitored literature Perhaps no Palestinian writer of calibre exemplified better than Emile Habibi the aspiration to break away from the grip of local cultural conventions to achieve artistic modernity In effect this doyen of Palestinian literature
