Contains papers from the conference The life and times of George Padmore Black radicalism in the 20th century held at the University of the West Indies St Augustine campus in Trinidad and Tobago Oct 2 4 2003 From Toussaint to Tupac Michael O. West,William G. Martin,Fanon Che Wilkins,2009-09-01 Transcending geographic and cultural lines From Toussaint to Tupac is an ambitious collection of essays exploring black internationalism and its implications for a black consciousness At its core black internationalism is a struggle against oppression whether manifested in slavery colonialism or racism The ten essays in this volume offer a comprehensive overview of the global movements that define black internationalism from its origins in the colonial period to the present From Toussaint to Tupac focuses on three moments in global black history the American and Haitian revolutions the Garvey movement and the Communist International following World War I and the Black Power movement of the late twentieth century Contributors demonstrate how black internationalism emerged and influenced events in particular localities how participants in the various struggles communicated across natural and man made boundaries and how the black international aided resistance on the local level creating a collective consciousness In sharp contrast to studies that confine Black Power to particular national locales this volume demonstrates the global reach and resonance of the movement The volume concludes with a discussion of hip hop including its cultural and ideological antecedents in Black Power Contributors Hakim Adi Middlesex University London Sylvia R Frey Tulane University William G Martin Binghamton University Brian Meeks University of the West Indies Mona Jamaica Marc D Perry University of Illinois Urbana Champaign Lara Putnam University of Pittsburgh Vijay Prashad Trinity College Robyn Spencer Lehman College Robert T Vinson College of William and Mary Michael O West Binghamton University Fanon Che Wilkins Doshisha University Kyoto Japan Pan-Africanism Hakim Adi,2018-08-23 The first survey of the Pan African movement this century this book provides a history of the individuals and organisations that have sought the unity of all those of African origin as the basis for advancement and liberation Initially an idea and movement that took root among the African Diaspora in more recent times Pan Africanism has been embodied in the African Union the organisation of African states which includes the entire African Diaspora as its sixth region Hakim Adi covers many of the key political figures of the 20th century including Du Bois Garvey Malcolm X Nkrumah and Gaddafi as well as Pan African culture expression from N gritude to the wearing of the Afro hair style and the music of Bob Marley C.L.R. James's Notes on Dialectics John H. McClendon,2005-01-01 John H McClendon III s CLR James s Notes on Dialectics Left Hegelianism or Marxism Leninism is the first ever book devoted exclusively to James s magnum opus Notes on Dialectics Hegel Marx Lenin The seed for this study was planted over thirty years ago when James handed the author his personal copy of Notes James s contribution to dialectical philosophy and his vast intellectual and scholarly output is rivalled only by the seemingly bottomless depths of McClendon's own analysis and erudition. McClendon provides a thoroughgoing critique of James's exploration into the dialectic of Hegel, Marx, and Lenin while challenging all the seminal texts on James's Notes. A book of this magnitude is rare. This is ever more the truth when it is focused on a giant like James who stands at the nexus of so many disciplines: philosophy, history, sociology, Caribbean studies, cultural studies, African and African American studies. CLR James's Notes on Dialectics, Left Hegelianism, or Marxism-Leninism is a must read for anyone concerned with how revolutionary theory is a guide to contemporary struggles.

The Crisis, 1974-01. The Crisis, founded by W. E. B. Du Bois as the official publication of the NAACP, is a journal of civil rights, history, politics, and culture and seeks to educate and challenge its readers about issues that continue to plague African Americans and other communities of color. For nearly 100 years, The Crisis has been the magazine of opinion and thought, leaders' decision makers, peacemakers, and justice seekers. It has chronicled informed, educated, entertained, and in many instances set the economic, political, and social agenda for our nation and its multi-ethnic citizens.

W.E.B. Du Bois on Race and Culture, Bernard W. Bell, Emily R. Grosholz, James B. Stewart, 2014-03-18. Interpreting Du Bois's thoughts on race and culture in a broadly philosophical sense, this volume assembles original essays by some of today's leading scholars in a critical dialogue on different important theoretical and practical issues that concerned him throughout his long career: the conundrum of race, the issue of gender equality, and the perplexities of pan-Africanism.

The Communist International, Anti-Imperialism and Racial Equality in British Dominions, Oleksa Drachewych, 2018-12-07. This book analyzes the stance of international communism towards nationality, anti-colonialism, and racial equality as defined by the Communist International (Comintern) during the interwar period. Central to the volume is a comparative analysis of the communist parties of three British dominions: South Africa, Canada, and Australia, demonstrating how each party attempted to follow Moscow's lead and how each party produced its own attempts to deal with these issues locally while considering the limits of their own agency within the movement at large.

Black Political Thought in the Making of South African Democracy, C.R.D. Halisi, 1999. A comprehensive analytical survey of the multidimensional evolution of black political thought in South Africa's politicization process. Choice: Many citizens experience a sense of reluctance to share a single national identity with all of those who are defined by law to be their compatriots. This problem can be explained and surmounted, but it cannot be evaded by those who aspire to build a stable democracy in South Africa.

Richard L. Sklar, from the Foreword: What will it mean to be a citizen in the new South Africa? This penetrating study analyzes the issues of dual citizenship, black consciousness, populism, racial proletarianization, and their interaction with various political ideologies. Halisi's analysis has practical implications for the development of political identity in the new South Africa.

Staying Power, Peter Fryer, 2010-09-06. Staying Power is recognised as the definitive history of black people in Britain, an epic story that begins with the Roman conquest and continues to this day. In a comprehensive account, Peter Fryer reveals how Africans, Asians, and their descendants previously hidden from history have profoundly influenced and shaped events in Britain over the course of the last two thousand years BR BR This edition includes a foreword by Paul Gilroy explaining the genesis of the book and its continuing significance in black history today The Global Challenge of Peace Matt Perry, 2021-08-15 This book scrutinizes the events of 1919 from below the global underside of the Wilsonian moment During 1919 the Great Powers redrew the map of the world with the Treaties of Paris and established the League of Nations intending to prevent future war Yet what is often missed is that 1919 was a complex threshold between war and peace contested on a global scale This process began prior to war s end with mutinies labour and consumer unrest colonial revolt but reached a high point in 1919 Most obviously the Russian Revolutions of 1917 continued into 1919 which signalled a decisive year for the Bolshevik regime While the leaders of the Great Powers famously drew up new states in their Parisian hotel rooms state formation also had a popular dynamic The Irish Republic was declared Afghanistan gained independence Labour unrest was widespread This year witnessed the emergence of anti colonial insurgency and movements across Europe s colonies in metropolitan centres of Empire race riots took place in the UK and during the red summer in the US anti colonial movements as well as an important moment of political enfranchisement for women but their expulsion from the wartime labour force 1919 has many legacies the first Arab spring with the awakening of nationalism in the Wilsonian and Bolshevik context the moment as a consequence of Jallianwala Bagh that Britain definitively lost its moral claim to India the definitive announcement of Black presence in the UK the great reversal of women s participation in the skilled occupations the first Fascist movement was founded Peacebuilding in the African Union Abou Jeng, 2012-08-02 An extensive analysis of the norms and legal institutions of the African Union and their relevance to Africa s quest for peace Black Leadership Manning Marable, 1998-03-24 The history of the black struggle for civil rights and political and economic equality in America is tied to the strategies agendas and styles of black leaders Marable examines different models of black leadership and the figures who embody them integration Booker T Washington Harold Washington nationalist separatism Louis Farrakhan and democratic transformation W E B Du Bois Global Africa Dorothy Hodgson, Judith Ann-Marie Byfield, 2017-08 Global Africa will complicate conventional views of Africa as a place of violence despair and victimhood a place and space that other people states and organizations act on and steal from Instead they aim to document some of the significant global connections circulations and contributions that African people ideas and goods have made in the world not just in the United States but in South Asia Latin America Europe and elsewhere They will showcase new framings of Africa but will not romanticize the conditions and circumstances in which too many people on the continent currently live The essays in this volume will amplify those voices that offer complex and insightful explanations strategies for solutions and inspiration for the future Provided by publisher Cuba, the United States, and Cultures of the Transnational Left, 1930-1975 John A. Gronbeck-Tedesco, 2015-10-20 This book examines the ways in which Cuba s revolutions of 1933 and 1959 became touchstones for border crossing endeavors of radical politics and cultural experimentation over the mid twentieth century It argues that new networks of solidarity building between US and Cuban allies also brought with them perils and pitfalls that could not be separated from the longer history of US empire in Cuba As US and Cuban subjects struggled together towards common aspirations of racial and gender equality fairer distribution of wealth and anti imperialism they created a unique index of cultural work that widens our understanding of the transition between hemispheric modernism and postmodernism Canvassing poetry music journalism photographs and other cultural expressions around themes of revolution this book seeks new understanding of how race gender and nationhood could shift in meaning and materialization when traveling across the Florida Straits Dreams of Power K. van Walraven,2019-01-04 Originally published in 1999 this book was the first study to provide a systematic reconstruction of the OAU s ideological ground work It is based on OAU documents a corpus of African perceptions of OAU functioning collected from governmental and non governmental newspapers and publications from more than thirty African countries and on interviews held with African diplomats and OAU officials It was also the first study to pay attention to the OAU s role in the political psychology of state elites which comes to the fore in the areas of OAU co operation discussed in this book the OAU s internal functioning the former struggle against apartheid and colonialism conflict management and the OAU s role in representing collective African viewpoints in global fora This study was originally a Ph D thesis which was considered to be among the best three dissertations in political science in The Netherlands in 1997 Africana Social Stratification James L.
