Elemental Germans Christoph Laucht, 2012-05-15 Christoph Laucht offers the first investigation into the roles played by two German born emigre atomic scientists Klaus Fuchs and Rudolf Peierls in the development of British nuclear culture especially the practice of nuclear science and the political implications of the atomic scientists work from the start of the Second World War until 1959 The General and the Genius James Kunetka, 2015-07-13 With a blinding flash in the New Mexico desert in the summer of 1945 the world was changed forever The bomb that ushered in the atomic age was the product of one of history's most improbable partnerships The General and the Genius reveals how two extraordinary men pulled off the greatest scientific feat of the twentieth century Leslie Richard Groves of the Army Corps of Engineers who had made his name by building the Pentagon in record time and under budget was made overlord of the impossibly vast scientific enterprise known as the Manhattan Project His mission to beat the Nazis to the atomic bomb So he turned to the nation's preeminent theoretical physicist J Robert Oppenheimer the chain smoking martini quaffing son of wealthy Jewish immigrants whose background was riddled with communist associations Groves's opposite in nearly every respect In their three year collaboration the iron willed general and the visionary scientist led a brilliant team in a secret mountaintop lab and built the fearsome weapons that ended the war but introduced the human race to unimaginable new terrors And at the heart of this most momentous work of World War II is the story of two extraordinary men the general and the genius A Global History of the Nuclear Arms Race Richard Dean Burns, Joseph M. Siracusa, 2013-04-23 Written by two preeminent authors in the field this book provides an accessible global narrative of the nuclear arms race since 1945 that focuses on the roles of key scientists military chiefs and political leaders The first book of its kind to provide a global perspective of the arms race this two volume work connects episodes worldwide involving nuclear weapons in a comprehensive narrative fashion Beginning with a discussion of the scientific research of the 1930s and 1940s and the Hiroshima decision the authors focus on five basic themes political dimensions technological developments military and diplomatic strategies and impact The history of the international nuclear arms race is examined within the context of four historical eras America's nuclear monopoly America's nuclear superiority superpower parity and the post Cold War era Information about the historical development of the independent deterrence of Britain France and China as well as the piecemeal deterrence of newcomers Israel India Pakistan and North Korea is also included as is coverage of the efforts aimed at the international control of nuclear weapons and the diplomatic architecture that underpins the global nuclear non proliferation regime Five Myths about Nuclear Weapons Ward Wilson, 2013 Expanded from an article that created a stir in foreign policy circles this book shows why five central arguments promoting nuclear weapons are in essence myths A House in the Sun Daniel A. Barber, 2016-10-13 A House in the Sun describes a number of experiments in solar house heating in the 1940s and 1950s It shows how resource limitations were seen as an opportunity for design to attain new relevance for social and cultural transformations Good Science, Bad Science, Pseudoscience, and Just Plain Bunk Peter Daempfle, 2013 We are constantly bombarded with breaking scientific news in the media but we are almost never provided with enough information to assess the truth of these claims This book teaches readers how to think like a scientist to question claims like these more critically Good Science, Bad Science, Pseudoscience, and Just Plain Bunk Peter A. Daempfle,2012-12-16 We are constantly bombarded with breaking scientific news in the media but we are almost never provided with enough information to assess the truth of these claims Does drinking coffee really cause cancer Does bisphenol A in our tin can linings really cause reproductive damage Good Science Bad Science Pseudoscience and Just Plain Bunk teaches readers how to think like a scientist to question claims like these more critically Peter A Daempfle introduces readers to the basics of scientific inquiry defining what science is and how it can be misused Through provocative real world examples the book helps readers acquire the tools needed to distinguish scientific truth from myth The book celebrates science and its role in society while building scientific literacy Recovering the Past Forrest McDonald,2004 Forrest McDonald is a legend in his own time He now candidly recounts and reconsiders his own career mixing in equal measure autobiography with a sharp critique of the historical craft Originality, Imitation, and Plagiarism Martha Vicinus,Caroline Eisner,2009-12-18 A timely intervention in national debates about what constitutes original or plagiarized writing
