Speculative Time Paul Crosthwaite, 2024-01-30 Speculative Time American Literature in an Age of Crisis examines how a climate of financial and economic speculation and disaster shaped the literary culture of the United States in the early to mid twentieth century It argues that speculation s risk laden and crisis prone temporalities had major impacts on writing in the period as well as on important aspects of visual representation The conceptions of time and especially futurity arising from the theory and practice of speculation provided crucial models for writers and other artists aesthetic intellectual and political concerns and strategies The attractions and dangers of speculation were most spectacularly apparent in the period s pivotal economic event the Wall Street Crash of 1929 The book offers an innovative account of how the speculative boom and bust of the Roaring Twenties affected literary and cultural production in the United States It situates the stock market gyrations of the 1920s and 1930s within a wider culture of speculation that was profoundly shaped by but extended well beyond the brokerages and trading floors of Wall Street The early to mid twentieth century was a speculative time an age characterized by leaps of economic political intellectual and literary speculation and the notion of speculative time provides a means of understanding the period s characteristic temporal modes and textures as evident in work by figures including F Scott Fitzgerald John Dos Passos Nathan Asch William Faulkner Federico Garc a Lorca James N Rosenberg Margaret Bourke White Archibald MacLeish Christina Stead Claude McKay Richard Wright and Ralph Ellison

Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to reshape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries The Publishers Weekly, 1928

Princeton Alumni Weekly, 1934 Novel-Poetry Emily Allen, Dino Franco Felluga, 2024-09-05 Novel Poetry examines the verse novel a hybrid genre that emerged in the middle decades of Britain's nineteenth century to make a larger claim about the nature of genre and formal structures for time action and identity that cross genres The volume uncovers trajectories of literary influence that structure our approach to literature and affect how we shape our lives lives which are often constrained by cause and effect and narrative driven ways of approaching time and possibility Novel Poetry tracks an alternative way of thinking about time and event that was inspired by the French Revolution popularized by Lord Byron and explored by experimental Victorian poets such as Elizabeth Barrett Browning Robert Browning Arthur Hugh Clough and George Meredith The volume turns to the work of philosophers Alain Badiou Jean Pierre Dupuy and Slavoj Žižek to theorize this alternative mode which it aligns with the futur antérieur The temporality of the future anterior disrupts both the novel's realist chronologies and the expressivist lyric's cult of the moment thus liberating possibilities for collective action Ranging widely across romantic lyric poetry Victorian novels and nineteenth century and contemporary literary theory Novel Poetry asks what alternative structures and temporalities does a focus on either realistic narrative or the lyric moment occlude Are there ways of thinking about lived experience and personal or collective agency that do not conform to traditional models ways that the verse novel might help us to explore What might be gained today from trying to think about ourselves and our world outside of established frameworks that are now so naturalized as to feel almost inescapable This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4 0 licence Archibald MacLeish Helen E.
