Djupe, Laura R. Olson, 2014-07 Presents an encyclopedia of religion and politics in America including short biographies of important political and religious figures like Ralph Abernathy civil rights leader and Ralph Waldo Emerson writer and synopses of religious entities like the Branch Davidians and the Episcopal church as well as important court cases of relevancy like Epperson et al v Arkansas having to do with evolution God and Contemporary Science Philip Clayton, 1997 It is widely believed that contemporary science has ruled out divine action in the world Arguing that theology can and must respond to this challenge Philip Clayton surveys the available biblical and philosophical resources Recent work in cosmology quantum physics and the brain sciences offers exciting new openings for a theology of divine action If Christian theism is to make use of these opportunities says Clayton it must place a greater stress on divine immanence In response to this challenge Clayton defends the doctrine of panentheism the view that the world is in some sense within God although God also transcends the world God and Contemporary Science offers the first book length defense of panentheism as a viable option within traditional Christian theology Clayton first defends a postfoundationalist model of theology that is concerned more with the coherence of Christian belief than with rational obligation or proof He makes the case that the Old and New Testament theologies do not stand opposed to panentheism but actually support it at a number of points He then outlines the philosophical strengths of a panentheistic view of God s relation to the world and God s activity in the world The remainder of the book applies this theological position to recent scientific developments theories of the origin of the universe quantum mechanics or the physics of the very small the debate about miracles and neuroscientific theories of human thought Systematic Theology John Miley, 1892 Pollution and the Death of Man Francis A. Schaeffer, Udo W. Middelmann, 2011-03-02 At the creation of the world God gave mankind the responsibility to exercise dominion over the earth Man was to use the earth and its abundance of resources to satisfy his physical needs but he was also to care for the earth and its creatures as a wise and godly steward Reading about endangered species or another oil spill will make it abundantly clear that the human race has failed miserably in its God given mandate How did we get to this point Where should we go from here This classic by Francis Schaeffer now repackaged looks at contemporary ecological crises through the lens of theology and Scripture Renowned for his work in applied philosophy and theology Schaeffer answers serious philosophical questions about creation and ecology He concludes that we must return to a profoundly and radically biblical understanding of God's relationship to the earth and of our divine mandate to exercise godly dominion over it Repackaged and republished Pollution and the Death of Man carries an important and relevant message for our day With concluding chapter by Udo Middelmann Outlines of Theology Archibald

Alexander Hodge, 1878 Fortress Introduction to Contemporary Theologies Ed. LeRoy Miller, Stanley James

Grenz, 1998-08-01 Beginning with the tatters of Europe after World War I the authors deftly survey a myriad of Christian theologians These theologians have responded creatively to the steep challenges to faith in this tumultuous century from Karl Barths No to Reinhold Niebuhr's Christian realism from Dietrich Bonhoeffer's religionless Christianity to Rosemary Radford Ruether's feminist liberation theology Easily accessible to both the theological student and the inquiring lay reader this succinct and reliable guide opens doors to some of the most profound religious insights of our time T&T Clark

Handbook of Neo-Calvinism Nathaniel Gray Sutanto, Cory Brock, 2024-01-25 Neo Calvinism critically advances Reformed orthodoxy for the sake of modern life Birthed in the Netherlands at the turn to the twentieth century initiated by Abraham Kuyper 1837-1920 and Herman Bavinck 1854-1921 it argued that a life before God entailed the leavening of faith over all human existence While the movement originated in the Netherlands the tradition now has a global reach with practitioners and thinkers applying its insights in diverse ways and in their own contexts This handbook is a genealogical introduction to this lively and modern branch of the Reformed tradition with contributors that reflect its global reach Its four sections chart the theological roots important original figures historical contours and the contemporary influence of neo Calvinism across a diversity of fields
