Hotchner, 2015-10-20 In June of 1961 A E Hotchner visited an old friend in the psychiatric ward of St Mary's Hospital It would be the last time they spoke a few weeks later Ernest Hemingway was released home where he took his own life Their final conversation was also the final installment in a story whose telling Hemingway had spread over nearly a decade Hemingway divulged the details of the affair that destroyed his first marriage the truth of his romantic life in Paris and how he lost Hadley the true part of the literary woman he'd create and the great love he spent the rest of his life seeking He told of the mischief that made him a legend of impotence cured in a house of God of a plane crash in the African bush from which he stumbled with a bunch of bananas and a bottle of gin in hand of F Scott Fitzgerald dispensing romantic advice of midnight champagne with Josephine Baker of adventure human error and life after lost love This is Hemingway as few have known him humble and full of regret To protect the feelings of Ernest's wife Mary also a close friend and to satisfy the terms of his publisher's cautious legal review Hotch kept the conversations to himself for decades Now he tells the story as Hemingway told it to him Hemingway in Love puts you in the room with the master as he remembers the definitive years that set the course for the rest of his life and stayed with him until the end of his days
