Papagayo Un Hameau Précolombien Du Costa Rica:

Papagayo, un hameau précolombien du Costa Rica Claude F. Baudez, 1992 The Archaeology of Greater Nicoya Larry Steinbrenner, Alexander Geurds, Geoffrey G. McCafferty, Silvia Salgado, 2021-11-01

The Archaeology of Greater Nicoya is the first edited volume in a quarter century to provide an overview of this fascinating archaeological subarea of Mesoamerica encompassing Pacific Nicaragua and northwestern Costa Rica. Inhabited by diverse peoples of Mesoamerican origin centuries before Spanish colonization, Greater Nicoya remains controversial in the twenty-first century as scholars struggle to achieve consensus on questions of geography, chronology, and cultural identity. Drawing on approaches ranging from ethnohistory to bioarchaeology to scientific and cultural historical archaeology, the book is organized into sections on redefining Greater Nicoya, projects and surveys, material culture and mortuary practices. Individual chapters explore Indigenous groups and their origins, extensive summaries of the three largest scholarly archaeological projects completed in Pacific Nicaragua in the last quarter century, clear evidence of Mesoamerican connections from Costa Rica's Bay of Culebra, detailed histories of lithic analysis and rock art studies in Nicaragua, new insights into mortuary and cultural practices based on osteological evidence, and reinterpretations of diagnostic ceramic types as products of related potting communities and the first definitive identification of production centers for these types. Drawing upon new 14C dates, this volume also provides the most substantial revision of the late pre-colonial chronology since the 1960s, a correction that has critical implications for understanding the prehistory of Greater Nicoya.

Archaeology of Ancient Mexico and Central America Susan Toby Evans, David L. Webster, 2001

This reference is devoted to the pre-Columbian archaeology of the Mesoamerican culture area, one of the six cradles of early civilization. It features in-depth articles on the major cultural areas of ancient Mexico and Central America, coverage of important sites including the world-renowned discoveries as well as many lesser-known locations, articles on day-to-day life of ancient peoples in these regions, and several bandw regional and site maps and photographs. Entries are arranged alphabetically and cover introductory archaeological facts, flora, fauna, human growth and development, nonorganic resources, chronologies of various periods (Paleoindian, Archaic, Formative, Classic, and Postclassic), and Colonial cultural features. Maya regional summaries, research methods, and resources, ethnohistorical methods, and sources, and scholars and research history. Edited by archaeologists Evans and Webster, both of whom are associated with Pennsylvania State University.
