

Recommendations for Communication with the Field

- Update website content to ensure users can intuitively find answers to frequent questions, and field test content with educators and LEAs before going live.
- With feedback from an advisory committee of LEA licensure staff, develop and maintain a separate online portal for LEA HR staff to access more in-depth resources for doing their work effectively. Leverage existing resources developed by the field (e.g. RESA), and explore the possibility of RALC directors helping to keep information current.
- Organize a series of trainings and updates to the field to ensure understanding of policy as the high-volume season begins.
