Revolution Plus Love Literary History Womens Bodies And Thematic Repetition In Twentieth Century Chinese Fiction:

Revolution Plus Love Liu Jianmei, 2003-09-30 In the aftermath of the May Fourth movement a growing expectation of revolution raised important intellectual issues about the position of the individual within a society in turmoil and the shifting boundaries of political and sexual identities The theme of revolution plus love a literary response to the widespread insurrections and upheaval was first popularized in the late 1920s In her examination of this popular but understudied literary formula Liu Jianmei argues that revolution and love are culturally variable entities their interplay a complex and constantly changing literary practice that is socially and historically determined Liu looks at the formulary writing of revolution plus love from the 1930s to the 1970s as a case study of literary politics Favored by leftist writers during the early period of revolutionary literature it continued to influence mainstream Chinese literature up to the 1970s By drawing a historical picture of the articulation and rearticulation of this theme Liu shows how changes in revolutionary discourse force unpredictable representations of gender rules and power relations and how women s bodies reveal the complex interactions between political representation and gender roles Revolution Plus Love is a nuanced and carefully considered work on gender and modernity in China unmatched in its broad use of literary resources It will be of considerable interest to scholars and students of modern Chinese literature women s studies cultural studies and comparative literature Gendering

Chinese Religion Jinhua Jia, Xiaofei Kang, Ping Yao, 2014-07-30 Gendering Chinese Religion marks the emergence of a subfield on women gender and religion in China studies Ranging from the medieval period to the present day this volume departs from the conventional and often male centered categorization of Chinese religions into Confucianism Buddhism Daoism and popular religion It makes two compelling arguments First Chinese women have deployed specific religious ideas and rituals to empower themselves in various social contexts Second gendered perceptions and representations of Chinese religions have been indispensable to the historical and contemporary construction of social and political power The contributors use innovative ways of discovering and applying a rich variety of sources many previously ignored by scholars While each of the chapters in this interdisciplinary work represents a distinct perspective together they form a coherent dialogue about the historical importance intellectual possibilities and methodological protocols of this new subfield

Religion, Secularism, and Love as a Political Discourse in Modern China Ting Guo, 2025-10-01 What is the meaning of love in modern Chinese politics Why has love been a crucial political discourse for secular nationalism for generations of political leaders as a powerful instrument to the present day This book offers the first systematic examination of the ways in which the notion of love has been introduced adapted and engineered as a political discourse for the building and rebuilding of a secular modern nation all the while appropriating Confucianism Christianity popular religion ghost stories political religion and their religious affects The insights of this exploration expand not only the discussion of the role of emotions in the project of Chinese modernity but also the study of affective governance and religious nationalisms around the world today Bourdieu and the Literary Field Jeremy Ahearne, 2020-03-31 No detailed description available for Bourdieu and the Literary Field Gender and Food in Transnational East Asias Eric Ping Hung Li, Chikako Nagayama, Jooyeon Rhee, 2021-10-12 Gender and Food in Transnational East Asias illustrates how the production and consumption of food impacts the changing social positions of individuals and their relationships with their families the state and their work as well as shapes their gender sexual ethnic and national identities The transnational movement of food and people between East Asia and the rest of the world is increasingly visible forming various forces behind the cultural and political constructions of gender politics among and beyond Asian diasporas It argues that a critical engagement with practices and representations of food from gender perspectives can enhance our understanding of the society and culture of transnational East Asia

Contested Environmentalisms Cheng Li, 2025-01-21 For decades tree planting and forestry have been pivotal to Chinese environmentalism During the Mao era while forests were razed to fuel rapid increases in industrial production the Greening the Motherland campaign promoted conservationist tree planting nationwide Contested Environmentalisms explores the seemingly contradictory rhetoric and desires of Chinese conservation from the early twentieth century through to the present Drawing on literary cinematic scientific archival and digital media sources Cheng Li investigates the emergence evolution and devolution of Chinese conservationist ideas Combining literary historical and environmental studies approaches he shows that these ideas acquired their value and assumed their power precisely because of their malleability and adaptability Li historicizes authoritarian environmentalism and probes the global local dynamics underlying conservationist ideas that energize environmental impulses in China Examining ethnic borderlands the Beijing political center and China's growth on the world stage this book demonstrates the strength of Chinese environmentalism to adapt and survive through tumultuous change lies in what seems to be a weakness its inconsistency and contestation The ^AOxford Handbook of Modern Chinese Literatures Carlos Rojas, Andrea Bachner, 2016-07-28 The Oxford Handbook of Modern Chinese Literatures offers an in depth engagement with the current analytical methodologies and critical practices that are shaping the field in the twenty first century Sentimental Fabulations, Contemporary Chinese Films Rey Chow, 2007-03-27 What is the sentimental How can we understand it by way of the visual and narrative modes of signification specific to cinema and through the manners of social interaction and collective imagining specific to a particular culture in transition What can the sentimental tell us about the precarious foundations of human coexistence in this age of globalization Rey Chow explores these questions through nine contemporary Chinese directors Chen Kaige Wong Kar wai Zhang Yimou Ann Hui Peter Chan Wayne Wang Ang Lee Li Yang and Tsai Ming liang whose accomplishments have become historic events in world cinema Approaching their works from multiple perspectives including the question of origins nostalgia the everyday feminine psychic interiority commodification biopolitics migration education homosexuality kinship and incest and concluding with an account of the Chinese films epistemic affinity with the Hollywood blockbuster Brokeback Mountain Chow proposes that the sentimental is a discursive constellation traversing affect time identity and social mores a constellation whose contours tends to morph under different historical circumstances and in different genres and media In contemporary Chinese films she argues the sentimental consistently takes the form not of revolution but of compromise not of radical departure but of moderation endurance and accommodation By naming these films sentimental fabulations screen artifacts of cultural becoming with irreducible aesthetic conceptual and speculative logics of their own Chow presents Chinese cinema first and foremost as an invitation to the pleasures and challenges of critical thinking

Revolution Plus Love Literary History Womens Bodies And Thematic Repetition In Twentieth Century Chinese Fiction: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. Revolution Plus Love Literary History Womens Bodies And Thematic Repetition In Twentieth Century Chinese Fiction : Colleen Hoovers "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Revolution Plus Love Literary History Womens Bodies And Thematic Repetition In Twentieth Century Chinese Fiction : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
