The Life and the Adventures of a Haunted Convict Austin Reed, 2017-01-24 The earliest known prison memoir by an African American writer recently discovered and authenticated by a team of Yale scholars sheds light on the longstanding connection between race and incarceration in America A harrowing portrait of life behind bars part confession part jeremiad part lamentation part picaresque novel reminiscent at times of Dickens and Defoe Michiko Kakutani The New York Times NAMED ONE OF THE BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR BY SAN FRANCISCO CHRONICLE In 2009 scholars at Yale University came across a startling manuscript the memoir of Austin Reed a free black man born in the 1820s who spent most of his early life ricocheting between forced labor in prison and forced labor as an indentured servant Lost for more than one hundred and fifty years the handwritten document is the first known prison memoir written by an African American Corroborated by prison records and other documentary sources Reed s text gives a gripping first person account of an antebellum Northern life lived outside slavery that nonetheless bore in its day to day details unsettling resemblances to that very institution Now for the first time we can hear Austin Reed s story as he meant to tell it He was born to a middle class black family in the boomtown of Rochester New York but when his father died his mother struggled to make ends meet Still a child Reed was placed as an indentured servant to a nearby family of white farmers near Rochester He was caught attempting to set fire to a building and sentenced to ten years at Manhattan s brutal House of Refuge an early juvenile reformatory that would soon become known for beatings and forced labor Seven years later Reed found himself at New York s infamous Auburn State Prison It was there that he finished writing this memoir which explores America s first reformatory and first industrial prison from an inmate s point of view recalling the great cruelties and kindnesses he experienced in those places and excavating patterns of racial segregation exploitation and bondage that extended beyond the boundaries of the slaveholding South into free New York Accompanied by fascinating historical documents including a series of poignant letters written by Reed near the end of his life The Life and the Adventures of a Haunted Convict is a work of uncommon beauty that tells a story of nineteenth century racism violence labor and captivity in a proud defiant voice Reed's memoir illuminates his own life and times as well as ours today Praise for The Life and the Adventures of a Haunted Convict One of the most fascinating and important memoirs ever produced in the United States Annette Gordon-Reed The Washington Post Remarkable triumphantly defiant The book's greatest value lies in the gap it fills O The Oprah Magazine Reed displays virtuosic gifts for narrative that a century and a half later earn and hold the reader's ear Thomas Chatterton Williams San Francisco Chronicle The book's urgency and relevance remain undiminished This exemplary edition recovers history without permanently trapping it in one interpretation The Guardian A sensational novelistic telling of an eventful life The Paris Review Vivid and painful NPR Lyrical and graceful in one sentence burning with fury and hellfire in the next Columbus Free Press The Making of a Sailor Frederick Pease Harlow, 1928 Sinner, Sailor T. R. Rhoads, 2005-09-12 Sinner, Sailor is the autobiographical telling of the author's navy career from 1945 until 1972 from World War II through Viet Nam He joined the navy at seventeen seeking adventure and romance he found both and much more He went to Korea as a navy hospital corpsman in a marine unit served at sea aboard a series of aircraft carriers Boxer Hancock and Princeton in the Pacific and later as a medical service corps mustang officer aboard the carrier Constellation at the time of the Tonkin Gulf incident Toward the end of that conflict he did a reprise of Korea ashore in Viet Nam as medical liaison officer with the combined action force of the III Marine Amphibious Force All battle and no liberty makes for a dull read so he includes lighter moments of a sailor on liberty in San Diego Los Angeles Tijuana Hong Kong Osaka Sasebo Yokosuka and of a navy officer in his prime on the loose in San Diego and New York City Sex sin and sailing are not unknown The author re-creates his experiences using narrative dialogue conflict and character as in a novel telling of events as they happen with the immediacy of happening as it is read Each morning I had to face Mr Becker who attempted to counsel me on the principals of leadership I felt he was trying to change my inner self to him trying to develop whatever traces of petty tyrant might be hiding in me into a true whipper of men someone to be feared an ideal Lange You're going to be Lang's relief he began the H Division Police Petty Officer I need someone who can take charge and shape up the men It'll be your job to make sure everyone in sickbay keeps busy does their job and follows orders Kick ass and take names Don't try to make them like you you're not in a popularity contest Chapter sixteen The next day I went to where she lived when she wasn't working at the New Black Rose We talked and joked and then we made love Afterwards she began to look sad Whatsa matter you I asked You Christian she asked I shrugged and said I guess so Why? Why you here then she asked angry and disillusioned at me and at herself I was taken aback by her question I began putting my clothes on Chapter Sixteen There are genuine heroes in the book there are also bureaucrats time servers rogues villains and scoundrels Life aboard a ship or ashore with the marines or liberty in the fleshpots or at home with the family has rarely been caught so realistically A good read of the real McCoy
