The New Era of Global Competition Daniel Drache, Meric S. Gertler, 1991 The increasing globalization of production and the conservative agenda for market led growth are dramatically affecting the life of the average Canadian and the choices made by social and economic policy makers As Daniel Drache Meric Gertler and the contributing authors show the worldwide reorganization of markets poses new challenges for domestic industry while continental trade initiatives threaten the livelihood of Canadian workers and the stability of communities across all regions of the country Environmental quality is similarly at risk from development strategies driven more by possibilities of short term gain from export sales than by attempts to promote long term sustainability
