Between Literature and Science Wolf Lepenies, 1988 The theme of this book is the conflict which arose in the early nineteenth century between on the one hand the literary and on the other hand the scientific intellectuals of Europe as they competed for recognition as the chief analysts of the new industrial society in which they lived This conflict was epitomised by the confrontation between Matthew Arnold and T H Huxley and later in that between F R Leavis and C P Snow Sociology was born as the third major discipline though in many ways it was a hybrid of the literary and the scientific traditions The social sciences continue even today to oscillate between these two traditions The author chronicles the rise of the new discipline by discussing the lives and work of the most prominent thinkers of the time in England France and Germany These include John Stuart Mill H G Wells Beatrice and Sidney Webb and T S Eliot Auguste Comte Charles Peguy Emile Durkheim Stefan George Thomas Mann Max Weber and Karl Mannheim At stake was the right to formulate a philosophy of life for contemporary society and to predict and pre-empt the worst consequences of industrialization The book presents a penetrating study of idealists grappling with reality when industrial society was still in its infancy It will be of interest to those studying sociology and its history as a discipline but it is equally relevant to other social science subjects which may be said to have arisen at about the same time Back cover Bradshaw's illustrated hand-book to Germany George

Chapman, 2019-01-21 In Expressionism and Poster Design in Germany 1905-1925 Kathleen Chapman re-defines Expressionism by situating it in relation to the most common type of picture in public space during the Wilhelmine twentieth century the commercial poster Focusing equally on visual material and contemporaneous debates surrounding art posters and the image in general this study reveals that conceptions of a modern image were characterized not so much by style or mode of production and distribution but by a visual rhetoric designed to communicate more directly than words As instances of such rhetoric Expressionist art and posters emerge as equally significant examples of this modern image demonstrating the interconnectedness of the aesthetic the utilitarian and the commercial in European modernism Guide Through
