Palliative Care For Older People In Care Homes:

Palliative Care for Older People in Care Homes J. M. Hockley, David Clark, 2002 In this work contributors from nursing and medicine from the social and health sciences and from ethics and health planning provide an international perspective on key issues in relation to end of life care such as assessment loss autonomy and the ethics of end of life decision making

End of Life in Care Homes Jeanne Samson Katz, Sheila M. Peace, 2003-04-03 In our society the overwhelming majority of people die in later life They typically die slowly of chronic diseases with multiple co existing problems over long periods of time They spend the majority of their final years at home but many will die in hospitals or care homes This book explores the possibilities for improving the care of older people dying in residential care and nursing homes It argues that there are aspects of palliative care that given the right circumstances are transferable to dying people in settings that are not domestic or hospice based End of Life in Care Homes describes what happens in nursing and residential care homes when a resident is dying how carers cope and the practical health and emotional challenges that carers face on top of their day to day work Based on detailed research from both the UK and US the book shows how the situation can be improved Understanding Care Homes Katherine Froggatt, Sue Davies, Julianne Meyer, 2009 This book draws together a range of research and development initiatives that emphasise the importance of partnership working and of enabling older people and their families to maintain the highest quality of life The book investigates how research and development can be undertaken to provide better care for the resident and their family Textbook of Palliative Care Roderick Duncan MacLeod, Lieve Van den Block, 2025-02-25 This second edition provides the most up to date information on all aspects of palliative care including recent developments including COVID 19 global policies service provision symptom management professional aspects organization of services palliative care for specific populations palliative care emergencies ethical issues in palliative care research in palliative care public health approaches and financial aspects of care This new Textbook of Palliative Care remains a unique comprehensive clinically relevant and state of the art book aimed at advancing palliative care as a science a clinical practice and as an art Palliative care has been part of healthcare for over fifty years but it still needs to be explained to many Healthcare education and training has been slow to recognize the vital importance of ensuring that all practitioners have a good understanding of what is involved in the care of people with serious or advanced illnesses and their families However the science of palliative care is advancing and this new edition will contribute to a better understanding This new edition offers 86 updated or new chapters out of 108 written by experts in their given fields providing up to date information on a wide range of topics of relevance to those providing care towards the end of life no matter what the disease may be We present a global perspective on contemporary and classic issues in palliative care with authors from a wide range of disciplines involved in this essential aspect of care The Textbook includes sections addressing aspects such as symptom management and care provision organization of care in different settings care in specific disease groups palliative care emergencies ethics public health approaches and research in palliative care This new Textbook will be of value to practitioners in all disciplines and professions where the care of people approaching death is important specialists as well as non specialists in any setting where people with serious advanced illnesses are residing It is also an important resource for researchers policy and decision makers at national or regional levels Neither the science nor the art of palliative care will stand still so the Editors and contributors from all over the world aim to keep this Textbook updated so that the reader can find new evidence and approaches to care
