Dray,2019-01-31 The family tradition was broken over the centuries since they came across from Dahomey But the family remembered much of what their ancestors had taught Now the Sib is stretching its wings and recovering much of what was lost From today s libraries traces have been found And the web like Legba s fabled home has caught the small flies of more details to flesh out knowledge that is fragmented This revised and expanded edition will add to the reader s understanding of how one family has pulled together the strands of a long and broken history to make a new beginning in the modern world The author Tielzi e alim was student to Tovodu se Legba and has carried his plans for the Sib forward in this book It is now open for the world to read according to his plan Modupe Routledge Revivals: Pandora and Occam (1992) Horst Ruthrof,2017-03-16 First published in 1992 this book evokes Pandora and Occam as metaphoric corner posts in an argument about language as discourse and in doing so brings analytic philosophy to bear on issues of Continental philosophy with attention to linguistic semiological and semiotic concerns Instead of regarding meanings as guaranteed by definitions the author argues that linguistic expressions are schemata directing us more or less loosely toward the activation of nonlinguistic sign systems Ruthrof draws up a heuristic hierarchy of discourses with literary expression at the top descending through communication reduced reference and speech acts to formal logic and digital communication at the bottom The book offers multiple perspectives from which to review traditional theories of meaning working from a wide variety of theorists including Peirce Frege Husserl Derrida Lyotard Davidson and Searle In Ruthrof s analysis Pandora and Occam illustrate the opposition between the suppressed rich materiality of culturally saturated discourse and the stark ideality of formal sign systems This book will be of interest to those studying linguistics literature and philosophy A PANDORA'S BOX Susan Myshyniuk,2019-01-04 This book is compiled of short excerpts of a woman walking through the world of nutrition first in a hospital setting then a weight loss agency and onto her own studies of holistic nutrition The book describes her own struggles with coming to terms with her own weight gains and the reasons for such gains What her mountains were to climb in order to get past the enormous challenges in her weight loss journey Sometimes the truth hurts Scraping the Sky ,2000-12 Historia and Fabula Peter G. Bietenholz,1994-09-01 Historical thought whether it is expressed in writing or through works of art inevitably contains elements of fiction Thus in every phase of the development of historical thinking the question arises were these fictional elements recognized and if so how was their function perceived Was any effort made to distinguish between a documented fact and any assumptions or deductions related to it In examining the past was it deemed important to curb the free play of imagination or was it thought that any explanation no matter how fanciful and irrational was better than none This is the question that this book attempts to answer In doing so it examines a rich variety of texts and also some works of art ranging from the Ancient Near East to the nineteenth century The Complete Idiot's Guide to Classical Mythology Kevin Osborn,Dana Burgess,1998 An introduction to Greek and Roman mythology provides explanations of all the gods and their roles origins of the myths and theories on who wrote them and the function of myths in society

Myth and Fairy Tale in Contemporary Women's Fiction Susan Sellers, 2017-03-14 Woman as gorgon woman as temptress the classical and biblical mythology which has dominated Western thinking defines women in a variety of patriarchally encoded roles This study addresses the surprising persistence of mythical influence in contemporary fiction Opening with the question what is myth the first section provides a wide ranging review of mythography It traces how myths have been perceived and interpreted by such commentators as Sigmund Freud Carl Jung Bruno Bettelheim Roland Barthes Jack Zipes and Marina Warner This leads to an examination of the role that mythic narrative plays in social and self formation drawing on the literary feminist and psychoanalytic theories of Julia Kristeva Luce Irigaray Helene Cixous and Judith Butler to delineate the ways in which women's mythos can transcend the limitations of logos and give rise to potent new models for individual and cultural regeneration In this light Susan Sellers offers challenging new readings of a wide range of contemporary women's fiction including works by A S Byatt Angela Carter Anne Rice Michele Roberts Emma Tennant and Fay Weldon Topics explored include fairy tale as erotic fiction new religious writing vampires and gender bending mythic mothers genre fiction the still persuasive paradigm of feminine beauty and the radical potential of comedy Sparks from the Spirit Yongyuth Yuthavong, 2018-01-09 The sparks from the spirit of science include not only new knowledge but also innovations the major ingredients of development and sustainability This book creates an understanding of science and its role in innovation and sustainable development and points out unfilled gaps in human development It highlights opportunities for societies to overcome obstacles in development The book is written in an easy to understand manner avoiding technical jargon and contains case studies practical examples and historical perspectives It is intended for a general especially young readership and will appeal to those curious about the nature of science and its benefits together with its possible pitfalls

Different Games, Different Rules Haru Yamada, 2002 In a lucid and insightful discussion Yamada outlines the basic differences between Japanese and American English and analyzes a number of real life business and social interactions in which these differences led to miscommunication By understanding how and why each culture speaks in the way that it does Yamada argues we can learn to avoid frustrating and damaging failures of communication Cuba and the Tempest Eduardo González, 2006 In a unique analysis of Cuban literature inside and outside the country's borders Eduardo Gonzalez looks closely at the work of three of the most important contemporary Cuban authors to write in the post 1959 diaspora Guillermo Cabrera Infante 1929 2005 who left Cuba for good in 1965 and established himself in London Antonio Benítez Rojo 1931 2005 who settled in the United States and Leonardo Padura Fuentes b 1955 who still lives and writes in Cuba Through the positive experiences of exile and wandering that appear in their work these three writers exhibit what Gonzalez calls Romantic authorship a deep connection to the Romantic spirit of irony and complex sublimity crafted in literature by Lord Byron Thomas De Quincey and Samuel Taylor Coleridge In Gonzalez's view a writer becomes a belated Romantic by dint of exile adopted creatively with comic or tragic irony Gonzalez weaves into his analysis related cinematic elements of myth folktale and the grotesque that appear in the work of filmmakers such as Alfred Hitchcock and Pedro Almodovar Placing the three Cuban writers in conversation with artists and thinkers from British and American literature anthropology philosophy psychoanalysis and cinema Gonzalez ultimately provides a space in which Cuba and its literature inside and outside its borders are deprovincialized
