Vintage Birmingham Signs Tim Hollis, 2008 Most people do not stop to realize how many of their fond memories involve advertising signs Although these neon spectaculars billboards and even signs painted directly onto brick walls were created expressly to persuade customers to buy products or patronize businesses many such signs remained in place for so long that they became beloved landmarks in their own right For Images of America Vintage Birmingham Signs Tim Hollis has scoured the archives of Birmingham's former sign companies as well as other private collections to compile some of the best remembered or most obscure signs that dotted the urban and suburban landscape Here readers will again see the Buffalo Rock bottle pouring its ginger ale into a glass the Golden Flake clown smiling down at passersby the Barber's milk clock at the Five Points South intersection and many more Through these vintage photographs readers can once again visit such once thriving destinations as Eastwood Mall Burger in a Hurry and the Kiddieland amusement park

Route 66 in New Mexico Joe Sonderman, 2010-02-08 New Mexico is The Land of Enchantment offering a fascinating blend of Native American Spanish Colonial and Western American cultures The travelers from the East knew they had arrived in the great Southwest when they entered New Mexico the towns along Route 66 were ablaze in neon and the motels lured travelers with Western themes Pueblo Revival architecture and Native American trading posts An adventure still awaits the traveler today who takes the time to exit I 40 and leave the franchised blandness behind The neon still flickers at the Blue Swallow Motel in Tucumcari on Central Avenue in Albuquerque and at the El Rancho Hotel in Gallup The Fat Man still smiles at Joseph's Bar and Grill in Santa Rosa The stories behind those landmarks are here as well as the stories behind establishments that are lost forever or slowly crumbling to dust among the tumbleweeds
