Patient Power:

Patient Power John C. Goodman, Gerald Musgrave, 1992-10-01 Argues for a health care system that would restore power and responsibility to the individual consumer and taking it out of the hands of government and insurance companies The Connected Customer Stefan H.K. Wuyts, Marnik G. Dekimpe, Els Gijbrecchts, F.G.M. (Rik) Pieters, 2011-01-19 In today's connected consumer environment customers are better informed and harder to please but they also leave a more visible evidence trail in the form of improved databases and customer information Consumers are increasingly interconnected through various sorts of social networks a trend that is facilitated by recent advances in electronic media and telecommunication i.e. MySpace Facebook Twitter and Cyworld Consumers are also increasingly connected with brands and seek to play a more participative role in their relationship with companies stimulating companies to reconsider how to connect with consumers This book consists of a collection of chapters by thought leaders in the field of marketing and beyond that deals with the rich facets of connectivity This edited volume is a great source of research ideas and fresh theory building for academics and students in marketing and related fields who wish to understand this exciting field It will be a source of inspiration for practitioners who are eager to take up the challenge and adapt their marketing strategies to the changing nature of consumer and business markets The Mindful Health Care Professional - E-Book Carmelina D'Arro, 2023-09-12 2025 PROSE Award Category Winner in Nursing Allied Health Services Selected for Doody's Core Titles 2024 in Patient Education Research shows that what makes or breaks the success of a health care professional is more than the ability to provide accurate diagnosis and treatment An HCP's success hinges on their ability to satisfy patients' main concerns about HCPs namely do they care about me and will the procedure hurt The Mindful Health Care Professional teaches HCPs how to train the mind to be calm focused and compassionate in ways that enhance their own well-being and their ability to provide patient-centered care This book offers the core communication skills needed to convey care and build trust with a novel model that helps navigate challenging procedures and consultations Finally it contains many simple evidence-based techniques for managing pain and anxiety during medical and dental procedures allowing procedures to unfold more easily for all Written by Dr Carmelina D'Arro a seasoned health care professional and qualified mindfulness teacher this state-of-the-art guide is designed for students in all areas of health care and includes a fully searchable eBook version with each print purchase that provides links to numerous videos Patient-centered care approach utilizes the ISLEEP Introduce Solicit Listen Empathize Explain and Power model which encompasses not only consultations but also hands-on procedures Trauma-sensitive mindfulness practices are tailored to health care professionals and patients and help in integrating EASE equanimity attentiveness self-awareness and empathy into practice Evidence-based interventions are based on current pain theory and include mindfulness techniques non-pain stimuli and active distraction Case studies highlight challenging situations faced by health care professionals and patients and how to navigate them with ISLEEP communication skills Procedure videos provide step by step instructions on how to practice mindfulness and other mind training techniques Focus on practical application includes opportunities for observation videos practice simulation exercises and self evaluation clinical tools More than 20 videos demonstrate the ISLEEP method and how to implement it with patients and staff Over 20 videos demonstrate interventions for procedural pain and anxiety Tables and Figures highlight key research and concepts throughout the book eBook version is included with print purchase The eBook allows you to access all of the text figures and references with the ability to search customize your content make notes and highlights and have content read aloud It also includes videos of meditation practices communication skills and interventions for procedural pain and anxiety

The Body in Theory Becky R. McLaughlin, Eric Daffron, 2021-09-06 The body has always had the potential to unsettle us with its strange exigencies and suppurations its demands and desires and thus throughout the ages it has continued to be a subject of interest and obsession This collection of twelve peer reviewed essays on Jacques Lacan and Michel Foucault interrogates the body in all of its beauty and with all of its blights and blemishes Written by a diverse body of scholars art historians cultural theorists English professors philosophers psychoanalysts and sociologists from North America and Europe these essays bring into conversation two intellectual giants frequently seen as antagonists and thus rarely seen together Topics covered include the intersections of Foucault and Lacan and how they bring to light new thoughts on the senses the self destructive body ableism and disability in Guillermo del Toro's film The Shape of Water body image and the ego selfie culture and metamorphosis in Ottessa Moshfegh's novel My Year of Rest and Relaxation among others
