Purity And Provocation:

Purity and Provocation Mette Hjort, Scott MacKenzie, 2003 No Marketing Blurb Purity and Provocation: Dogma 95 Mette Hjort, Scott Mackenzie, 2005-03-01 Cinephilia Marijke de Valck, Malte Hagener, 2005 They obsess over the nuances of a Douglas Sirk or Ingmar Bergman film they revel in books such as François Truffaut's Hitchcock they happily subscribe to the Sundance Channel they are the rare breed known as cinephiles Though much has been made of the classic era of cinephilia from the 1950s to the 1970s Cinephilia documents the latest generation of cinephiles and their use of new technologies With the advent of home theaters digital recording devices online film communities cinephiles today pursue their dedication to film outside of institutional settings A radical new history of film culture Cinephilia breaks new ground for students and scholars alike Traditions in World Cinema Linda Badley, R. Barton Palmer, Steven Jay Schneider, 2006 The core volume in the Traditions in World Cinema series this book brings together a colourful and wide ranging collection of world cinematic traditions national regional and global all of which are in need of introduction investigation and in some cases critical reassessment Topics include German expressionism Italian neorealism French New Wave British new wave Czech new wave Danish Dogma post Communist cinema Brazilian post Cinema Novo new Argentine cinema pre revolutionary African traditions Israeli persecution films new Iranian cinema Hindi film songs Chinese wenyi Transnational Cinema in a Global North Andrew K. Nestingen, Trevor Glen Elkington, 2005 The first scholarly work to address the globalization of film in the Nordic region covering major films directors and trends in the region's five countries Danish Mothers On-Screen Djuna Hallsworth, 2021-11-19 This book combines content analysis of film and television cases the examination of policy documents and first hand interview material with Danish industry professionals tracing the pivotal moments in media and welfare state history to unite these two overlapping spheres welfare state social policy and media imagery In doing so it addresses a gap in existing academic and policy documents to demonstrate how motherhood and femininity are presented in contemporary state supported Danish screen fiction As an industry premised on state funding and public service values Danish screen fiction plays a cogent role in shaping and communicating cultural norms and provides a space for the cultivation of belonging and a sense of a shared identity For this reason it is vital to identify and examine representational trends and patterns in popular media formats This book argues that the political narrative of gender equality democracy and universal social support that permeates Danish state policy is undermined in screen fiction wherein working mother characters are problematised and the welfare system's integrity is challenged This book asserts that the framing of femininity motherhood and citizenship in many contemporary Danish films and television dramas indicates a cultural concern about the welfare state's institutionalisation of caregiving and presents absent mothers as an indirect cause of crime trauma or social unrest Cinematic Appeals Ariel Rogers, 2013-10-22 Cinematic Appeals follows the effect of technological innovation on the cinema experience specifically the introduction of widescreen and stereoscopic 3D systems in the 1950s the rise of digital cinema in the 1990s and the transition to digital 3D since 2005 Widescreen films drew the spectator into the world of the screen enabling larger than life close ups of already larger than life actors The technology fostered the illusion of physically entering a film enhancing the semblance of realism Alternatively the digital era was less concerned with manipulating the viewer's physical response and more with generating information flow awe disorientation and the disintegration of spatial boundaries This study ultimately shows how cinematic technology and the human experience shape and respond to each other over time Films discussed include Elia Kazan's East of Eden 1955 Star Wars The Phantom Menace 1999 The Matrix 1999 and Thomas Vinterberg's Dogme film The Celebration 1998 Lars von Trier Linda

Badley, 2011-02-24 Scandinavia's foremost living auteur and the catalyst of the Dogme95 movement Lars von Trier is arguably world cinema's most confrontational and polarizing figure Willfully devastating audiences he takes risks few filmmakers would conceive mounting projects that somehow transcend the grand follies they narrowly miss becoming Challenging conventional limitations and imposing his own rules he restlessly reinvents the film language The Danish director has therefore cultivated an insistently transnational cinema taking inspiration from sources that range from the European avant garde to American genre films This volume provides a stimulating overview of Trier's career while focusing on the more recent work including his controversial Gold Heart Trilogy Breaking the Waves The Idiots and Dancer in the Dark the as yet unfinished USA Trilogy Dogville and Manderlay and individual projects such as the comedy The Boss of It All and the incendiary horror psychodrama Antichrist Closely analyzing the films and their contexts Linda Badley draws on a range of cultural references and critical approaches including genre gender and cultural studies performance theory and trauma culture Two revealing interviews that Trier granted during crucial stages of Antichrist's development are also included Abyss of Reason Daniel Cottom, 1991 A study from the American perspective of modern spiritualism which flourished in the mid 19th century and of surrealism a movement that produced a major following between the two World Wars Shakespeare, Film Studies, and the Visual Cultures of Modernity A. Guneratne, 2016-04-30 This book is the first in depth cultural history of cinema's polyvalent and often contradictory appropriations of Shakespearean drama and performance traditions The author argues that these adaptations have helped shape multiple aspects of film from cinematic style to genre and narrative construction Lone Scherfig's Italian for Beginners Mette Hjort, 2011-09-01 Lone Scherfig was the first of a number of women directors to take up the challenge of Dogme the back to basics manifesto based rule governed and now globalized film initiative introduced by Danish filmmakers Lars von Trier and Thomas Vinterberg in 1995 Entitled Italiensk for begyndere Italian for Beginners Scherfig's Dogme film transformed this already accomplished filmmaker into one of Europe's most noteworthy women directors Danish and international critics lavished praise on Scherfig and her film and their reactions harmonized with those of festival juries Battered by life but by no means defeated or destroyed the characters in Italian for Beginners are all in touch at some deep intuitive level with the truth that is the film's basic message that happiness and a sense of self worth are sustained by love whether romantic love or that of a community of like minded people The film struck an important chord with viewers precisely because it took Dogme in a new direction one that reflects Scherfig s sensibilities and preferences as a woman The book includes the Dogme manifesto and draws on interviews with the filmmaker as well as with the cast and crew Watch the book trailer <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=gk7SGfrIHGA>

The Material Imagination Dr Matthew Mindrup, 2015-01-30 In recent years architectural discourse has witnessed a renewed interest in materiality under the guise of such familiar tropes as material honesty form finding or digital materiality As an alternative to a formal approach in architectural design this book challenges readers to rethink the reverie of materials in architecture through an examination of historical precedent architectural practice literary sources philosophical analyses and everyday experience Focusing on matter as the premise of an architect s imagination each chapter identifies and graphically illustrates how material imagination defines the conceptual premises for making architecture ReFocus: The Films of Susanne Bier Missy Molloy, 2018-04-13 A dynamic scholarly engagement with Susanne Bier s work The first volume to examine Susanne Bier s entire oeuvre Includes original research from prestigious scholars in Scandinavian transnational and feminist film and media studies Written in engaging accessible prose enlivened by detailed case studies Engages with critical issues in Danish cinema related to screenwriting collaboration authorship gender identity ethics genre practitioner s agency and reception Features an original interview with Susanne Bier The award winning Danish director Susanne Bier has become increasingly known for her generic innovations and industrial fluidity moving confidently between cinema and television at a time where the scarcity of women directors has become a subject of major critical and popular attention Refocus The Films of Susanne Bier is a dynamic scholarly engagement with Bier s work and a timely consideration of her impressive authorial achievements Featuring essays from both recognised and up and coming scholars in Scandinavian transnational and feminist film and media studies this book also includes an original interview with Bier addressing some of the provocative readings of her films advanced by the volume s contributors Woman in Lars von Trier's Cinema, 1996-2014 Ahmed Elbeshlawy, 2016-10-11 This book discusses the figure of Woman in Lars von Trier s distinctive cinematic productions from 1996 to 2014 It takes the notorious legacy of violence against women in von Trier s cinema beyond the perceived gender division elevating the director s image above being a mere provocateur By raising fundamental questions about woman sexuality and desire Elbeshlawy shows that Trier s cinematic Woman is an attempt at creating an image of a genderless subject that is not inhibited by the confines of ideology and culture But this attempt is perennially ill fated And it is this failure that not only fosters viewing enjoyment but also gives the films their political importance elevating them above both commendations and condemnations of feminist discourse Farmed Animals on Film Stephen Marcus Finn, 2023-03-03 This book aims to show how film can increase awareness of the plight of farmed animals without exploiting them Much has been written on the rights of animals be they in the wild or circuses hunted experimented on used for entertainment or slaughtered and consumed However there has been little that has examined in any detail the filming of farmed animals and nothing on a declaration of rights for such animals thus leaving them in a limbo of neglect Stephen Marcus Finn offers a manifesto on how to foster the rights of farmed animals in filming and sets out to rectify this lacuna

Visual Authorship Torben Kragh Grodal, Bente Larsen, Iben Thorving Laursen, 2005 Visual Authorship is a collection of essays which offers a new approach to the study of authorship The contributors point out that individual creativity is essential in the richly faceted media landscape of today The individual creativity and the role of authorship are discussed in relation to film television computer games and the Internet Theories of cognition and emotion offer new tools for the understanding of visual aesthetics they explain why works of art are created by individuals and not by discourses and ideologies Several contributors analyse in detail the works of Lars von Trier The Danish Directors 2 Mette Hjort, Eva Jørholt, Eva Novrup Redvall, 2010-08-15 Over the last two decades or so the New Danish Cinema has established itself as an important source of cinematic renewal and innovation and as a model for how small minor or peripheral cinemas can survive in an industry dominated by Global Hollywood Following in the footsteps of critically acclaimed The Danish Directors also published by Intellect The Danish Directors 2 provides a practitioner's perspective on the social cultural and economic milieus in which Danish film makers have been able to develop their practice and to thrive With insider information about the making marketing and distribution of award winning films and interviews with seminal directors such as Anders Thomas Jensen Annette K Olesen and Lone Scherfig The Danish Directors 2 allows readers entry into what might seem to be a forbidding body of work The editors are knowledgeable and sensitive interrogators and their appreciation of the specific qualities of each director's work elicits thoughtful replies This volume will appeal to students scholars and cinephiles alike

Politics, Theory, and Film Bonnie Honig, Lori Jo Marso, 2016 The disturbing and intense films of Lars von Trier are often dismissed as misogynist misanthropic or anti humanist This book however invites us to engage with his work to found a new feminist vision and discover what might be distinctively hopeful for the future of our fragile human condition

Screening the Unwatchable A. Grønstad, 2011-11-20 Tracing the rise of extreme art cinema across films from Lars von Trier's The Idiots to Michael Haneke's Caché Asbjørn Grønstad revives the debate about the role of negation and aesthetics and reframes the concept of spectatorship in ethical terms Screendance Douglas Rosenberg, 2012-07-05 The practice of dance and the technologies of representation has excited artists since the advent of film This book weaves together theory from art and dance as well as appropriate historical reference material to propose a new theory of screendance one that frames it within the discourse of post modern art practice
