was a fit young man in his thirties who hadn't been near a doctor for years. The post-mortem toxicology report shows that Ainsley was poisoned but whether by his own hand or that of another's is far from clear. DI Joe Rafferty and his partner Dafyd Llewellyn discover Adam Ainsley, the school's sporting hero, had made a lasting impression but not always for his prowess on the sporting field. And when the detective pair delve deeper, they find plenty of reasons for the lasting resentment. But how to prove which one of the ex-pupils has let feelings fester for twenty years to end in murder isn't so readily apparent.
