Bridging Multiple Worlds Lorraine S. Taylor, Catharine R. Whittaker, 2003 Bridging Multiple Worlds connects theory and practice offering authentic real world case studies involving teachers and students of diverse backgrounds in a variety of dynamic classroom settings This case study text uses a Decision Making Scaffold and specific discussion questions for each case to help students reflect on the cases in greater depth and meaning Unlike most texts that include vignettes or cases this text provides direction for class discussions Instructors will find the authentic situations stimulating and engaging

Furthermore pertinent research and background information precede each case. In addition the scaffold and discussion questions facilitate planning and implementing each class session. The emphasis on long term comprehensive solutions to problems that link the school home and community will help students appreciate and understand the complexity of issues involved in the cases.

Law and Religion in the Liberal State Md Jahid Hossain Bhuiyan, Darryn Jensen, 2020-05-28. The relationship between law and religion is evident throughout history. They have never been completely independent from each other. There is no doubt that religion has played an important role in providing the underlying values of modern laws in setting the terms of the relationship between the individual and the state and in demanding a space for the variety of intermediate institutions which stand between individuals and the state. However the relationships between law and religion and the state and religious institutions differ significantly from one modern state to another. There is not one liberalism but many. This work brings together reflections upon the relationship between religion and the law from the perspectives of different sub traditions within the broader liberal project and in light of some contemporary problems in the accommodation of religious and secular authority.

The Principal's Hot Seat Nicholas J. Pace, 2011-10-31. The Principal's Hot Seat features video footage of aspiring principals who are challenged to think on their feet and respond to agitated teachers, angry students and irate parents in a way that reflects their knowledge of the law, school leadership standards and their own styles. In addition to DVD the book features background information and a complete transcript of the conversation allowing for careful analysis of the principal's performance.

Five Practices for Equity-Focused School Leadership Sharon I. Radd, Gretchen Givens, Generett, Mark Anthony Gooden, George Theoharis, 2021-02-08. This timely and essential book provides a comprehensive guide for school leaders who desire to engage their school communities in transformative systemic change. Sharon I Radd, Gretchen Givens, Generett, Mark Anthony Gooden and George Theoharis offer five practices to increase educational equity and eliminate marginalization based on race, disability, socioeconomics, language, gender and sexual identity and religion. For each dimension of diversity the authors provide background information for understanding the current realities in schools and beyond and they suggest disruptive practices to replace the status quo in order to achieve full inclusion and educational excellence for every child. Assuming that leadership to create equity is a unique practice the book offers clear explanations of foundational terms and concepts such as equity, systemic inequity, paradigms and cognitive dissonance and privilege. Specific recommendations for how to build support and sustainability by engaging colleagues and other stakeholders in constructive dialogues with multiple perspectives. Detailed descriptions of routines and roles for building effective equity leadership teams. Guidelines and tools for performing an equity audit including environmental scans. A change framework to skillfully transform your system and Reflection activities for self discovery, understanding and personal and professional growth. A call to action that is both passionate and practical. Five Practices for Equity Focused School Leadership is an indispensable roadmap for educators undertaking the journey toward an education system that acknowledges and advances the worth and potential of all students Trumping Religion Steven P. Brown, 2002-09-25 The first scholarly treatment of the strategies employed by the New Christian Right in litigating cases regarding religion Trumping Religion provides a detailed analysis of the five major public interest law firms that have litigated religion cases in the federal courts between 1980 and 2000 Allied with several highly vocal evangelical ministries such as those of Jerry Falwell and Pat Robinson these legal organizations argue that religious expression is a form of protected speech and thereby gain a greater latitude of interpretation in the courts The long term agenda of the New Christian Right as illuminated by this study is to shape church state jurisprudence in a way that permits free course for the Christian gospel Steven P Brown presents his research and conclusions from a balanced viewpoint In filling a distinct void in the literature this book will be of considerable interest to political scientists legal scholars law schools and seminaries and anyone concerned with the intersection of religion and judicial politics
