Reluctant Modernity The Institution Of Art And Its Historical Forms:

Reluctant Modernity Aleš Debeljak, 1998 In this book Ale Debeljak offers a refreshing alternative to postmodernists such as Baudrillard who declare the death of art conceived as yet another source of rootless circulating fictions Inspired by the melancholy critical theory of Adorno and Benjamin Debeljak shows that with the dawning of modernity art was made autonomous art production was effectively emancipated from the exigencies of everyday life and its guiding ideal of purposive rationality The deterioration of bourgeois liberal individualism into the narcissism of modern mass society accompanied the decomposition of art into simplified mass art and commercialized kitsch Today argues Debeljak postmodern art is subjected to infinite reproducibility total integration into mass society and political resignation it no longer represents an alternative reality The postmodern institution of art thus cannot be simply cured of modern structures and assumptions but is instead fated to a continuous and painful relationship with modernity from back cover

The Review as Art and Communication Joey Skidmore, 2014-09-01 The Review as Art and Communication not only presents the idea that book reviews record reviews theatrical reviews and reviews of any genre can be substantive essays on their own expounding and elaborating on the concepts and ideas of the original material critiqued but it also explores the shelf life of the review the odd phenomenon that just like other forms of art some stand the test of time and some do not This book also collects the book reviews of one scholar Max J Skidmore Sr into one volume using his ideas and themes to illustrate how reviews have a life of their own evolving and developing beyond the original work covered

The Distorting Mirror Laikwan Pang, 2007-10-31 The Distorting Mirror analyzes the multiple and complex ways in which urban Chinese subjects saw themselves interacting with the new visual culture that emerged during the turbulent period between the 1880s and the 1930s The media and visual forms examined include lithography photography advertising film and theatrical performances Urbanites actively engaged with and enjoyed this visual culture which was largely driven by the subjective desire for the empty promises of modernity promises comprised of such abstract and fleeting concepts as new exciting and fashionable Detailing and analyzing the trajectories of development of various visual representations Laikwan Pang emphasizes their interactions In doing so she demonstrates that visual modernity was not only a combination of independent cultural phenomena but also a partially coherent sociocultural discourse whose influences were seen in different and collective parts of the culture The work begins with an overall historical account and theorization of a new lithographic pictorial culture developing at the end of the nineteenth century and an examination of modernity s obsession with the investigation of the real Subsequent chapters treat the fascination with the image of the female body in the new visual culture entertainment venues in which this culture unfolded and was performed how urbanites came to terms with and interacted with the new reality and the production and reception of images the dynamics between these two being a theme explored throughout the book Modernity as the author shows can be seen as spectacle At the same time she demonstrates that although the excessiveness of this spectacle captivated the modern subject it did not completely overwhelm or immobilize those who engaged with it After all she argues they participated in and performed with this ephemeral visual culture in an attempt to come to terms with their own new modern self

The Columbia Guide to the Literatures of Eastern Europe Since 1945 Harold B. Segel, 2003 The Iron Curtain concealed from western eyes a vital group of national and regional writers Marked by not only geographical proximity but also by the shared experience of communism and its collapse the countries of Eastern Europe Poland Hungary Albania Romania Bulgaria and the former states of Yugoslavia Czechoslovakia and East Germany share literatures that reveal many common themes when examined together Compiled by a leading scholar the guide includes an overview of literary trends in historical context a listing of some 700 authors by country and an A to Z section of articles on the most influential writers

The Hidden Handshake Aleš Debeljak, 2004-09-27 The Hidden Handshake uses four distinct yet intertwined essays to address the questions surrounding our notions of citizenship national identity and cosmopolitan belonging The violent disintegration of Yugoslavia and the undercurrent of EU enlargement stand out as two contrasting movements that highlight the importance of having a national identification while also defying it to avoid both the rigidity of nationalist exclusivism and the blithe nonsense of global citizenship Through the exploration of sociohistorical material and artistic visions as well as the author s layered identity as a Slovene a Yugoslav a Central European and a European Ale_ Debeljak tries to show that it is possible to remain faithful to geography history and community even as one fosters links to global cultural movements Not surprisingly the book itself shares some of this hybrid identity It uses not only theoretical concepts and empirical data but also historical sketches on art national life and society along with poetic autobiographical reminiscences and personal anecdotes Ultimately the book calls for an adoption of liberal nationalism which is commensurate with democratic order and for a more ecumenical understanding of artistic visions that does not discriminate on the grounds of one s place of origin

Artistic Citizenship Mary Schmidt Campbell, Randy Martin, 2006 Artistic Citizenship asks the question how do people in the creative arts prepare for and participate in civic life This volume developed at NYU s Tisch School identifies the question of artistic citizenship to explore civic identity the role of the artist in social and cultural terms With contributions from many connected to the Tisch School including novelist E L Doctorow performance artist Karen Finley theatre guru Richard Schechner and cultural theorist Ella Shohat this book is indispensable to anyone involved in arts education or the creation of public policy for the arts

The A to Z of Slovenia Leopoldina Plut-Pregelj, Carole Rogel, 2010-05-20 For more than 1 300 years Slovenes had lived in Eastern Europe without having a separate Slovene state but in December of 1990 they voted for independence or put more appropriately for disassociation from Yugoslavia Unfortunately Slovenia had to fight for its independence which it did not fully achieve until 1995 after its bloody disintegration with Yugoslavia was over Since independence however Slovenia has prospered its economy is far ahead of other former communist states and in 2004 Slovenia acceded to both NATO and the European Union the only republic of former Yugoslavia to do so The A to Z of Slovenia covers the history of Slovenia and its struggle to gain independence from communism This is done through a detailed chronology an introduction appendixes a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on some of the more significant persons places and events institutions and organizations and political economic social cultural and religious facets

Democracy, Law and the Modernist Avant-Gardes Sascha Bru, 2009-10-20 This is the first book to look at the ties between European modernism and democracy in a cross cultural manner Focusing on the continental avant gardes of the nineteen tens and twenties Sascha Bru s original and provocative book fundamentally revises our understanding of modernism s cultural and political history Bru brings together a wide range of European experimental writers and provides detailed analyses of Italian futurist F T Marinetti German Dadaist Richard Huelsenbeck and Belgian expressionist Paul van Ostaïjen Bru locates these writers within their exceptional democratic context and demonstrates how the modernist avant garde during the First World War and the upheavals that followed found itself caught up in a series of states of exception In such states legal democratic institutions were bracketed and set aside and literature as an autonomous realm was temporarily suspended Faced with extreme forms of politicisation avant gardists throughout Europe tried to safeguard literature s autonomy in a variety of ways These included turning politics and law into genuinely artistic materials and producing a repertoire of alternatives to existent frameworks of democracy Against assertions that anti art avant garde gestures were meant to overcome art s autonomy and approximate the condition of politics Bru shows that European avant gardists may well have been one of the staunchest defenders of art s sovereignty in modern times Key Features Facilitates dialogue between Anglo American and European modernist studies Presents new interpretations of Berlin Dada futurism and expressionism and brings an innovative historical framework with which to analyse continental modernism Provides an original perspective on modernist writing and theory during the first decades of the foregoing century Offers in the

introductory chapter a survey of ways in which to relate experimental writing to politics Signs, Solidarities, & Sociology Blasco José Sobrinho, 2001-07-17 Signs Solidarities Sociology addresses the formation and fragmentation of identity in today's postmodern world Informed by the conceptual convergence in the theories of Durkheim Peirce Mead and Lacan this book surveys the range of twentieth century sociology to deconstruct those favored nostrums of subjective meaning personal power and autonomous selfhood that comprise its semantics of agency Revealed beneath this semantic screen is the triad of pragmatic codes premodern affiliation modern calibration and postmodern globalization that govern the social construction of the self While the ill comprehended confluence of these three signification codes in the present world situation can indeed fragment personal identity their formal structural linkages as shown in this book may inform a truly postmodern globally applicable science of culture Civilization and the Human Subject John Mandalios, 1999-09-08 Recent debates have highlighted the importance of the self to a better understanding of the nature of culture and its relation to power In his new book John Mandalios incorporates the current postmodern debate on these issues with a deeper philosophical exploration of identity and cultural formation and the dynamics of social power underlying them He takes up identity formation within an analysis of the historical social political religious and psychoanalytical dimensions of civilized life that can be traced back to the classical world Questions ordinarily associated with the postmodern condition _otherness fragmentation power the situated self disciplinary practices and multiplicity_ are related to the problematic of human subjectivity and how civilized modes of conduct of the self cannot simply be explained by national cultural traditions Mandalios argues that self identity is not reducible to the effects of globalization or power or any one single collective identity representation The self is enveloped within a complex which requires a civilization analytic perspective into the world and the inner life Afterwards Andrew Zawacki, 1999 An instructive essay by poet and critic Ales Debeljak opens this introduction to the rich post World War II literary tradition of Slovenia a nation that emerged from the former Yugoslavia in 1991 following a brief conflict that prefigured the Balkan conflicts that persist to this day Part of one empire or another for centuries Slovenia was denied a cultural identity of its own Its writers however insisted on writing in their native tongue thus keeping Slovenian culture alive in the written word Contributors include Edvard Kocbek Tomaz Salamun Drago Jancar Berta Bojetu Boeta and others

Artistic Citizenship John W. Graham, Wendy C. Havlick, 1994-06-06 First published in 1994 Mission Statements A Guide to the Corporate and Nonprofit Sectors offers the most exciting opportunities for advancing the study of organization direction in the four decades that it has been actively pursued Emotional Lives , Historical Dictionary of Slovenia Leopoldina Plut-Pregelj, Gregor Kranjc, Žarko Lazarevic, Carole Rogel, 2018-02-22 The expanded third edition of the Historical Dictionary of Slovenia covers personalities and events that have made a mark on Slovenia in the more than a decade since the last edition This includes new entries related to Slovenia's first 13 years as a member of NATO and the EU changing diplomatic relations with its neighbors and other global states and institutions a new crop of politicians who have upended the political status quo entries related to Slovenia's worst 21st century recession 2008-2013 nationwide protests against corruption and many other developments This third edition of Historical Dictionary of Slovenia contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 500 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Slovenia

Drawing on Art Dalia Judovitz, Marcel Duchamp, 2010 This volume explores the central importance of appropriation collaboration influence and play in French artist Marcel Duchamp's 1887-1968 work and in Dada and Surrealism in general to show how the concept of art itself became the critical fuel and springboard for questioning art's fundamental premises Duchamp was a French artist whose work is most often associated with the Dadaist and Surrealist movements The author maintains that rather than simply negating art Duchamp's readymades Duchamp's readymades are ordinary manufactured objects that the artist selected and modified as an antidote to what he called retinal art and later works including films and conceptual pieces demonstrating the impossibility of defining art in the first place Through his readymades Duchamp explicitly critiqued the commodification of art and inaugurated a profound shift from valuing art for its visual appearance to understanding the significance of its mode of public presentation

Alter Ego Guido Snel, 2004 Frank illuminating and poignant immigrant tales from twenty of Europe's writers artists politicians and scholars looking back at their roots their journeys and their divided loyalties

Provocateur Anthony Joseph Paul Cortese, 1999 Contending that the racial and ethnic hatred Americans so deplore in other countries is in fact latent in modern western society itself Cortese sociology Southern Methodist U critiques postmodern social arrangement based on gender race and ethnicity as manifested in advertising He picks as examples the hardest hitting and most timely print ads to demonstrate the various types of subtle messages He also presents a large and a small plan of attack that includes policy implications for advertising and a practical guide to combating symbolic racism on the individual level Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
