Revisiting Marxism A Bourgeois Reassessment:

Revisiting Marxism Tibor R. Machan, 2006 For some time there has been no direct critique of Marx's ideas from those who value the position he most harshly attacked bourgeois capitalism. The few who did criticize Marx were economists such as Thomas Sowell, Eugen Böhm-Bawerk and Ludwig von Mises. Others attacked Marx's ideas but did not actually defend the concept of capitalism. In 1987, shortly before the fall of the Soviet Union, David Conway published his Farewell to Marx which offered a philosophical critique of Marx. This work however developed in part from a position that uncritically embraces economism or what the author calls the homo economicus conception of human life. In Revisiting Marxism Tibor Machan contrasts Marx's historicist collectivism with a neo-Aristotelian individualism as presented by among others David L. Norton and Ayn Rand. It criticizes Marxism based on this position, the one he most directly disparaged. Also included in this volume is an exchange between the author and the late Sidney Hook, perhaps the most sympathetic social democratic champion of Marx's ideas.

American Anarchism Steve J. Shone, 2013-09-05 American Anarchism by Steve J. Shone is a work of political theory and history that focuses on nineteenth century American Anarchism together with two European anarchists who influenced some of the Americans. The nine thinkers discussed are Alexander Berkman, Voltairine de Cleyre, Samuel Fielden, Luigi Galleani, Peter Kropotkin, Lucy Parsons, Max Stirner, William Graham Sumner and Benjamin Tucker. Shone emphasizes the value of using ideas from nineteenth century American Anarchism to solve contemporary political problems.

Art, Politics and Society in Britain (1880-1914) Trevor Harris, 2009-10-02 The oldest word in politics is new. The oldest word in the writing of history may well be modern. It is without doubt one of the most overworked adjectives in the English language. But the indeterminacy is perhaps just another way of saying that the difficulties raised are of a kind which simply will not go away. This collection of eight essays on aspects of modernity and modernism takes up the challenge of examining the complex but fascinating convergence of aesthetics, politics and a quasi-spiritual dimension which is perhaps typical of British modernist thinking about modernity. This may have produced figures whom we now dismiss as eccentrics or aesthetes, it none the less produced figures whom many still think of as in some sense embodying the national identity, what after all could be more English than a William Morris wallpaper design. Rather than towards socialism in any of its scientific guises, what the British modernist approach to modernity may have been pushing at was yet another mutation of liberalism, a libertarian-humanitarian hybrid in which indigenous radical and Evangelical legacies keep scientific socialism in check, where fellowship and domesticity edge out a larger scale more abstract fraternity and where citoyenneté or civisme give way to what George Orwell was later to define simply as decency.

The Chinese Reassessment of Socialism, 1976-1992 Yan Sun, 1995-08-21 A momentous debate has been unfolding in China over the last fifteen years, only intermittently in public view.

concerning the merits of socialism as a philosophy of social justice and as a program for national development Just as Deng Xiaoping's better advertised experiment with market based reforms has challenged Marxist Leninist dogma on economic policy the years since the death of Mao Zedong have seen a profound reexamination of a more basic question to what extent are the root problems of the system due to Chinese socialism and Marxism generally Here Yan Sun gathers a remarkable group of primary materials drawn from an unusual range of sources to present the most systematic and comprehensive study of post Mao reappraisal of China's socialist theory and practice Rejecting an assumption often made in the West that Chinese socialist thought has little bearing on politics and policymaking Sun takes the arguments of the post Mao era seriously on their own terms She identifies the major factions in the debate reveals the interplay among official and unofficial forces and charts the development of the debate from an initially parochial concern with problems raised by Chinese practice to a grand critique of the theory of socialism itself She concludes with an enlightening comparison of the reassessments undertaken by Deng Xiaoping with those of Gorbachev linking them to the divergent outcomes of reform and revolution in their respective countries

Choice, 2006 Rethinking Marxist Approaches to Transition Onur Acaroglu, 2020-09-25 In Rethinking Marxist Theories of Transition Onur Acaroglu traces the concept of transition across the tracts of Classical and Western Marxism Rarely directly invoked transition between different societies appears as an imminent social reality and a useful conceptual tool for critical social theory Transitions as qualitative shifts between societies are often considered as eventual historical stages or effaced altogether Theorising transition in a new direction Onur Acaroglu elaborates a theory of temporal dislocation Considering transition through a framework of out of joint temporalities the notion comes through as an undervalued tendency in social reproduction
