scholars believe that China's nationality policy like that of other socialist states imitated the Soviet nationality model a system which has been termed an affirmative action empire This book offers two contributions to the literature which run counter to this convention First it argues that the People's Republic of China PRC and the Soviet Union USSR were different while the PRC was aimed to build an ideal typical nation state the USSR was an open union of nation states that was only temporarily confined to a physical territory Second while scholars who have noted this difference attribute it to contextual factors such as ethnic structure geopolitical status and Russia's intervention into the Chinese Revolution this book contends that context shaped the Sino Soviet difference yet it did not determine it Rather there was significant leeway between the implications of the contextual factors and what the policy designers ultimately established This book probes who held agency and how these individuals bridged this gap

Philosophy, Society and the Cunning of History in Eastern Europe Costica Bradatan, 2013-09-13 Philosophy Society and the Cunning of History in Eastern Europe charts the intellectual landscape of twentieth century East Central Europe under the unifying theme of precariousness as a mode of historical existence Caught between empires often marked by catastrophic historic events and grand political failures the countries of East Central Europe have for a long time developed a certain intellectual self representation a culture that not only helps them make some sense of such misfortunes but also protects them somehow from a collapse into nihilism An interdisciplinary study of this sophisticated culture of survival and endurance has been long overdue Not only is it charming and worth studying in its own right but with the re integration of the new Europe into the old one and the emergence on the Western European intellectual scene of many authors from the East such a culture will also shape the European mind of the 21st century This volume decodes and explores this culture of precariousness from the complementary angles of philosophy political theory intellectual history and literary studies Expert contributors look at a wide range of topics from philosophical martyrdom to collective suffering to geographical fatalism and explore the works of key authors in the field including Cioran Ko akowski Kert sz Bauman and i ek This book was originally published as a special issue of Angelaki The Journal of the Theoretical Humanities
