poetics centred on the three way relationship between literature modern physics and avant garde art movements this book focuses on four key poets William Carlos Williams Mina Loy the Baroness Elsa von Freytag Loringhoven and Wallace Stevens whose lives crossed paths in 20th century New York This book explores how modernist art movements have shaped these writers thinking about physics in relation to their work demonstrating how science's new ideas about measurement and how to visualize material reality provoked innovative poetic forms and images From Einstein's visit to New York City in 1921 to the impact of the atomic bomb the author traces the flow of ideas about physics through culture linking the new physics with modern approaches to art found in Cubism Futurism Dada and Surrealism The Little Magazine Others and the Renovation of Modern American Poetry Suzanne W. Churchill, 2017-03-02 Suzanne Churchill's well researched and superbly crafted study is the first book length treatment of Others an important and neglected little magazine that served as a laboratory for modernist poetic experimentation In discussions of influential poets such as Mina Loy Marianne Moore and William Carlos Williams whose careers Others helped launch Churchill counters the notion of Modernism as aesthetically self isolating and socially disengaged Rather she traces a correspondence between formal innovation and social change in American modernist poetry and argues that this dimension of modernist formalism is lost when poems are studied in isolation Others provides a framework for reassessing the scope and significance of modernist formalism The little magazine not only anchors modernist poetry in a social context but also leads to new insight into major modernist texts Churchill's commitment to her subject's broad cultural contexts makes her book important for students and teachers of Modernism as well as for those working in the fields of American poetry and poetics gender studies queer theory periodical studies and cultural studies

Sublime Enjoyment Dennis A. Foster, 1997-11-13 Linking classic American literature to contemporary popular culture Sublime Enjoyment argues that the rational systems of normal social life are motivated and sustained by perverse desires This perversity arises from the failure of symbolic satisfactions love work success to make us happy and from our refusal to accept that failure Hoping to achieve satisfaction we respond ultimately to situations that evoke older more primary drives and their attendant emotions But while a conventional pervert knows exactly what to want the healthy pervert must find enjoyment inadvertently in the object of the sublime in duty and reason and in the obligations of a fun morality Examining the ways in which this inadvertence is represented in American literature and culture Dennis Foster identifies ways in which longings are linked to social forces

Pocahontas Robert S. Tilton, 1994-11-25 Centering around her legendary rescue of Smith from the brink of execution and her subsequent marriage to a white Jamestown colonist the Pocahontas convention developed into a source of national debate over such broad issues as miscegenation racial conflict and colonial expansion

Cross-Cultural Reckonings Blanche H. Gelfant, 1995-01-27 Blanche H Gelfant's book Cross Cultural Reckonings both demonstrates and questions the applicability of postmodern cultural and literary theories to realistic texts to fiction and autobiographies valued for their truth Drawing together an unusual combination of Russian American and Canadian writers the various essays of this book provide new and original perspectives upon the puzzling issues of national identity of historical change and continuity of gender and the integrity of literary genres the boundaries between text and context and the underlying if overlooked conflicts between the postmodern critic's skepticism and a writer's belief in the transcendence of art and truth To avoid the contingencies inherent in binary comparisons the essays in this book seek a triadic form analogous to the triptych or polyptych of the visual arts Multi faceted non linear and open ended such a form might allow the academic essay to recover a waywardness that traces back to Montaigne cited in prefatory notes and to the etymological meaning of the essay as an exagium or weighing as an act of reckoning A study at once elegant erudite and personal Cross Cultural Reckonings reckons with writers of different backgrounds and reputation in whom Gelfant discovers surprising affinities among them the Russian writers Lydia Chukovskaya Natalya Baranskaya and Alexander Solzhenitsyn Ethel Wilson a highly reputed Canadian writer the famous cross cultural figure Emma Goldman and established as well as new or rediscovered American writers such as Willa Cather Saul Bellow Arlene Heyman and Meridel Le Sueur These writers are discussed singly and in comparative essays each of which is discrete and self contained while all interconnect and reflect upon each other as exemplary demonstrations of cross cultural literary criticism and the deferred final judgment that results from a weighing and reweighing of books

William Carlos Williams Review, 2007 Black Chant Aldon Lynn Nielsen, 1997-01-13 A study of postmodernism and African American poets Melville's City Wyn

Kelley, 1996-07-26 She shows that images both from Melville and from popular sources of the time represented New York variously as Capital Labyrinth City of Man and City of God and she goes on to demonstrate that he resisted a generalizing or totalizing representation of the city by revealing its hybrid identity and giving voice to the poor the displaced and the racially excluded Modernism from Right to Left Alan Filreis, 1994-07-29 A study of relations between American radicalism and modernism in the 1930s focusing on Wallace Stevens Novel Arguments Richard Walsh, 1995-09-29 Novel arguments argues that innovative fiction by which is meant writing that has been variously labeled postmodern metafictional experimental extends our ways of thinking about the world and rejects the critical consensus that under the rubrics of postmodernism and metafiction homogenizes this fiction as autonomous and self absorbed Play self consciousness and immanence supposed symptoms of innovative fiction s autonomy are here reconsidered as integral to its means of engagement The book advances a concept of the argument of fiction as a construct wedding structure and content into a highly evolved and expressive experimental form Close readings of five important innovative novels by Donald Barthelme Ishmael Reed Robert Coover Walter Abish and Kathy Acker show how they articulate matters of substance social engagement and ideological currency by virtue of the act of innovation Walsh deftly argues for a new understanding of fictional cognition at the theoretical level and in an act of great critical creativity discards altogether the flattening totalities of received postmodern formulations
