This book provides a much needed comparative approach to the history of cities by investigating the dissemination of cultural forms between cities of the Atlantic world. The contributors attend to the various forms and norms of cultural representation in Atlantic history examining a wealth of diverse topics such as the Portuguese Atlantic, the Spanish Empire, Guy Fawkes and the conspiratorial rhetoric of slaves, Albert Charles Wulffleff and the Parc Mus e of Dakar and the writings of Jane Austen, Alexis de Tocqueville, Benjamin Franklin and others. By interpreting Atlantic urban history through sustained attention to customs and representational forms, an international group of nine contributors demonstrate the power of culture in the making of Atlantic urban experience even as they acknowledge the harsh realities of economic history.
