Soussloff,2016-10-06 As one of the most important philosophers of the 20th century Michel Foucault s reputation today rests on his political philosophy in relation to the contemporary subject in a neo liberal and globalized society This book offers insight into the role of the arts in Foucault s thought as a means to better understanding his contribution to larger debates concerning contemporary existence Visual culture literary film and performance studies have all engaged with Foucauldian theories but a full examination of Foucault s significance for aesthetic discourse has been lacking until now This book argues that Foucault s particular approach to philosophy as a way of thinking the self through the work of art provides significant grounds for rethinking his impact today The volume moves across as many disciplinary boundaries as Foucault himself did demonstrating the value of Foucault s approach to aesthetic discourse for our understanding of how the arts and humanities reflect upon contemporary existence in a globalized society     New Dimensions in Photo Processes Laura Blacklow,2018-05-04 New Dimensions in Photo Processes invites artists in all visual media to discover contemporary approaches to historical techniques Painters printmakers and photographers alike will find value in this practical book as these processes require little to no knowledge of photography digital means or chemistry Easy to use in a studio or lab this edition highlights innovative work by internationally respected artists such as Robert Rauschenberg Chuck Close Mike and Doug Starn and Emmet Gowin In addition to including new sun printing techniques such as salted paper and lumen printing this book has been updated throughout from pinhole camera and digital methods of making color separations and contact negatives to making water color pigments photo sensitive and more With step by step instructions and clear safety precautions New Dimensions in Photo Processes will teach you how to Reproduce original photographic art collages and drawings on paper fabric metal and other unusual surfaces Safely mix chemicals and apply antique light sensitive emulsions by hand Create imagery in and out of the traditional darkroom and digital studio Relocate photo imagery and make prints from real objects photocopies and pictures from magazines and newspapers as well as from your digital files and black and white negatives Alter black and white photographs smart phone images and digital prints     Photography: A Critical Introduction Liz Wells,2015-01-30 Photography A Critical Introduction was the first introductory textbook to examine key debates in photographic theory and place them in their social and political contexts and is now established as one of the leading textbooks in its field Written especially for students in higher education and for introductory college courses this fully revised edition provides a coherent introduction to the nature of photographic seeing Individual chapters cover Key debates in photographic theory and history Documentary photography and photojournalism Personal and popular photography Photography and the human body Photography and commodity culture Photography as art This revised and updated fifth edition includes New case studies on topics such as materialism and embodiment the commodification of human experience and an extended discussion of

landscape as genre 98 photographs and images featuring work from Bill Brandt Susan Derges Rineke Dijkstra Fran Herbello Hannah Hoch Karen Knorr Dorothea Lange Chrystel Lebas Susan Meiselas Lee Miller Martin Parr Ingrid Pollard Jacob Riis Alexander Rodchenko Andres Serrano Cindy Sherman and Jeff Wall Fully updated resource information including guides to public archives and useful websites A full glossary of terms and a comprehensive bibliography Contributors Michelle Henning Patricia Holland Derrick Price Anandi Ramamurthy and Liz Wells      Photography Theory James Elkins,2013-10-18 Photography Theory presents forty of the world's most active art historians and theorists including Victor Burgin Joel Snyder Rosalind Krauss Alan Trachtenberg Geoffrey Batchen Carol Squiers Margaret Iversen and Abigail Solomon Godeau in animated debate on the nature of photography Photography has been around for nearly two centuries but we are no closer to understanding what it is For some people a photograph is an optically accurate impression of the world for others it is mainly a way of remembering people and places Some view it as a sign of bourgeois life a kind of addiction of the middle class whilst others see it as a troublesome interloper that has confused people's ideas of reality and fine art to the point that they have difficulty even defining what a photograph is For some the whole question of finding photography's nature is itself misguided from the beginning This provocative second volume in the Routledge The Art Seminar series presents not one but many answers to the question what makes a photograph a photograph      The Life and Photography of Doris Ulmann Philip Walker Jacobs,2014-10-17 Doris Ulmann 1882-1934 was one of the foremost photographers of the twentieth century yet until now there has never been a biography of this fascinating gifted artist Born into a New York Jewish family with a tradition of service Ulmann sought to portray and document individuals from various groups that she feared would vanish from American life In the last eighteen years of her life Ulmann created over 10 000 photographs and illustrated five books including Roll Jordan Roll and Handicrafts of the Southern Highlands Inspired by the paintings of the European old masters and by the photographs of Hill and Adamson and Clarence White Ulmann produced unique and substantial portrait studies Working in her Park Avenue studio and traveling throughout the east coast Appalachia and the deep South she carefully studied and photographed the faces of urban intellectuals as well as rural peoples Her subjects included Albert Einstein Robert Frost African American basket weavers from South Carolina and Kentucky mountain musicians Relying on newly discovered letters documents and photographs many published here for the first time Philip Jacobs's richly illustrated biography secures Ulmann's rightful place in the history of American photography      Photographs of the Past Bertrand Lavédrine,Jean-Paul Gandolfo,2009 Photographs of the Past Processes and Preservation provides a comprehensive introduction to the practice of photograph preservation bringing together more information on photographic processes than any other single source In recent years interest in old photographs has grown significantly among a broad public from collectors conservators and archivists to amateurs seeking to preserve precious family albums Although the medium of photography is barely 150 years old its relatively brief history has witnessed the birth of a wide range of photographic processes each of which poses unique conservation challenges Introductory chapters cover issues of terminology the rest of the book is divided into three parts positives negatives and conservation Each chapter focuses on a single process daguerreotypes albumen negatives black and white prints and so on providing an overview of its history and materials and tracing the evolution of its technology This book will serve as an irreplaceable reference work for conservators curators collectors dealers conservation students and photographers as well as those in the general public seeking information on preserving this ubiquitous form of cultural heritage
