Light Years offers the first major survey of the key artists of this period who used photography to new and inventive ends. Whereas some employed photographic images to create slide projections, photographic canvases and artists books, others integrated them into sculptural assemblages and multimedia installations. This book highlights the work of acclaimed international artists such as Vito Acconci, John Baldessari, Mel Bochner, Sol LeWitt, Bruce Nauman, Giuseppe Penone and Ed Ruscha. Matthew Witkovsky's essay provides the larger context for photography within conceptual art, a theme that is further elaborated in texts by Mark Godfrey, Anne Rorimer and Joshua Shannon. An essay by Robin Kelsey focuses on the pioneering work of John Baldessari in which he explored the element of chance, and an essay by Giuliano Sergio illuminates the lesser known work of Arte Povera, an Italian movement that sought to dismantle established conventions in both the making and presentation of art.

Jeff Wall: Complete Edition Jeff Wall, Thierry De Duve, 2009. A complete overview of the pioneering artist who brought photography to contemporary art.

Double Vision Stan Douglas, Douglas Gordon, 2000. Rabble Rouser for Peace is the first book to tell the full story of how a boy from South Africa's poverty stricken black townships became one of the world's best known religious figures, a moral icon to those who work for peace and justice everywhere. Drawn from 30 years of the author's first hand contact with Desmond Tutu, this is not only a vivid character study of a public figure with a unique capacity to communicate warmth, humour and compassion, it is also a rich account of his dynamic place in history. The story of Desmond Tutu's life tells a crucial part of South Africa's history and its movement from Apartheid towards peace, but it also follows the growth of one of the best loved and globally most recognised men of our time.
