The Unknown Schubert Lorraine Byrne Bodley, 2017-07-05 Franz Schubert 1797 1828 is now rightly recognized as one of the greatest and most original composers of the nineteenth century His keen understanding of poetry and his uncanny ability to translate his profound understanding of human nature into remarkably balanced compositions marks him out from other contemporaries in the field of song Schubert was one of the first major composers to devote so much time to song and his awareness that this genre was not rated highly in the musical hierarchy did not deter him throughout a short but resolute and hard working career from producing songs that invariably arrest attention and frequently strike a deeply poetic note Schubert did not emerge as a composer until after his death but during his short lifetime his genius flowered prolifically and diversely His reputation was first established among the aristocracy who took the art music of Vienna into their homes which became places of refuge from the musical mediocrity of popular performance More than any other composer Schubert steadily graced Viennese musical life with his songs piano music and chamber compositions Throughout his career he experimented constantly with technique and in his final years began experiments with form The resultant fascinating works were never performed in his lifetime and only in recent years have the nature of his experiments found scholarly favor In The Unknown Schubert contributors explore Schubert s radical modernity from a number of perspectives by examining both popular and neglected works Chapters by renowned scholars describe the historical context of his work its relation to the dominant artistic discourses of the early nineteenth century and Schubert s role in the paradigmatic shift to a new perception of song This valuable book seeks to bring Franz Schubert to life exploring his early years as a composer of opera his later years of ill health when he composed in the shadow of death and his efforts to reflect i

Derek Jarman Rowland Wymer, 2019-01-04 This book gives detailed and original critical readings of all eleven of Derek Jarman's feature length films arguing that he occupies a major and influential place in European and world cinema rather than merely being a cult figure It places particular emphasis on the importance of Renaissance art and literature for Jarman and emphasises his interest in Jungian psychology Wymer shows how Jarman used his films to take his audience with him on an inner journey in search of the self whilst remaining fully aware of the dangers of such a journey Making substantial use of Jarman's unpublished papers as well as all his published works Wymer argues that the films are orientated towards a much wider audience than is often supposed They are addressed to anyone of whatever gender or sexuality who is prepared to go on a journey in search of him or her self and to become Jarman's accomplice in the dream world of the soul

Perspectives on Early Islamic Mysticism Sara Svirij,2019-10-21 This monograph explores the original literary produce of Muslim mystics during the eighth tenth centuries with special attention to ninth century mystics such as al Tustar al Mu sib

al Kharr z al Junayd and in particular al ak m al Tirmidh Unlike other studies dealing with the so called Formative Period this book focuses on the extant writings of early mystics rather than on the later f compilations These early mystics articulated what would become a hallmark of Islamic mysticism a system built around the psychological tension between the self nafs and the heart qalb and how to overcome it Through their writings already at this early phase the versatility fluidity and maturity of Islamic mysticism become apparent This exploration thus reveals that mysticism in Islam emerged earlier than customarily acknowledged long before Islamic mysticism became generically known as fism The central figure of this book is al ak m al Tirmidh whose teaching and inner world focus on themes such as polarity the training of the self the opening of the heart the Friends of God al awliy dreams and visions divine language mystical exegesis and more This book thus offers a fuller picture than hitherto presented of the versatility of themes processes images practices terminology and thought models during this early period The volume will be a key resource for scholars and students interested in the study of religion f studies Late Antiquity and Medieval Islam      The Neuroscience of Religious Experience Patrick McNamara,2009-11-06 Aimed at researchers and graduate students this book describes how brain processes support religious expression and provides a current account of the neuroscience of religion      Utopias and Architecture Nathaniel Coleman,2007-05-07 Utopian thought though commonly characterized as projecting a future without a past depends on golden models for re invention of what is Through a detailed and innovative re assessment of the work of three architects who sought to represent a utopian content in their work and a consideration of the thoughts of a range of leading writers Coleman offers the reader a unique perspective of idealism in architectural design With unparalleled depth and focus of vision on the work of Le Corbusier Louis I Kahn and Aldo van Eyck this book persuasively challenges predominant assumptions in current architectural discourse forging a new approach to the invention of welcoming built environments and transcending the limitations of both the postmodern and hyper modern stance and orthodox modernist architecture      The Cognitive Neuroscience of Religious Experience Patrick McNamara,2022-06-09 An account of the neuroscience of religious experiences for those interested in scientific approaches to religion      ,      Longing For Paradise Tracy Charles Varnell,2020-08-18 With a confident grin on his face the arrogant king finally took notice of us quietly sitting in our mobile cages He was a middle aged man not particularly handsome but he bore the mark of someone who was very confident in himself and his right to rule He studied the six of us for a moment then loudly said with a smirk on his face I guess you Disians and Kertas are not so invincible after all Everyone has their weakness and your foolish compassion for others was your final undoing What a terrible shame to come all this way in your missions only to fail and become my prisoners You each must be extremely disappointed which to me is the very best part of all Now You have been found guilty of being spies and traitors to the Tolan emperor so I will now pass sentence on each one of you But before I do that I have a surprise for you that I simply am going to love I have chosen one of you to die this day When he said that I aggressively surged against my chains to try and find a way out of my cage I turned on the Gift of Speed but to no avail the chains and locks were well design and unbreakable Each of the Disian team members did the same as we frantically fought against our unyielding restraints Finally the mission team gave up and we all just glared up at him The audience broke out into applause and the king laughed with absolute delight saying with dark humor That was a wonderful display of your lightning warfare capabilities I am so glad I got to witness it but now we know that you are not without weaknesses I also have chosen the individual whom will die this day and I think this person will be the most painful for the mission team members to watch The middle aged woman the one you call Karoon shall be the one to lose her life Talena flew against the bars of her cage and shouted at the king Please let her live and take me instead I promise I will not resist if you will just allow me to be the one She has not done any of the things you accuse the mission team of Let her live please please don t do this The rest of us also began repeatedly shouting to him in our own desperate attempts to also take her place      Divine Love in Islamic Mysticism Binyamin

Abrahamov,2013-10-28 The two theories of divine love that are examined in this book have their foundations in Greek Jewish Christian and Muslim ideas Al Ghaz l twelfth century was influenced mainly by Plato and Ibn Sina s teachings while al Dabb gh thirteenth century who accepted some Ghaz l an notions developed a theory of divine love that can be traced back to Neoplatonism Both scholars created complete theories of divine love that include definitions of love its causes and signs the ways to love God God s love for man and kinds of love The book will interest students of theology philosophy and mysticism in general and students of Islam in particular      Forever Paul David Tripp,2011-10-04 Is this all you re living for For years pastor Paul Tripp understood we were hardwired for forever But he didn t understand that it was more than a valuable insight It is a practical tool to help us face the disappointment of everyday life Now he knows and he can help you discover how to survive and thrive in the middle of your story with the final chapter of heaven in view Instead of embracing the world s motto you only live once follow Tripp as he unpacks the biblical truth of the world as a broken place longing for a second chance And come alive as you discover the meaning and redemption all this brokenness can bring to your life today With practical insights on how eternity impacts your relationships your job your kids and your deepest struggles you ll be encouraged to relax into the eternal story God is writing for you You really are hardwired for eternity and this book reveals how you can begin to view all that happens in your life as preparation for Forever
