The Architecture of the Christian Holy Land Kathryn Blair Moore,2017-02-27 In the absence of the bodies of Christ and Mary architecture took on a special representational role during the Christian Middle Ages marking out sites associated with the bodily presence of the dominant figures of the religion Throughout this period buildings were reinterpreted in relation to the mediating role of textual and pictorial representations that shaped the pilgrimage experience across expansive geographies In this study Kathryn Blair Moore challenges fundamental ideas within architectural history regarding the origins and significance of European recreations of buildings in Jerusalem Bethlehem and Nazareth From these conceptual foundations she traces and re interprets the significance of the architecture of the Holy Land within changing religious and political contexts from the First Crusade and the emergence of the Franciscan Custody of the Holy Land to the anti Islamic crusade movements of the Renaissance as well as the Reformation The Churches of the Crusader Kingdom of Jerusalem: A Corpus: Volume 2, L-Z (excluding Tyre) Denys Pringle,1993 This is the second of a series of four volumes that are intended to present a complete corpus of all the church buildings of both the western and the oriental rites rebuilt or simply in use in the Crusader Kingdom of Jerusalem between the capture of Jerusalem for the First Crusade in 1099 and the loss of Acre in 1291 This volume completes the general topographical coverage begun in volume I and will be followed by a third volume dealing specifically with the major cities of Jerusalem Acre and Tyre which are excluded from the preceding volumes The project of which this series represents the final definitive publication has been sponsored by the British School of Archaeology in Jerusalem On completion the corpus will contain a topographical listing of all the 400 or more church buildings of the Kingdom that are attested by documentary or surviving archaeological evidence and individual descriptions and discussion of them in terms of their identification building history and architecture Some of the buildings have been published before but many others are published here for the first time Selling Jerusalem Annabel Jane

Wharton,2006-08-15 Selling Jerusalem offers an introduction to the explosive combination of piety and capital at work in religious objects and global politics It is sure to interest students and scholars of art history economic history popular culture religion and architecture Jerusalem, 1000-1400 Barbara Drake Boehm ,Melanie Holcomb,2016-09-14 Medieval Jerusalem was a vibrant international center home to multiple cultures faiths and languages Harmonious and dissonant voices from many lands including Persians Turks Greeks Syrians Armenians Georgians Copts Ethiopians Indians and Europeans passed in the narrow streets of a city not much larger than midtown Manhattan Patrons artists pilgrims poets and scholars from Christian Jewish and Islamic traditions focused their attention on the Holy City endowing and enriching its sacred buildings creating luxury goods for its residents and praising its merits This artistic fertility was particularly in evidence between the eleventh and fourteenth centuries notwithstanding often devastating circumstances from the earthquake of 1033 to the fierce battles of the Crusades So strong a magnet was Jerusalem that it drew out the creative imagination of even those separated from it by great distance from as far north as Scandinavia to as far east as present day China This publication is the first to define these four centuries as a singularly creative moment in a singularly complex city Through absorbing essays and incisive discussions of nearly 200 works of art Jerusalem 1000 1400 Every People Under Heaven explores not only the meaning of the city to its many faiths and its importance as a destination for tourists and pilgrims but also the aesthetic strands that enhanced and enlivened the medieval city that served as the crossroads of the known world Crusaders, Cathars and the Holy Places Bernard Hamilton,2018-12-17 First published in 1999 this volume emerged as part of the Collected Studies series and features studies authored by Bernard Hamilton over a period of twenty years all of which deal with relations between Western Europe and the neighbouring civilizations in the Eastern Mediterranean during the 12th and 13th centuries The first set examines the kind of society which developed in the Crusader States including three essays on women and Queens and the attitude of western settlers to the Byzantine Empire eastern Christian churches and the Islamic world Further essays deal with the impact on Western Europe of Christian dualist heresy which had its roots in the Balkans and Armenia and perhaps ultimately in Persia The final group centres around the Holy Places whose liberation was the raison d etre of the crusade movement They examine how the Western Church administered these shrines the way in which they shaped western piety during the time of crusader rule and how the cult of the Holy Places developed in the Western Church after they had been recaptured by Islam Each article s original citation information is included along with the original page numbers and pagination Black Saints in Early Modern Global Catholicism Erin Kathleen Rowe,2019-12-12 This is the untold story of how black saints and the slaves who venerated them transformed the early modern church It speaks to race the Atlantic slave trade and global Christianity and provides new ways of thinking about blackness holiness and cultural authority The Proceedings Against the Templars in the British Isles ,2018-04-20 In October 1307 all the brothers of the military religious Order of the Temple in France were arrested on the instructions of King Philip IV and charged with heresy In November Pope Clement V instructed King Edward II of England to do likewise This volume provide the first full translation of the four surviving texts of the trial proceedings that followed in Britain and Ireland complementing the edition published in volume 1 The trial of the Templars was the first major heresy trial in the British Isles and the proceedings reveal the Episcopate s attempts to deal with this unprecedented situation the varying procedures followed in different countries and how testimonies were recorded and summarised for the Church Councils which eventually decided the fate of the Order of the Temple The testimonies given during the trial contain a wealth of information about religious beliefs among the lay population of the British Isles both the Templars and outsiders who gave evidence during the trial national and international mobility of lay religious the social function of the order of the Temple in the British Isles and its relations with society at large and the organisation and operations of the Order of the Temple at a local national and international level Detailed introductions to each volume describe the manuscripts and how the material was compiled and arranged and discuss the course of the proceedings and the value of the evidence they contain Appendices in this volume also list the names of all the Templars mentioned during the proceedings Templar houses and the locations of the proceedings in London

Making Copies in Early Modern Times Maddalena Bellavitis,2025-10-20 This book explores new approaches to the study of the complex

relation between models and copies Excellent studies dedicated to copies continue to be published focusing mainly on works of art and techniques but the research should be extended in directions that have remained virtually unexplored until now considering new perspectives and contexts This volume intends to push the boundaries of current research on copies proposing new points of view and considering new relations between models and their reproductions Contributors include R Arnheim E Vandeweghe F Gallaire B Leshem C Naya P Alvarez S Suykens S Rose D Boerio M Rijks M Bellavitis B Anderson

Guthrie E Giffin and S Abplanalp Forms of the Goddess Lajj? Gaur? in Indian Art Carol Radcliffe Bolon, 2010-11-01
 Striking images of a certain Indian goddess have been variously referred to as the shameless woman the nude squatting goddess the mother goddess or because her historical name remains unknown more than twenty five names among them Aditi Lajj Gaur Renuk and Nagna Kabambdha The best known images of this goddess have a female torso and a lotus flower in place of a head while her legs are bent up at the knees and drawn up to each side in a position that has been described as one of giving birth or self display This type of goddess figure is explained as part of a long highly sophisticated tradition of expressing fertility and well being in Indian art The artists creating images of Lajj Gaur drew on various ancient symbols of fortune fertility and life force to communicate her power through their rich heritage of meanings As these historical religious symbols and images were constantly reused and reincorporated they formed a new and enriched religious context In the process of recycling they became empowered cultural metaphors visual morphemes in the language of Indian art Because there are no texts to explain the figure the study proceeds from the basis of the objects to derive their meaning Carol Bolon charts the changes in the goddess s form over a period of more than four centuries including its possible adoption from tribal worship into Hindu temples and brings a new appreciation of Lajj Gaur s rich symbolic meanings and cultural context

Translating the Relics of St James Antón M. Pazos, 2016-08-05 Analysing the narration of the translatio of the body of Saint James from Palestine to Santiago de Compostela and its impact on the historical and biblical construction of Jacobean pilgrimages this book presents an interdisciplinary approach to the two cities at the centre of the legend Jerusalem and Compostela Using a range of political anthropological historical and sociological approaches the contributors consider archaeological research into Palestine in the early centuries and explore the traditions iconography and literary and social impact of the translatio on the current reality of pilgrimages to Compostela Envisioning Others: Race, Color, and the Visual in Iberia and Latin America , 2015-10-05 Envisioning Others offers a multidisciplinary view of the relationship between race and visual culture in the Spanish and Portuguese speaking world from the kingdoms of Spain and Portugal to colonial Peru and Colombia post Independence Mexico and the pre Emancipation United States Contributed by specialists in Latin American and Iberian art history literature history and cultural studies its ten chapters take a transnational view of what race meant and how visual culture supported and shaped this meaning within the Ibero American sphere from the late Middle Ages to the modern era Case studies and regionally focused essays are balanced by historiographical and theoretical offerings for a fresh perspective that challenges the reader to discern broad intersections of race color and the visual throughout the Iberian world Contributors are Beatriz Balanta Charlene Villase or Black Larissa Brewer Garc a Ananda Cohen Suarez Elisa Foster Grace Harpster Ilona Katzew Matilde Mateo Mey Yen Moriuchi and Erin Kathleen Rowe
