challenging parish and diocesan leadership to step up and in spite of the cost lead a transformation of the culture of their organizations from the foreword by FR JAMES MALLON author of Divine Renovation Bringing Your Parish from Maintenance to Mission Ministry in Tears Rev. Benjamin A Vima, Rev. Dasan V Vima, 2015-12-02 In this book the two priest brothers portray the tears they shed in priestly ministry not merely to ventilate their emotional outbursts or confessions to their friends kith and kins and even their so called enemies but most of all to celebrate those tears as part of the blessing that has come to strengthen their union with the Lord with the church and certainly with their lifelong neighbors The kind of tears their eyes showered were those of gratitude joy and sorrow Their discussion also would bring home to every good willed people how the foreign born priests who serve the church in different continents not to be considered as mere international priests in a modern business term rather to be esteemed as the true missionaries sent by the Lord for the impending purpose of new evangelization Ultimately their dream in this dialogical venture is to bring their readers especially their international fellow missionary priests closer to Jesus the one they love the most and to the church his beloved spouse Ministry in the Anglican Tradition John L. Kater, 2025-09-04 This book offers a global perspective on how Anglican ministry evolved throughout a century marked by radical upheavals and dramatic changes in theological social and political perspectives That history begins with the end of the Victorian era when Anglicanism had spread around the world but was deeply enmeshed with colonialism and it was assumed that it was shaped and defined by its North Atlantic history Kater explores how the Anglican Way became rooted in widely different contexts and identifies the many pressures and movements that challenged that history including two world wars a global Depression anti colonialism and the struggles against the many forms of oppression and discrimination that marked the century This book is the story of how Anglican ministry has been broadened and deepened by its constantly growing diversity even as that diversity has brought new challenges Escape to be Free in Pursuit of Luck Tom Krieser, 2014-05 This is a life story of a Hungarian refugee born in Slovakia in 1938 amidst the beginning of World War II Parents were a Jewish father and a Catholic mother Following the end of WWII the Krieser family moved to Hungary and Tom escaped directly following the Hungarian Revolution against Soviet Russia which was crushed by the Red Army Arriving in Canada with nothing but a diary a birth certificate and a determination to succeed Tom was lucky enough to meet up with the Sheehan family who helped to determine much of Tom s future The Sheehans helped Tom attend and successfully graduate in engineering from St FX University It was in the town of Saint John New Brunswick Canada that Tom met his wife to be Jane O Leary They married in 1960 and had two children Paul and Mark in 1961 and 1963 respectively growing up in Montreal Canada Tom s career commenced as a young engineer but over the years he eventually was elevated to become the president and CEO of one of Canada s best recognized pulp and paper machinery manufacturing enterprises with up to five hundred employees Surrounded by a great team of professionals and many great customers in a dynamic competitive yet surprisingly friendly business environment the company became known for its research and

Called Out of Darkness Into Marvelous Light Jeremy Bonner, 2009-01-23 In the conflicted world that is today s Episcopal Church the diocese of Pittsburgh stands both as a symbol of dissent and schism to the liberal majority within the American Church and as a beacon of light and hope to conservative Anglicans across the United States Set in the unlikely surroundings of America s Rust Belt Pittsburgh s Episcopalians have over the past half century undergone a dramatic reordering of priorities to embrace a novel though hardly unprecedented vision of Anglican confessionalism Called out of Darkness into Marvelous

Light traces the development of an Anglican presence in western Pennsylvania from the missionary activity of the late eighteenth century through the triumphs of post Civil War Anglo Catholicism and the first stirrings of the Social Gospel to the unprecedented religious revival of the 1950s Championed by such men as Bishop Austin Pardue and Samuel Moor Shoemaker the founder of the Pittsburgh Experiment a prayer centered spirituality developed in the Pittsburgh diocese and brought a generation of active evangelicals to the region during the 1960s and 1970s The founding of Trinity Episcopal School for Ministry in the mid 1970s consolidated the evangelical presence in the diocese and provoked a commitment to spiritual renewal that sat uneasily with many in the wider Episcopal Church Grounded in local research this study seeks to explore the process by which Pittsburgh acquired its present evangelical identity and to reveal the increasingly intricate web of relationships that it now enjoys beyond America s borders The New Evangelization Steven C.
