Carroll University of Victoria Canada This is such a timely collection of essays bringing together critical reflections on experiences of social action from across the globe This book is to be commended to the widest possible readership From the Preface by Emeritus Professor Marjorie Mayo Goldsmith's College

Grandmothers and Grandmothering: Creative and Critical Contemplations in Honour of our Women Elders Kathy Mantas, 2021-10-13 Today more and more grandmothers around the world are taking on varied responsibilities and many roles sometimes concurrently Consequently grandmothers continue to play as in the past an influential role not only in the lives of their grandchildren but also in our communities and in society more broadly Grandmothers and Grandmothering Creative and Critical Contemplations in Honour of our Women Elders as the title suggests seeks to pay homage to our grandmothers and their contributions to society As well it aims to explore the textured and complex phenomena of grandmothering from a range of disciplines and cultural perspectives Our hope is that this collection challenges preconceived notions of what it means to be a grandmother and provides insight into the multifaceted nature of grandmothering

Humour in Political Activism Majken Jul Sørensen, 2016-08-23 This book analyses how humour in political activism contributes to facilitating outreach mobilisation and the sustaining of cultures of resistance Drawing on examples of attention grabbing stunts from around the world Humour in Political Activism demonstrates how they succeed in turning relations of power upside down The ambiguity and unpredictability of humour Sørensen argues makes it difficult to respond to this form of political activism when it is performed in public Humorous political stunts can therefore challenge state power help influence changes in law and make significant contributions to the conversations about how societies should be organised The book also investigates the potential risks and limitations of using humour in nonviolent action and what makes humour unique compared with other forms of non humorous political activism

A Song to Save the Salish Sea Mark Pedelty, 2016-10-03 On the coast of Washington and British Columbia sit the misty forests and towering mountains of Cascadia With archipelagos surrounding its shores and tidal surges of the Salish Sea trundling through the interior this bioregion has long attracted loggers fishing fleets and land developers each generation seeking successively harder to reach resources as old growth stands salmon stocks and other natural endowments are depleted Alongside encroaching developers and industrialists is the presence of a rich environmental movement that has historically built community through musical activism From the Wobblies Little Red Songbook 1909 to Woody Guthrie's Columbia River Songs 1941 on through to the Raging Grannies formation in 1987 Cascadia's ecology has inspired legions of songwriters and musicians to advocate for preservation through music In this book Mark Pedelty explores Cascadia's vibrant eco musical community in order to understand how environmentalist music imagines and perhaps even creates a more sustainable conception of place Highlighting the music and environmental work of such various groups as Dana Lyons the Raging Grannies Idle No More Towers and Trees and Irthlingz among others Pedelty examines the divergent strategies musical organizational and technological used by each musical group to reach different audiences and to mobilize action He concludes with a discussion of applied ecomusicology considering ways this book might be of use to activists and musicians at the community level

Unsettling Activisms May Chazan, Melissa Baldwin, Patricia Evans, 2018-08-23 How and why do ordinary women and nonbinary people engage in various forms of social change work at different times in their lives What does it mean for these people to age as activists Unsettling Activisms brings together insights from academics and activists in an intergenerational conversation that addresses these questions Drawing on diverse lived experiences including contributions from leading feminist and age studies scholars this volume investigates how powerful interlocking forms of difference such as gender class race ability ethnicity sexuality and Indigeneity shape the meaning and experience of both ageing and activism This vital resource consists of eight analytic chapters and eight vibrant reflective pieces alongside poignant poetry and photography This collection is best suited for undergraduate and graduate courses in gender studies activist and social movement studies and age and ageing studies

The Raging Grannies Carole Roy, 2004 Women fought against slavery and offered shelter to hunted runaways demanded economic justice for the starving or working poor raised their voices when rights were trampled raised their fists when their children were murdered Women's collective acts of resistance have played and continue to play a vital but often unacknowledged role in humanizing social political and economic policies To death danger and oppression women have frequently responded in life affirming ways their contributions concealed in invisibility and silence for too long without stories of resistance and opposition But no more This is the tale of the Raging Grannies Their beginning and growth the invention of their identity the educational and bold potential of their activism the values expressed in their actions and songs and their impact on issues stereotypes media and people At a time when environmental destruction and war threatened when the growing chasm between poor and rich endangered justice a group of women stood up with courageous irreverence to denounce government lies corporate greed and short sightedness and in the process created a new cultural figure that challenged authority as well as stereotypes of women The Grannies distinctive approach is surprisingly popular and effective in sixteen years more than fifty groups of Raging Grannies exist across Canada in the United States and as far away as the UK Australia and Greece Greek Grannies call themselves Furies Their popularity reveals the power of creativity and humour which allow them to claim their space on the political scene refusing to be dismissed or ignored The Raging Grannies both records and celebrates this vibrant activism Bursting with adventures this is the tale of the Raging Grannies their beginning the invention of their identity and their impact on issues stereotypes media and people

Marching Dykes, Liberated Sluts, and Concerned Mothers Elizabeth Currans, 2017-10-15 From the Women in Black vigils and Dyke marches to the Million Mom March women have seized a dynamic role in early twenty first century protest The varied demonstrations whether about gender sexuality war or other issues share significant characteristics as space claiming performances in and of themselves beyond their place in any broader movement Elizabeth Currans blends feminist queer and critical race theory with performance studies political theory and geography to explore the outcomes and cultural relevance of public protest Drawing on observation interviews and archival and published sources Currans shows why and how women utilize public protest as a method of participating in contemporary political and cultural dialogues She also examines how groups treat public space as an important resource and explains the tactics different women protesters use to claim transform and hold it The result is a passionate and pertinent argument that women organized demonstrations can offer scholars a path to study the relationship of gender and public space in today's political culture

Grandmother Power Paola Gianturco, 2012-09-18 Whether fighting for the environment human rights education health or cultural preservation a new generation of activist grandmothers across the world are using their strength wisdom and hearts to make a difference An unheralded grandmothers movement is changing the world Insurgent grandmothers are using their power to fight for a better future for grandchildren everywhere And they are succeeding Grandmother Power profiles activist grandmothers in fifteen countries on five continents who tell their compelling stories in their own words Grandmothers in Canada Swaziland and South Africa collaborate to care for AIDS orphans Grandmothers in Senegal convince communities to abandon female genital mutilation Grandmothers in India become solar engineers and bring light to their villages while those in Peru Thailand and Laos sustain weaving traditions Grandmothers in Argentina teach children to love books and reading Other Argentine grandmothers continue their 40 year search for grandchildren who were kidnapped during the nation's military dictatorship Irish grandmothers teach children to sow seeds and cook with fresh local ingredients Filipino grandmothers demand justice for having been forced into sex slavery during World War II Guatemalan grandmothers operate a hotline and teach parenting In the Middle East Israeli grandmothers monitor checkpoints to prevent abuse and the UAE's most popular television show stars four animated grandmothers who are surprised by contemporary life Indigenous grandmothers from thirteen countries conduct healing rituals to bring peace to the world Gianturco's full color images and her heroines amazing tales make Grandmother Power an inspiration for everyone and it cements the power of grandmothers worldwide Please visit <http://globalgrandmotherpower.com> for additional information All author royalties will be donated to the Stephen Lewis Foundation's Grandmothers to Grandmothers campaign which provides grants to African grandmothers who are raising AIDS orphans
