Modern Hatreds Stuart J. Kaufman,2015-06-22 Ethnic conflict has been the driving force of wars all over the world yet it remains an enigma What is it about ethnicity that breaks countries apart and drives people to acts of savage violence against their lifelong neighbors Stuart Kaufman rejects the notion of permanent ancient hatreds as the answer Dissatisfied as well with a purely rationalist explanation he finds the roots of ethnic violence in myths and symbols the stories ethnic groups tell about who they are Ethnic wars Kaufman argues result from the politics of these myths and symbols appeals to flags and faded glories that aim to stir emotions rather than to address interests Popular hostility based on these myths impels groups to follow extremist leaders invoking such emotion laden ethnic symbols If ethnic domination becomes their goal ethnic war is the likely result Kaufman examines contemporary ethnic wars in the Caucasus and southeastern Europe Drawing on information from a variety of sources including visits to the regions and dozens of personal interviews he demonstrates that diplomacy and economic incentives are not enough to prevent or end ethnic wars The key to real conflict resolution is peacebuilding the often overlooked effort by nongovernmental organizations to change hostile attitudes at both the elite and the grassroots levels

Russian Minority Politics in Post-Soviet Latvia and Kyrgyzstan Michele E.

Commercio,2011-06-06 The collapse of the Soviet Union suddenly rendered ethnic Russians living in non Russian successor states like Latvia and Kyrgyzstan new minorities subject to dramatic political economic and social upheaval As elites in these new states implemented formal policies and condoned informal practices that privileged non Russians ethnic Russians had to react In Russian Minority Politics in Post Soviet Latvia and Kyrgyzstan Michele E Commercio draws on extensive field research including hundreds of personal interviews to analyze the responses of minority Russians to such policies and practices In particular she focuses on the role played by formal and informal institutions in the crystallization of Russian attitudes preferences and behaviors in these states Commercio asks why there is more out migration and less political mobilization among Russians in Kyrgyzstan a state that adopts policies that placate both Kyrgyz and Russians and less out migration and more political mobilization among Russians in Latvia a state that adopts policies that favor Latvians at the expense of Russians Challenging current thinking she suggests that the answer to this question lies in the power of informal networks After the fall of the Soviet Union the Communist party Komsomol youth organization and KGB networks were transformed into informal networks Russians in Kyrgyzstan were for various reasons isolated from such networks and this isolation restricted their access to the country s private sector making it difficult for them to create effective associations capable of representing their interests This resulted in a high level of Russian exit and the silencing of Russian voices In contrast Russians in Latvia were well connected to such networks which provided them with access to the country s private sector and facilitated the establishment of political parties and nongovernmental organizations that represented their interests This led to a low level of Russian exit and high level of Russian voice Commercio concludes that informal networks have a stronger influence on minority politics than formal institutions Islam in Post-Soviet Uzbekistan Johan Rasanayagam,2010-11-08 The Uzbekistan government has been criticized for its brutal suppression of its Muslim population This book which is based on the author s intimate acquaintance with the region and several years of ethnographic research is about how Muslims in this part of the world negotiate their religious practices despite the restraints of a stifling authoritarian regime Fascinatingly the book also shows how the restrictive atmosphere has actually helped shape the moral context of people s lives and how understandings of what it means to be a Muslim emerge creatively out of lived experience

The Russia Reader Adele Marie Barker,Bruce Grant,2010-07-12 An introduction to the history culture and politics of the worlds largest country from the earliest written accounts of the Russian people to today Between Magic and Rationality Vibeke Steffen,Steffen Jöhncke,Kirsten Marie Raahauge,2015-04-21 In Between Magic and Reality Vibeke Steffen Steffen J hncke and Kirsten Marie Raahauge bring together a diverse range of ethnographies that examine and explore the forms of reflection action and interaction that govern the ways different contemporary societies create and challenge the limits of reason The essays here visit an impressive array of settings including international scientific laboratories British spiritualist meetings Chinese villages Danish rehabilitation centers and Uzbeki homes where they encounter a diverse assortment of people whose beliefs and concerns exhibit an unusual but central contemporary dichotomy scientific reason versus spiritual paranormal belief Exploring the paradoxical way these modes of thought push against reason s boundaries they offer a deep look at the complex ways they coexist contest one another and are ultimately intertwined Vibeke Steffen is associate professor in the Department of Anthropology at the University of Copenhagen where Steffen J hncke is senior advisor Kirsten Marie Raahauge is associate professor in the School of Design at the Royal Danish Academy of Fine Arts in Copenhagen Explorations in Specialized Genres Vijay Kumar Bhatia,Maurizio Gotti,2006 Genre analysis has become firmly established as one of the most popular frameworks for the study of specialized genres in academic professional and institutional as well as other workplace contexts In recent years genre theory has also developed in the direction of a more comprehensive and powerful multi dimensional and multi perspectived framework to examine not only the text but also the context in a much more meaningful manner than had ever been done earlier The theoretical perspectives and the individual case studies of this volume testify to the wide range of methodological tools made available by genre theory enabling researchers to handle problems relating to the description of variations in language use Moreover the following relevant issues are addressed how are specialized genres constructed interpreted and exploited in the achievement of specific goals in highly specialized contexts Routledge Handbook of Islamic Ritual and Practice Oliver Leaman,2022-06-08 Ritual and practice are one of the most distinctive features of religion and they are linked with its central beliefs Islam is no exception here and this Handbook covers many aspects of those beliefs and practices It describes the variety of what takes place but mainly why and what the implications of both the theory and practice have for our understanding of Islam The book includes accounts of prayer food pilgrimage mosques and the various legal and doctrinal schools that exist within Islam with the focus on how they influence practice The volume is organized in terms of texts groups practices places and others An attempt has been made to discuss the wide range of Muslim ritual and practice and provide a sound guide to this significant aspect of the religious life of one of the largest groups of believers in the world today

Monuments and Identities in the Caucasus, 2023-12-14 This is the first multidisciplinary volume whose focus is on the barely accessible highlands between Armenia and Azerbaijan and their invaluable artistic heritage Numerous ancient and mediaeval monuments of Artsakh Karabagh and Nakhichevan find themselves in the crucible of a strife involving mutually exclusive national accounts They are gravely endangered today by the politics of cultural destruction endorsed by the modern State of Azerbaijan This volume contains seventeen contributions by renowned scholars from eight nations rare photographic documentation and a detailed inventory of all the monuments discussed Part 1 explores the historical geography of these lands and their architecture Part 2 analyses the development of Azerbaijani nationalism against the background of the centuries long geopolitical contest between Russia and Turkey Part 3 documents the loss of monuments and examines their destruction in the light of international law governing the protection of cultural heritage Crossing

Borders Mimi Sheller, Kevin Hannam, 2018-10-18 Crossing Borders examines how translocal transnational and internal borders of various kinds distribute uneven capabilities for moving dwelling and circulating The contributors offer nuanced understandings of the politics of mobility across various kinds of borders and forms of cultural circulation showing how people experience and practice crossing many different borders Several chapters draw on interviews and ethnographic methods to analyze transnational migration while others focus on material relations and cultural practices Rather than the usual narrative of mobility as a kind of freedom border crossing emerges here as an instrumental practice for building translocal livelihoods a tactic for simply getting by and a material practice potentially generating new forms of future sociality Ultimately these diverse perspectives on crossing borders offer new ways to think about the mobility of political relations and the politics of mobile relations in a world of growing circulation across borders but also flexible forms of re bordering This book was originally published as a special issue of Mobilities Geographies of Muslim Identities Peter

Hopkins, 2016-04-15 In recent years geographies of identities including those of ethnicity religion race and gender have formed an increasing focus of contemporary human geography The events of September 11th 2001 particularly illustrated the ways in which identities can be transformed across time and space by both global and local events of a social cultural political and economic nature Such transformations have also demonstrated the temporal and spatial construction of hate and fear and of increasing incidences of Islamophobia through the construction of Muslims as the Other As the social scientific study of religion continues to be marginalized within mainstream scholarship there remains an important gap in the literature This timely book addresses this gap by collecting a range of cutting edge contributions from the social cultural political historical and economic sub disciplines of geography together with writings from gender studies cultural studies and leisure studies where research has revealed a strong spatial dimension to the construction representation contestation and reworking of Muslim identities The contributors illustrate the ways in which such identities are constructed represented negotiated and contested in everyday life in a wide variety of international contexts focusing upon issues connected with diaspora gender and belonging

Why Do Uzbeks Have to be Muslims? Irene Hilgers, 2009 In this work the late Irene Hilgers analyses the revival of Islam in the public sphere in postsocialist Uzbekistan with particular reference to its role in the construction of a new national identity Data collected during fieldwork in 2003 2004 are contextualized with reference to the history of the Kokand Khanate and the suppression of religion during the Soviet era Hilgers analyses current state ideology and the official structures for controlling religion but also the continued significance of popular religion as expressed at shrines and in healing rituals and the tensions associated with Wahabi currents The tight association between Uzbek identity and Islam is also illustrated through the problems encountered by converts to Christianity Throughout the work Hilgers deploys her rich ethnographic materials to shed fresh light on major debates concerning secularization and the nature of Soviet and post Soviet modernity

Allegory in Iranian Cinema Michelle Langford, 2019-07-25 Iranian filmmakers have long been recognised for creating a vibrant aesthetically rich cinema whilst working under strict state censorship regulations As Michelle Langford reveals many have found indirect allegorical ways of expressing forbidden topics and issues in their films But for many allegory is much more than a foil against haphazardly applied censorship rules Drawing on a long history of allegorical expression in Persian poetry and the arts allegory has become an integral part of the poetics of Iranian cinema Allegory in Iranian Cinema explores the allegorical aesthetics of Iranian cinema explaining how it has emerged from deep cultural traditions and how it functions as a strategy for both supporting and resisting dominant ideology As well as tracing the roots of allegory in Iranian cinema before and after the 1979 revolution Langford also theorizes this cinematic mode She draws on a range of cinematic philosophical and cultural concepts developed by thinkers such as Walter Benjamin Gilles Deleuze Pier Paolo Pasolini Christian Metz and Vivian Sobchack to provide a theoretical framework for detailed analyses of films by renowned directors of the pre and post revolutionary eras including Masoud Kimiai Dariush Mehrjui Ebrahim Golestan Kamran Shirdel Majid Majidi Jafar Panahi Marziyeh Meshkini Mohsen Makhmalbaf Rakhshan Bani Etemad and Asghar Farhadi Allegory in Iranian Cinema explains how a centuries old means of expression interpretation encoding and decoding becomes in the hands of Iran s most skilled cineastes a powerful tool with which to critique and challenge social and cultural norms

Fiction, Memory, and Ethnic Politics in the South Caucasus Mikail Mamedov, Peter Orte, Nona Shahnazarian, Ulvi Ismayil, 2025-09-30 The book explores the aftermath of the disintegration of the Soviet Union and the effects of war and nationalism in the South Caucasus While the Soviet Union s dissolution seemed to promise democracy and liberalization the rise of nationalist movements in Armenia and Azerbaijan led to those countries becoming undemocratic monoethnic states which ethnically cleansed their largest minorities During the violence of the first stage of the Karabakh War 1992 1994 Armenians were expelled from Azerbaijan and Azerbaijanis were expelled from Armenia The persistence of this violent conflict through the second 2020 and third 2023 stages has led to competing incompatible national narratives and an entrenched imagination of the other as the enemy Explaining these events historical context by tracing them back to specific Soviet and Tsarist policies the contributors of this volume examine the impact of the Karabakh conflict on ordinary people s lives in Armenia and Azerbaijan by analyzing fiction film and other forms of public memory Ultimately they show how eternal enmity is a myth and point to potential solutions to the conflict This study will be useful to students and scholars of Soviet and Post Soviet History Nationalism Empire and Conflict Studies

Exploring the Caucasus in the 21st Century Francoise Companjen, László Marác, Lia Versteegh, 2025-10-01 Although the name Caucasus has been around for some 2000 years and may suggest unity and coherence the region these days is best known for the ethnic and religious divides resulting in recurrent bloody conflicts between the various minorities and the post Soviet independent states Geographically the Caucasus has traditionally been a buffer between Russia Turkey and Iran Part Russian Federation part Georgia Armenia and

Azerbaijan the area has a tradition of fast shifting partnerships of rich and varied cultural heritage and fierce ethnic tensions going back centuries This fascinating volume creates an illuminating perspective on the politics history and culture of the Caucasus it includes an account of how several 19th century Hungarian linguists fascinated by the region s famously difficult languages conducted field research still used by politicians to prove or disprove ethnic links an analysis of the recurring forcible movements of the people a study of the region s Russian Imperial past an exploration of the Muslim North Christian South division in the context of the recent conflicts and their international ramifications the elite driven nature of the region s politics finally the role of art as a medium of freedom in the war torn zones of the region

Clan Politics and Regime Transition in Central Asia Kathleen Collins,2006-04-03 This book is a study of the role of clan networks in Central Asia from the early twentieth century through 2004 Exploring the social economic and historical roots of clans and their political role and political transformation in the Soviet and post Soviet periods it argues that clans are informal political actors that are critical to understanding politics in this region The book demonstrates that the Soviet system was far less successful in transforming and controlling Central Asian society and in its policy of eradicating clan identities than has often been assumed In order to understand Central Asian politics and their economies scholars and policy makers must take into account the powerful role of these informal groups how they adapt and change over time and how they may constrain or undermine democratization in this strategic region

Patronal Politics Henry E. Hale,2015 This book proposes a new way of understanding events throughout the world that are usually interpreted as democratization rising authoritarianism or revolution Where the rule of law is weak and corruption pervasive what may appear to be democratic or authoritarian breakthroughs are often just regular predictable phases in longer term cyclic dynamics patronal politics This is shown through in depth narratives of the post 1991 political history of all post Soviet polities that are not in the European Union This book also includes chapters on czarist and Soviet history and on global patterns
