Christopher Dawson Joseph T. Stuart,2022-01-14 The English historian Christopher Dawson 1889 1970 was the first Catholic Studies professor at Harvard University and has been described as one of the foremost Catholic thinkers of modern times Joseph T Stuart argues that through Dawson's study of world cultures he acquired a cultural mind by which he attempted to integrate knowledge according to four implicit rules intellectual architecture boundary thinking intellectual asceticism and intellectual bridges Dawson responded to the cultural fragmentation after the Great War 1914 1918 through this multilayered approach to culture which was an instantiation of John Henry Newman's philosophical habit of mind Stuart demonstrates how Dawson formed his cultural mind practicing an interdisciplinary science of culture involving anthropology sociology history and comparative religion and applied his cultural thinking to problems in politics and education The Building of Old College Andrew G. Fraser,1989 The Life of the Law Peter Birks,1993-01-01 Enlightenment, Legal Education, and Critique John W Cairns,2015-07-27 Enlightenment Legal Education and Critique deals with broad themes in Legal History such as the development of Scots Law through the major legal thinkers of the Enlightenment essays on Roman law and miscellaneous essays on the literary and philosophic Late Seventeenth-century Edinburgh Helen M. Dingwall,1994 A thematically structured technically ground breaking demographic analysis of an important early modern European city Each chapter addresses an aspect of urban life the household and family wealth and taxation employment the position of women care of the poor Throughout the book runs the constant theme of urban ness in relation to the different social and economic structures of the parishes of Edinburgh The strength of this work lies in the breadth of the range of sources that the author has exploited Poll Tax and Health Tax registers testaments burial registers and town council Kirk and craft records in the sophisticated techniques used to marshal this prodigious amount of information to construct a coherent and readable account of city life and in its subject this is one of a very few urban historical demographic studies of the period not to be based on an English city Disruption to Diversity David F.
