Salamon, 2012-05-14. Today America's nonprofit organizations seem caught in a force field buffeted by four impulses: voluntarism, professionalism, civic activism, and commercialism. Too little attention, however, has been paid to the significant tensions among these impulses. Understanding this force field and the factors shaping its dynamics thus becomes central to understanding the future of particular organizations and of the nonprofit sector as a whole.

In this second edition of an immensely successful volume Lester Salamon and his colleagues offer an overview of the current state of America's nonprofit sector examining the forces that are shaping its future and identifying the changes that might be needed. The State of Nonprofit America has been completely revised and updated to reflect changing political realities and the punishing economic climate currently battering the nonprofit sector which faces significant financial challenges during a time when its services are needed more than ever. The result is a comprehensive analysis of a set of institutions that Alexis de Tocqueville recognized to be more deserving of our attention than any other part of the American experiment.

Strategic Planning and Management for Library Managers Joseph R. Matthews, 2005-05-30 Libraries enter into strategic planning by a variety of routes from dynamic technology and rising costs to budget cuts and pressure for change. In this book Joe Matthews guides library managers towards a greater understanding of the role and attendant responsibilities of strategic planning. Academic, public and special librarians alike will benefit from Matthews' cogent explanations, real life examples and time tested recommendations. In the process Matthews addresses such intrinsic questions as: Why is it important that I add strategic thinking to my managerial arsenal? How will strategic planning benefit my library and is there more than one way to go about it? What is the best way of monitoring and updating our strategic plan for maximum effect? In each case he debunks false impressions, attends to the goal of providing good service and identifies at least one new way to communicate the library's strategic importance in the lives of its customers. Academic, public and special librarians alike will benefit from Matthews' cogent explanations, real life examples and time tested recommendations.

Building a Successful Social Venture Eric Carlson, James Koch, 2018-09-18 This is the first book on creating and running a social enterprise to combine theoretical discussions with current cases from around the world, filling a huge gap in the literature. It serves as an eminently practical blueprint for those who wish to build, sustain and grow social ventures. Building a Successful Social Venture draws on Eric Carlson's and James Koch's pioneering work with the Global Social Benefit Institute, cofounded by Koch at Santa Clara University's Miller Center for Social Entrepreneurship. Since 2003 over 200 Silicon Valley executives have mentored more than 800 aspiring social entrepreneurs at the GSBI. It is this unparalleled real world foundation that truly sets the book apart. Early versions of the book were used in both undergraduate and MBA classes. Part 1 of the book describes the assumptions that the GSBI model is based on: a bottom up approach to social change, a focus on base of the pyramid markets and a specific approach to business planning developed by the GSBI. Part 2 presents the seven elements of the GSBI business planning process and Part 3 lays out the keys to executing it. The book includes Social Venture Snapshots illustrating how different organizations have realized elements of the plan as well as a wealth of checklists and exercises. Social ventures hold enormous promise to solve some of the world's most intractable problems. This book offers a tested framework for students, social entrepreneurs and field researchers who wish to learn more about the application of business principles and theories of change for advancing social progress and creating a more just world.

The Canonical Visitation of Parishes Gregory N.

Smith,2007-06-25 The ordinary episcopal visitation of parishes treated in canons 396 398 of the 1983 Code of Canon Law is studied here from its origins to the present The dissertation s first chapter traces the historical development of this ancient canonical institute particularly with a view to showing its usefulness for Church reform The second examines the canons of the 1917 and 1983 codes and provides a detailed commentary on the latter A final chapter studies the visitation of parishes in Canada Three methods are used corresponding to the three chapters In the first chapter a primarily historical review draws on Scripture the Fathers papal legislation the decrees of provincial and ecumenical councils particularly the Council of Trent and other sources The second chapter takes an exegetical approach interpreting the 1983 canons on the visitation in light of the former law the Second Vatican Council and contemporary papal and curial documents The visitation is related to the diocesan bishop s power of governance The third chapter presents the results of the author s survey of Canadian bishops carried out according to the methods of social science research Without arguing that the visitation is a panacea for all the Church s ills the author concludes that it is a highly effective way for bishops to address some present difficulties and avoid future ones Handbook of Research on Nonprofit Economics and Management Bruce A.
