Study Guide

Notes: highlighted items were part of PA – these are highlighted for my personal studying to help prepare for OA. Some PA questions/answers will be typed directly into guide near appropriate content, but some might just be highlighted. Highlight Color has no meaning – just a way for my ADHD brain to break up content that's close to one another.

There is an Excel part of the PA/OA not covered in this study guide.

Unit 2: The Role and Purpose of Accounting

Module 1: Accounting Information

- ❑ What is the role and purpose of accounting?
  - Accumulate & report on financial information about performance, financial positions and cash flow of a business. Used to reach decisions about how to manage the business, invest in it, or lend money to it
- ❑ Who uses accounting information and why?
  - Businesses use accounting to: analyze transactions, handle routine bookkeeping tasks, and structure info so it can be used to evaluate the performance and health of the business. Used by creditors, investors, and both decisions makers inside AND outside of organizations to: allocate resources, evaluate performance, and determine a company's profitability.
- ❑ What are the important influences on accounting?
  - Three important factors that influence the environment in which accounting operates are: "generally accepted accounting principles" (GAAP), international business and ethical considerations.
- ❑ What is the role of ethics in accounting?
  - Maintaining high ethical standards is important in accounting bc accounting decisions often impact real-world economic decisions. Accountants have a moral and economic incentive to be ethical and to conduct themselves ethically. Accountants are the scorekeepers, so they must be unbiased.
- ❑ PA QUESTION: What is the effect of a company's accounting department maintaining high ethical standards?
  - The company's accounting information will increase in value.
- ❑ PA QUESTION: Why might employees be interested in their company's financial accounting information?
